USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's third highest bowl winning percentage (.651) among the 67 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Utah's .700 and Georgia Tech's .667). USC is just 1 win behind Alabama for most bowl victories, 29 to 28. Troy's 43 bowl appearances rank fourth behind only Alabama (52), Tennessee (45) and Texas (44). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 28-15.

The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990. Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 29 Rose Bowls, where it has a 21-8 mark. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 8 of its last 10 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 11 other bowls—the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Sun (John Hancock) Bowl (twice), Freedom Bowl (twice), Cotton Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl and Orange Bowl (twice).

ROSE BOWL HISTORY

This will be the 92nd version of the Rose Bowl, the "Granddaddy of All Bowl Games." It will be held in the 88,506-seat, natural turf Pasadena stadium. Held in conjunction with the world-famous Rose Parade, the game originated in 1902 and has been held continuously since 1916. Beginning in 1947, the game hosted the champions of the Pac-10 and Big Ten Conferences. The Rose Bowl joined the Bowl Championship Series in 1998 and hosted the BCS National Championship Game in 2002. USC has appeared 29 times and Texas once.

USC FOOTBALL ROSE BOWL NOTES

RANKINGS

USC is ranked first by AP and USA Today. Texas is second in both polls.

SERIES

USC is 4-0 in its series with Texas, with a pair of home-and-home meetings in the mid-1950s and mid-1960s. In 1955 in the Coliseum, in the schools' first-ever meeting, No. 9 USC beat Texas, 19-7, behind a pair of TD runs by FB Gordon Duvall (it was the first time a Pacific Coast Conference team had defeated the Longhorns). The next year, the No. 15 Trojans opened their season with a 44-20 victory in Austin that was historic from both an athletic and sociological perspective. In that 1956 contest, Trojan FB C.R. Roberts set a school single-game rushing record (251 yards) that stood for 20 years. It was sweet redemption for Roberts (an African-American) and his teammates, as the Austin hotel the Trojans had booked was segregated, causing USC head coach Jess Hill to move his team to an integrated lodging. Ten years later, No. 9 USC opened its 1966 season at Texas with a 10-6 win, holding the Longhorns scoreless until the fourth quarter (Troy ran out the clock for the game's final 8 minutes). The following year (1967), No. 4 USC held off the No. 5 Longhorns in the Coliseum, 17-13, behind TB O.J. Simpson's 158 rushing yards.

FOOTBALL POWERS

USC and Texas have 2 of the top gridiron heritages in the country. USC has won 11 national titles (1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003-04) and Texas has 3 (1963-69-70). Texas is third in career winning percentage among Division I-A schools (.714), while USC is eighth (.701). In all-time victories, Texas is third (799) and USC is 10th (732). USC has appeared in 43 bowls (with a 28-15 mark), while Texas has been in 44 bowls (going 21-21-2). Seven Trojans have won Heisman Trophies (Mike Garrett, O.J. Simpson, Charles White, Marcus Allen, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart and Reggie Bush) and 2 Longhorns have (Earl Campbell and Ricky Williams). Both programs have had legendary coaches (USC's Gloomy Gus Henderson, Howard Jones, John McKay, John Robinson and now Pete Carroll, and Texas' Dana X. Bible, Darrell Royal and now Mack Brown). Both even have distinctive 2-fingered celebratory hand gestures: USC's "V" for Victory and Texas' "Hook 'Em Horns."

ROSE BOWL AP NO. 1 VERSUS 2

This will be the third time that the Rose Bowl has hosted an AP-ranked No. 1 versus No. 2 showdown. In the 1963 Rose Bowl, top-ranked USC outlasted No. 2 Wisconsin, 42-37. Then, in the 1969 Rose Bowl, No. 1 Ohio State defeated No. 2 USC, 27-16.

USC VERSUS BIG 12

USC is 27-8-2 against Big 12 opponents. The Trojans have won 8 of the last 10 such meetings, most recently beating Oklahoma in the 2005 Orange Bowl BCS Championship Game, 55-19. On the other hand, Texas is 20-11-1 against the Pac-10, most recently falling to Washington State in the 2003 Holiday Bowl, 28-20.

USC GAMES IN ROSE BOWL STADIUM

USC is 28-16 in regular and post-season games it has played in the Rose Bowl, including 21-8 in the Rose Bowl game, 5-7 versus UCLA and 2-1 in the 1922 regular season.

SEASON ENDERS

USC is 61-40-11 (.594) in all season finales.

USC-UT STAT COMPARISON

Statistically, here's how USC and Texas match up in 2005:

	USC	Texas
Rushing Offense	264.3	273.8
Passing Offense	316.0	234.7
Pass Efficiency Offense	155.9	165.0
Total Offense	580.3	508.4
Scoring Offense	50.0	50.9
Rushing Defense	117.3	124.4
Passing Defense	227.3	155.9
Pass Efficiency Defense	117.7	91.3
Total Defense	344.7	280.3
Scoring Defense	21.3	14.6
Turnover Margin	+1.8	+0.5

WIN STREAKS

USC has the longest current Pac-10 win streaks for:

- overall games (a Pac-10 and school-record 34), the longest current streak in the nation and tied for sixth most consecutive wins in NCAA history;
- home games (a Pac-10 and school-record 27, with 4 shutouts);
- overall Pac-10 games (a Pac-10 and school-record 22);
- Pac-10 home games (a Pac-10 and school-record 19);
- non-conference games (16), USC's longest since a school-record 20 straight in 1977-81;
- road games (a school-record 15, which does not include 3 neutral site victories during that span);
- Pac-10 road games (11), tying USC's longest since a school-record 11 in a row in 1971-74, which does not include 2 neutral site wins;
- non-conference home games (8);
- non-conference road games (5, not including 3 neutral site wins);
- against AP Top 25 teams (an NCAA and school-record 16), including its last 7 games versus AP Top 7 teams;
- October games (16);
- November games (16).

LONGEST WINNING STREAKS

USC's 34 consecutive wins is tied for the sixth most in Division I history. The list:

WINS	TEAM	YEARS
47	Oklahoma	1953-57
39	Washington	1908-14
37	Yale	1890-93
37	Yale	1887-89
35	Toledo	1969-71
34	USC	2003-05
34	Miami (Fla.)	2000-03
34	Penn	1894-96

HIGH RANKING

USC has been ranked in the AP Top 10 for its past 45 games, a school record. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 49 of the last 51 polls (including 2 pre-season polls). USC has been AP's No. 1 team in the last 33 polls (including 2 pre-season polls), a national record. In its history, USC has held the AP No. 1 spot (not including pre-season polls, per NCAA record-keeping policy) for 76 weeks; only 2 other schools have done so more or as often (Notre Dame's 89 and Oklahoma's 86).

RECORD WHEN NO. 1

USC has a 62-4-2 (.926) record in games when it is ranked No. 1 by AP. When a No. 1-ranked Trojan team faced a ranked opponent, it has gone 22-2-1 (.900), with the losses versus Oklahoma in 1963 and Alabama in 1977 and the tie with Oklahoma in 1973. When a No. 1 USC squad played an unranked opponent, it went 40-2-1 (.942), with the losses at Oregon State in 1967 and versus Arizona in 1981 and the tie with Stanford in 1979.

WIRE-TO-WIRE NO. 1

In 2004, USC became only the second team ever to be ranked No. 1 in the AP pre-season poll and hold that top ranking the entire season (Florida State did it in 1999). Four other teams—Notre Dame in 1943, Army in 1945, Nebraska in 1971 and USC in 1972—were No. 1 in every regular season ranking, but either did not start off No. 1 in the pre-season poll (Nebraska and USC) or there was no pre-season poll (Notre Dame and Army).

BACK-TO-BACK AP CHAMPS

USC's back-to-back AP national championships in 2003 and 2004 marked the 10th time that a team won consecutive AP national championships. The others: Minnesota (1940-41), Army (1944-45), Notre Dame (1946-47), Oklahoma (1955-56), Alabama (1964-65), Nebraska (1970-71), Oklahoma (1974-75), Alabama (1978-79) and Nebraska (1994-95). No team has ever won 3 consecutive AP titles.

USC'S WINNINGEST 3, 2 AND 1 YEAR SPANS

USC's 37 wins over these last 3 years (12 in 2003, 13 in 2004 and 12 in 2005) represent the winningest 3-year period in Trojan history. Also, USC's 25 wins during the previous 2 years (2003-04) and the past 2 years (2004-05) tie for its best 2-year spans. And USC posted its first 13-win season in 2004, its eighth perfect (unbeaten, untied) season ever. The other perfect campaigns: 1888 (2-0), 1889 (2-0), 1894 (1-0), 1920 (6-0), 1932 (10-0), 1962 (11-0) and 1972 (12-0). The Trojans have been on quite a run lately: 3 straight BCS bowl wins, a current streak of 34 victories in a row (and 45 in the last 46 games), 4 consecutive Pacific-10 titles, an unprecedented 4-year sweep of rivals UCLA and Notre Dame, an active string of 23 straight Pac-10 conquests, 2 of the last 3 Heisman Trophy winners, and 15 first team All-Americans since 2003.

USC'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

USC has won 11 national championships in football: 1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003-04. In 5 other years (1929-33-76-79-2002), the Trojans were picked by some as No. 1, but the selectors were deemed not all-encompassing enough to claim a legitimate national crown.

USC'S PAC-10 TITLES

After sharing the Pac-10 championship in 2002, USC won the 2003 Pac-10 title outright (its first outright crown since 1989) and again in both 2004 and 2005. Those 4 consecutive conference titles ties the school record (first set in 1966-67-68-69). USC has now won the league title 35 times, more than twice as much as any other school.

2005/2004 12-GAME STAT COMPARISON

A look at USC's statistics through 12 games this year compared to 2004 shows the Trojans have a more productive offense and a less stingy but more opportunistic defense in 2005.

	2005	2004	Diff.
Rush Off.	264.2	176.1	+88.1
Pass Off.	316.0	266.7	+49.3
Total Off.	580.2	442.8	+137.4
Score Off.	50.0	36.8	+13.2

Pass Def.	227.3	196.2	-31.1
Total Def.	344.7	271.6	-73.1
Score Def.	21.3	12.5	-8.8
TO Margin	1.8	1.2	+0.6

CONNECTIONS

OT Kyle Williams (Highland Park HS in Dallas) is the only current Trojan who hails from Texas...Three Longhorns are from California: RB Sam Areias (Los Banos HS), DE Kaelen Jakes (Valencia HS) and LB Roberto Schuldes (Modesto HS)...In its history, USC has had 30 football lettermen claim Texas as home...Texas women's volleyball head coach Jerritt Elliott served as USC's interim head coach in 1999 and 2000 (guiding the Women of Troy to the 2000 NCAA Final Four) and was a Trojan assistant for the 4 previous seasons.

ON TV

USC is one of America's most televised teams. The Trojans have appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 346 times, including 212 of the past 214 games (USC's last 53 games have been televised). In fact, USC had an amazing streak of 111 consecutive games on some form of live television from 1988 to 1997 (snapped against Oregon State) and another streak of 48 in a row from 1997 to 2001 (broken against California).

LOOKING TO 2006

On USC's current 48-man 2-deep (including the punter and kicker), 34 players (16 on both offense and defense, plus 2 specialists) are non-seniors, including 17 starters (9 offense, 7 defense, 1 specialist). Below is the schedule those returnees will play in 2006.

USC'S HEISMAN WINNERS

USC now has 7 Heisman Trophy winners, tied with Notre Dame for most ever: Mike Garrett (1965), O.J. Simpson (1968), Charles White (1979), Marcus Allen (1981), Carson Palmer (2002), Matt Leinart (2004) and Reggie Bush (2005). No other school has had 3 winners in a 4-year period. USC is just the fourth school with back-to-back winners, joining Yale (1936-37), Army (1945-46) and Ohio State (1974-75). In this 2006 Rose Bowl, USC will be the first team ever to field a pair of already-named Heisman winners in a game. Last season's Orange Bowl was the first time that a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (Leinart and Oklahoma's Jason White) faced each other in a game. Texas, by the way, has had 2 Heisman winners (Earl Campbell in 1977 and Ricky Williams in 1998).

2005 ALL-AMERICANS

Six Trojans won All-American first team honors in 2005: TB Reggie Bush (AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBS Sportsline.com, Rivals.com, Collegefootballnews.com), QB Matt Leinart (Football Coaches, Walter Camp), WR Dwayne Jarrett (AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, SI.com, CBS Sportsline.com, Collegefootballnews.com), OG Taitusi Lutui (Football Coaches, Football Writers, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBS Sportsline.com, Rivals.com), S Darnell Bing (AP, Rivals.com) and OT Sam Baker (CBS Sportsline.com). Trojans have now made All-American first teams 141 times in history. This is the second consecutive year that USC has had a school-record 6 All-American first teamers. It is also the first year ever that USC has had 5 offensive players named to an All-American first team. Leinart becomes USC's second-ever 3-time All-American first teamer (joining linebacker Richard Wood, 1972-74), while Bush repeats as an All-American. Bush and Jarrett were unanimous All-Americans, USC's 23rd and 24th. Jarrett joins Mike Williams in 2003 as the only sophomore USC wide receivers to win All-American honors. Lutui and Baker are USC's first pair of All-American offensive linemen in a season since 1982 (Bruce Matthews, Don Mosebar). Additionally, C Ryan Kalil (SI.com), TB LenDale White (Collegefootballnews.com) and OG Fred Matua (Collegefootballnews.com) were All-American second teamers, while DE Lawrence Jackson (Collegefootballnews.com) was an All-American third teamer. Also, Bush, Leinart and Jarrett won some major national awards. Bush won the Heisman Trophy, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, Touchdown Club of Columbus Player of the Year (and Running Back of the Year), Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Offensive Player of the Year, Rivals.com Offensive Player of the Year and the Doak Walker Award (as the nation's top running back). Leinart, who finished third in the 2005 Heisman voting after winning it in 2004, won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award (as the nation's top senior quarterback) and was the Touchdown Club of Columbus Quarterback of the Year. Jarrett is the Touchdown Club of Columbus Receiver of the Year. Leinart is a finalist for the Manning Award (nation's top quarterback).

2005 ALL-PAC-10

TB Reggie Bush was named the 2005 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year and was among 9 Trojans—including 6 on offense—to make the All-Pac-10 first team. Head coach Pete Carroll was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year. It was Carroll's second such honor in his 5 years at USC. In all, 21 Trojans made All-Pac-10 first team, second team or honorable mention. It was the second consecutive Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year honor for Bush. Last year, he shared the honor with current teammate Matt Leinart, the 2004 Heisman-winning quarterback. Bush is just the fifth player to win the offensive award twice, joining USC's Charles White (1978-79), Stanford's John Elway (1980-82), Washington State's Rueben Mayes (1984-85) and Leinart (2003-04). Bush is the first non-quarterback in 20 years to win it consecutively. It's also the fourth year in a row that a Trojan has been the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year. Quarterback Carson Palmer started the streak in 2002, the year he won the Heisman. Leinart made the All-Pac-10 first team for his third straight year, just the second quarterback to ever do so (along with UCLA's Gary Beban, 1965-67). Bush, who was the only player to be a unanimous first team pick in 2005, and Leinart were joined on the first team by wide receiver Dwayne Jarrett and 3 offensive linemen, guard Taitusi Lutui, tackle Sam Baker and center Ryan Kalil. On defense, safety Darnell Bing and ends Lawrence Jackson and Frotee Rucker were first team selections. USC's second team All-Pac-10 picks were tailback LenDale White, offensive guard Fred Matua and safety Scott Ware. Bush also made the second team as a punt returner. Nine other Trojans were recognized as honorable mention All-Pac-10ers: placekicker Mario Danolo, defensive tackles Sedrick Ellis and LaJuan Ramsey, offensive tackle Winston Justice, fullback David Kirtman, linebackers Oscar Lua and Keith Rivers, wide receiver Steve Smith and cornerback Justin Wyatt. Carroll shared the coaching honor with UCLA's Karl Dorrell.

SCHEDULE

USC has been challenged by a schedule that includes 7 opponents who played in bowls last season, with 5 who won at least 8 games. In 2005, the Trojans have played 5 teams that were ranked in the AP Top 25 going into the game (No. 24 Oregon, No. 14 Arizona State and No. 9 Notre Dame all on the road and No. 16 Fresno State and No. 11 UCLA at home) and have to play 1 more from the current poll (No. 2 Texas). USC has the nation's 23rd most difficult schedule as ranked currently by the NCAA and 20th in the Sagarin ratings. Of the combined 9 losses by Oregon, Notre Dame, Fresno State and UCLA this year, 4 have come at the hands of USC (and Troy still has to play undefeated Texas). USC opened its 2005 slate at Hawaii on Labor Day weekend, then had a bye before hosting Arkansas (the schools' first meeting since 1974) in the Coliseum, where Troy has won its past 27 games (a Pac-10 record). The Trojans then began Pac-10 action by playing 4 of their next 5 games on the road, with a home contest versus Arizona sandwiched in the middle of trips to Oregon, Arizona State, intersectional rival Notre Dame and Washington. It was the first time since 1987 that Troy played 5 of its first 7 games on the road. USC then closed its regular season with 4 of its last 5 games at home (Troy has won a league-record 19 consecutive Pac-10 home games) by hosting Washington State for Homecoming and Stanford before going to California and then coming home for non-conference foe Fresno State and, after a bye, crosstown rival UCLA. USC now meets undefeated, No. 2 Texas in the Rose Bowl. This schedule has helped USC once again be among college football's most popular draws. In 2005, USC set Pac-10 records for total home attendance (544,872) and home attendance average (90,812). The Trojans are on pace to go over the million mark in overall attendance in 2005 (1,022,211), which would break the school mark of 960,138 set in 2004, and to average 78,632 fans for all games, above last year's school-record average overall attendance record of 73,857. This year, USC has played before soldout stadiums at 5 of its 6 road venues (Hawaii, Oregon, Arizona State, Notre Dame and California) and 4 of its 6 home contests (Washington State, Stanford, Fresno State, UCLA), plus Troy had near-sellout 90,000-plus crowds at its first 2 home games (Arkansas, Arizona). USC set school sellout records in 2005 for home games (4) and regular-season games (9) and, with its remaining game against Texas in the Rose Bowl already sold out, season games (10). This comes on the heels of 2004, when the Trojans set a Pac-10 record for home attendance average (85,229), as well as school marks for total home attendance, overall attendance average and total overall attendance. USC played before 3 home sellouts, 7 regular-season sellouts and 8 season sellouts in 2004, all school marks.

FUN FACT I

For the second game in a row, USC will be facing the nation's passing efficiency leader (UCLA's Drew Olson and now Texas' Vince Young).

FUN FACT II

Texas coach Mack Brown is 1-0 against USC, having guided his 1993 North Carolina team to a 31-9 victory over the Trojans in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic in Anaheim, Calif.

FUN FACT III

USC has never played a game on Jan. 3.

FUN FACT IV

In years that USC beat UCLA and Notre Dame and then played in a bowl game, the Trojans are 11-1 (wins in 1938-62-67-72-74-76-78-79-2002-03-04 and the loss in 1981).

FUN FACT V

This will be the sixth time that USC enters a bowl game ranked No. 1 by AP. The Trojans were victorious in the previous 5 such bowls (1962-67-72-2003-04), winning national championships each season.

FUN FACT VI

Under Pete Carroll, USC has allowed its 4 bowl opponents to average just 15.0 points.

USC STATISTICS OF NOTE

WINS

USC has won 45 of its last 46 games, 46 of its last 48, 48 of its last 51 and 52 of its last 56.

OFFENSE

Offensively in 2005, USC ranks first nationally in total offense (580.3, first in Pac-10), second in scoring offense (40.0, first in Pac-10), fourth in rushing offense (264.3, first in Pac-10), fifth in passing offense (316.0, second in Pac-10) and seventh in passing efficiency (155.9, third in Pac-10).

USC's current per game total offense average of 580.3 is well above the school record of 471.3 set in 1979 (the NCAA record is 624.9 by Houston in 1989).

USC's 6,963 yards of total offense in 2005 is a Pac-10 record; USC is on pace for 7,544 total yards in 2005, within range of Texas Tech's NCAA mark of 7,576 in 2003.

USC has had at least 5,800 yards of total offense and 60 touchdowns each of the past 4 seasons.

USC's current per game rushing average of 264.3 is within range of the school-record of 282.3 in 1974.

USC is on pace to become the first team since Arizona State in 1973 to rank in the NCAA Top 10 in both rushing offense and passing offense (the Trojans are on pace to become the first team since Oklahoma A&M in 1945 to finish in the Top 5 in both categories).

USC's 312 rushing yards and 433 passing yards against Washington State in 2005 marked the first time ever that Troy has eclipsed the 300/400 marks in the same game; in all in 2005, USC has had a quintet of 300-yard rushing outings (373 at Arizona State, 337 versus Arizona, 312 versus Washington State, 308 versus Fresno State, 430 versus UCLA) and a pair of 400-yard passing performances (445 versus Arkansas, 433 versus Washington State).

USC has had 700-plus yards of total offense 3 times in 2005 (736 versus Arkansas, 724 versus Arizona and 745 versus Washington State).

USC has had 600-plus yards of total offense 5 times in 2005 (the previous 3, plus 631 versus Arizona State and 679 versus UCLA).

USC has had 90-plus plays 3 times in 2005 (96 versus Arizona, 93 versus Washington State, 95 versus UCLA).

USC is averaging 648.4 yards of total offense (3,921 yards) and 55.7 points (334 points) a game at home in 2005.

USC in 2005 became the first school in NCAA history with a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard pass catcher (and the Trojans are on pace to add a second 1,000-yard receiver).

USC is averaging 7.5 yards per play in 2005, best in the nation in 2005 and within range of Army's NCAA record of 7.9 set in 1945 (and well above the USC mark of 6.5 set in 2003).

USC is averaging 6.6 yards per carry in 2005, best in the nation in 2005 and within range of the NCAA mark (minimum of 500 rushes) of 7.0 set by Nebraska in 1995.

USC's 3,792 passing yards in 2005 is within range of the school record of 3988 set in 2002.

Three of USC's 5 scholarship tailbacks who have carried the ball in 2005 (Reggie Bush, LenDale White and Desmond Reed) are averaging at least 6.7 yards per carry.

USC is averaging only 5.7 fourth downs a game in 2005 (31 punts, 10 field goals, 27 fourth down conversion tries).

USC is averaging only 2.6 punts per game in 2005.

USC is converting 54.9% of its third downs (84 of 153) in 2005, best in the nation.

Of USC's 74 offensive scoring drives in 2005, 49 took less than 3 minutes (including 28 under 2 minutes, with 16 of those less than a minute), while 35 consisted of 5 plays or less and 31 went 80-plus yards.

For the second consecutive year, Reggie Bush, LenDale White and Dwayne Jarrett each have scored at least 13 TDs (no trio had ever done that at USC since at least 1931).

USC's offensive line is allowing only 1.2 sacks per game in 2005.

SCORING

USC has scored at least 20 points in its last 51 games, a school record and currently more than twice as many times as any other team (and in 53 of its past 54).

USC has scored at least 30 points in 40 of its last 46 games.

USC has scored at least 40 points 31 times under Pete Carroll (including 12 times of at least 50 points).

USC's current per game scoring average of 50.0 is above the school record of 41.1 set in 2003 (the NCAA record is 56.0 by Army in 1944).

USC has scored 600 points in 2005, a Pac-10 record.

USC is on pace to score 650 points in 2005, above Nebraska's 1983 NCAA record of 624.

USC has scored at least 50 points a school-record 7 times in 2005 (63 at Hawaii, 70 versus Arkansas, 51 at Washington, 55 versus Washington State, 51 versus Stanford, 50 versus Fresno State, 66 versus UCLA).

USC scored 50 points in 3 consecutive games (Washington, Washington State and Stanford) in 2005, the first time doing so since 1972, and in 5 of the past 6 games.

USC has scored at least 40 points in its past 8 home games (and 15 of the last 17 home contests).

USC's 82 touchdowns in 2005 is a Pac-10 record (and on pace to equal the NCAA mark of 89 by Nebraska in 1983).

USC is on pace in 2005 to score 85 touchdowns rushing and passing, on pace to break Nebraska's mark of 84 set in 1983.

USC's 78 PATs is a Pac-10 record and on pace to get 85, which would break Miami (Ohio)'s mark of 80 set in 2003.

USC has outscored opponents in 2005, 600-256 (including 312-121 in the second half), a scoring margin of 28.7.

USC has a knack for scoring 20 or more unanswered points (13 times in 2005, 12 times in 2004 and 11 times in both 2003 and 2002).

USC has scored in all but 4 of 48 quarters in 2005.

USC has scored at least 23 points in 7 different quarters in 2005.

USC has scored 28 points in 4 different quarters in 2005 (third at Hawaii, first versus Arkansas, first versus Washington State, third versus Fresno State).

In its current 34-game winning streak, USC has won by a combined 876 points (an average of 25.8).

In its current 34-game winning streak, USC has trailed at halftime only 7 times (Virginia Tech, Stanford and Oregon State in 2004 and Oregon, Arizona State, Notre Dame and Fresno State in 2005).

During the Pete Carroll era, USC has more than doubled the score of its opponents in the second half of games (1,185 to 528 points).

Since 2003, USC has scored touchdowns of 20-plus yards 89 times (including 30 times in 2005).

USC's 133 points in consecutive games (Hawaii and Arkansas in 2005) were its most since a school-record 138 points back-to-back in 1905 (Whittier Reform and Alumni) and also were its most ever in its first 2 games of a season.

USC's 188 points in a 3-game span (Oklahoma in 2004 and Hawaii and Arkansas in 2005) was a school record.

USC's 233 points in a 4-game span (Oklahoma in 2004 and Hawaii, Arkansas and Oregon in 2005) was a school record.

USC's 178 points in the first 3 games of 2005 where the most in its first 3 contests of a season since 1925 (186 points).

USC's 63 points in its 2005 opener at Hawaii were its most in an opener since getting 76 in the 1929 opener versus UCLA.

DEFENSE

Defensively in 2005, USC is first nationally in turnover margin (+1.8, first in Pac-10) and 24th in rushing defense (117.3, second in Pac-10).

USC's current turnover margin of +1.8 continues an upward trend each year under Pete Carroll (+1.3 in 2001, +1.4 in 2002, +1.5 in both 2003 and 2004).

In its past 4 games of 2005, USC has come up with 19 turnovers (USC has forced 37 turnovers in 2005).

USC has scored 160 points following turnovers in 2005 (following 25 of the 37 times it has come up with a turnover).

During its current 34-game winning streak, USC has allowed a team to score more than 28 points just twice (31 by Notre Dame and 42 by Fresno State, both in 2005).

USC has intercepted a pass in 42 of the last 48 games, including 16 consecutive games before being blanked at Notre Dame in 2003.

Sixteen Trojans have made interceptions in 2005.

USC has held 33 of its last 51 opposing teams to less than 100 rushing yards (5 times in 2005, 8 times in 2004, 10 games in 2003 and 10 times in 2002).

Only 4 opposing runners have rushed for 100 yards against USC in the past 45 games (California's Adimchinobe Echemandu did so in 2003 with 147, breaking a streak of 16 consecutive games without a 100-yard rusher, Cal's J.J. Arrington in 2004 with 112, Washington State's Jerome Harrison in 2005 with 147 and Fresno State's Wendell Mathis in 2005 with 109).

USC has allowed only 12 rushing touchdowns in 2005.

Under Pete Carroll, USC is 27-0 when holding opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense.

Since allowing a 69-yard TD pass in the third quarter of the BYU game in 2004, USC has not allowed a pass completion longer than 45 yards (a span of 77 quarters).

MISCELLANEOUS

USC has won its last 7 games against AP Top 7 teams (No. 7 Notre Dame and No. 3 Iowa in 2002, No. 6 Auburn, No. 6 Washington State and No. 4 Michigan in 2003, and No. 7 California and No. 2 Oklahoma in 2004) and has done so by a 254-96 score (an average of 36-14).

USC has won its last 16 games against AP Top 25 teams, an NCAA record (the 7 mentioned in the previous item, plus No. 22 Washington, No. 14 Oregon and No. 25 UCLA in 2002, No. 15 Arizona State in 2004 and No. 24 Oregon, No. 14 Arizona State, No. 9 Notre Dame, No. 16 Fresno State and No. 11 UCLA in 2005) and has done so by a 603-292 score (an average score of 40-19).

USC has played before crowds of at least 85,000 in 14 of its past 28 games.

USC's last 6 home games (and 8 of its past 10) have been in front of 90,000-plus crowds.

With an average home attendance of 90,812 in 2005, USC broke its Pac-10 record of 85,229 set in 2004.

USC set a Pac-10 record as it had 544,872 fans attend home games in 2005.

USC is averaging 78,632 fans for all games, above last year's school-record average overall attendance record of 73,857.

USC is on pace to go over the million mark in overall attendance in 2005 (1,022,211), which would break the school mark of 960,138 set in 2004.

USC's last 2 losses (at Washington State in 2002 and California in 2003) have come in 4 overtimes.

Eight of the 9 losses in the Pete Carroll era at USC have been by a touchdown or less (the other was by 11 points).

USC RANDOM NOTES

USC's 2005 captains, as elected by their teammates at the end of fall camp, are: QB Matt Leinart, TB Reggie Bush, S Darnell Bing and LB Dallas Sartz. Leinart, who also was a captain in 2004, is only the sixth two-time Trojan captain ever, and just the third since 1902-03 (along with Chad Morton in 1998-99 and Troy Polamalu in 2001-02).

USC is ranked No. 2 in the recently-published Street & Smith's "50 Greatest College Football Programs of All Time," behind only Notre Dame.

Last year, it was MattLeinartBlog.com. This year, the blog has become a "vlog" or video log...MattReggieTV.com. Join Heisman Trophy-winning QB Matt Leinart and All-American TB Reggie Bush throughout the 2005 season as they provide periodic updates on the behind-the-scenes happenings of the 2-time defending national champion USC football team. They will give an inside look at the Trojans on and off the field in a way never seen before. It's raw, it's edgy, it's fun...it's Trojan football, reality TV style. The subscription site can be accessed directly at MattReggieTV.com or by clicking on the icon on USC's official website, USCTrojans.com. (Media should contact the USC Sports Information Office for a password.)

Head coach Pete Carroll has his own website, PeteCarroll.com. The site features a variety of Carroll-related information, multimedia and merchandise, as well as fan club membership that includes exclusive benefits. All proceeds benefit "A Better L.A." the non-profit organization the Carroll founded to help reduce gang violence in Los Angeles. Carroll also is partnering with Lou Tice of the Pacific Institute on a book—"Leadership Is A Performance Art"—that will be available this fall on the site. Proceeds from the $24.95 book also will go to "A Better L.A."

Watch for QB Matt Leinart on the national airwaves this fall in several NCAA television public service announcements, themed "NCAA Football: Every Game Counts." One PSA is centered on why he returned for his senior season, another is about his passion for college football and in a third he is joined by Michigan head coach Lloyd Carr, Boston College's Mathias Kiwanuka, Auburn's Marcus McNeill and Iowa's Abdul Hodge as they describe what college football means to them. The PSAs can be viewed at <http://usctrojans.collegesports.com/sports/m-footbl/spec-rel/081205aaa.html>.

Former USC All-American tight end Charles Young was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind., this Aug. 12-13, while ex-Trojan All-American tailback Anthony Davis was inducted into the Hall at a Dec. 6 dinner in New York (he'll be enshrined in August of 2006). Young was a unanimous All-American on USC's 1972 national championship team and caught 68 passes in his Trojan career before playing 13 years in the NFL. Davis, a unanimous All-American on the Trojans' 1972 and 1974 national championship squads and the runnerup for the 1974 Heisman Trophy, was the first player in Pac-8 history to rush for 1,000 yards in three different seasons. He is long remembered for scoring 11 touchdowns in three games against Notre Dame, including six as a sophomore in the 1972 contest and four in the famous 55-24 comeback victory in 1974. He set an NCAA record with six scoring kickoff returns in his career (including three in 1974). USC has 27 former players, 2 ex-head coaches, 4 one-time assistant coaches and a former athletic director in the College Football Hall of Fame.

The 2005 season marks the 40th anniversary of USC's first Heisman Trophy winner, 2-time All-American tailback Mike Garrett. Now Troy's athletic director, Garrett began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks. He set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his 3-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards. His 1,440 rushing yards in his 1965 Heisman campaign was the first 1,000-yard season by a Trojan since 1927.

USC has retired the jersey numbers of its 7 Heisman Trophy winners. However, 3 of those numbers are currently in use. When he arrived at USC in 2003, S Darnell Bing received permission from USC athletic director Mike Garrett (Troy's 1965 Heisman-winning tailback) to wear Garrett's retired No. 20 jersey (that was Bing's high school number). And current QB Matt Leinart and TB Reggie Bush continue in their No. 11 and No. 5 jerseys now that they won the 2004 and 2005 Heismans.

Head coach Pete Carroll has made it a practice to play first-year freshmen at USC. During Carroll's first four years at Troy, 40 first-year freshmen saw action at USC (7 in 2001, 12 in 2002, 13 in 2003 and 8 in 2004). In 2005, 11 first-year frosh have played.

QB John David Booty, who enrolled at USC in the fall of 2003, is believed to be the first football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university.

USC also has 7 players who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring. P Tom Malone and FB Brandon Hancock came to USC in the spring of 2002. Identical twin DBs Brandon and Ryan Ting did so in the spring of 2003. TE Fred Davis did so in the spring of 2004. TB Michael Coleman and S Kevin Ellison enrolled at USC this past spring.

Think you had a busy summer? Here's a sampling of some of the things QB Matt Leinart did during this past off-season. Media interviews and/or photo shoots included: Esquire, Rolling Stone, GQ, Southwest Airlines Magazine, New York Times, ESPN Magazine, Sports Illustrated, Athlon, Sports Illustrated on Campus, ESPN, CSTV, The Sporting News and FSN's Best Damn Sports Show (TB Reggie Bush joined Leinart on some of these). Appearances included: ESPYs, Sullivan Award banquet, Troops Appreciation Day with California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger, keynote speaker at Special Olympics "Breakfast With Champions," Orange County Board of Supervisor's "Matt Leinart Day," threw out the first pitch at Dodgers and Angels games, Orange County Youth Sports Foundation Sportsman of the Year banquet, Victor Awards, Playboy All-American Weekend, USC Athletic Hall of Fame banquet, filmed an NCAA public service announcement and Air 7 football camp.

As a youngster, LB Collin Ashton was a ballboy for several years for the USC men's basketball team. A fifth generation Trojan, he attended his first USC football game when he was a month old and has never missed a Trojan home game in his lifetime.

OT Taitusi Lutui is USC's only married player. He and his wife, Pua, were married in July of 2004. Their son, Inoke Luuaki Moeltau ("Return a champion"), was born the day after USC's win in the 2005 Orange Bowl.

No USC football letterman in history has been heavier than current Trojan OLs Taitusi Lutui (365 pounds) or Alatini Malu (340).

C Ryan Kalil might be the Trojans' most musically-inclined player. He likes to sing, particularly Frank Sinatra tunes.

Who's the fastest among the 2005 Trojans? It might be TB Reggie Bush, with bests of 10.42 in the 100 meters and 21.06 in the 200. He placed third in the 100 in the 2002 California state meet.

As a youngster, CB John Walker was a television actor who appeared in such shows as "E.R." and "7th Heaven" (in fact, he didn't play football until his sophomore year of high school because a clause in his acting contract prevented him from doing anything that could affect his appearance).

FB Brandon Hancock has been featured in various body building magazines, including Muscle Magazine International.

QB Matt Leinart was born with strabismus (cross-eyes), as his left eye was not aligned with his right. He underwent surgery twice (once when he was a year-and-a-half old and then just before entering high school) and was fitted with glasses.

USC's 2005 team features 2 sets of twins who are junior defensive backs: Brandon and Ryan Ting and walk-ons Jamel and Jerry Williams.

Strength and conditioning coach Chris Carlisle has beaten cancer. He learned he had Hodgkin's Disease in December of 2000, began radiation treatments in Tennessee (where he was still the Volunteers' associate strength and conditioning coach), was hired by USC in February of 2001, kept his illness a secret except to Trojan head coach Pete Carroll, continued treatments in Tennessee and at USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center and Hospital, then doctors told him in the summer of 2001 that the cancer was in remission. He informed the USC players of his ordeal at the start of fall 2001 camp. He was 1 of 17 nominees for the 2003 Most Courageous Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America and was 1 of 11 nominees for the 2005 award.

Politically speaking, TB Reggie Bush's nickname is "The President" (he humorously was singled out in remarks by President George W. Bush during USC's national championship visit to the White House in March of 2004). Troy also presidentally features a Jackson (DE Lawrence Jackson) and a Buchanan (WR William Buchanan, spelled slightly different than the President). Four Trojans attended high schools named after presidents (WRs Steve Smith and Greig Carlson attended Taft HS, FB Jody Adewale prepped at Roosevelt HS and DT Jermyah Graves went to Canton McKinley HS). And TE Dominique Byrd was an intern for Minnesota senator Mark Dayton.

Six Trojans have relatives who played on national championship USC football squads: SNP Will Collins (uncle, Joe Collins, was on the 1974 team), OT Nick Howell (father, Pat Howell, was an All-American on the 1978 team), P Sean Limahelu (uncle, Chris Limahelu, was on the 1974 team), LB Clay Matthews (father, 1977 All-American Clay Matthews, was on the 1974 team and brother, Kyle Matthews, was on the 2003 team), QB Michael McDonald (father, 1979 All-American Paul McDonald, was on the 1978 team) and WR Brad Walker (cousin, Norm Katnik, was on the 2003 team and cousin, Kurt Katnik, was on the 2003 and 2004 teams).

2005 USC PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

(Class years are listed athletically/academically, with “” indicating player who has used up redshirt year.)

(35) JODY ADEWALE

Fullback, 6-0, 230, So./Jr., Los Angeles, CA (Roosevelt HS)

2005: Adewale was a backup fullback and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2005. He saw brief action in 7 games (Hawaii, Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Stanford and UCLA). He made 2 tackles (1 each against Arkansas and Oregon).

2004: Adewale, who was switched from tailback to fullback prior to 2004 spring drills, served as a backup there as a redshirt freshman in 2004. He saw brief action in 5 games (Colorado State, BYU, Washington, Notre Dame and Oklahoma). He caught a 16-yard pass against Washington.

2003: Adewale redshirted as a freshman tailback in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West honorable mention, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-L.A. City second team and Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team (as a defensive back) selection as a senior at Roosevelt High in Los Angeles (Calif.). He ran for 1,400-plus yards and 26 TDs as a running back and made 27 tackles with an interception as a defensive back.

As a junior in 2001, he made All-L.A. City, Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team and All-League first team while running for 1,660 yards and 25 TDs and posting 144 tackles and an interception at linebacker.

He also competed in basketball and track at Roosevelt.

PERSONAL: He's a psychology major at USC with a B- average (2.80 GPA).

(59) COLLIN ASHTON

Linebacker, 6-1, 220, Sr./Sr., Mission Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2005: Ashton, a one-time walk-on, served as USC's all-purpose linebacker as a senior in 2005, able to play any linebacker position. He also was a key special teams player and was the backup long snapper. Primarily a backup weakside linebacker, he started the Stanford and UCLA games there. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 49 tackles (third on the team), including 2 for losses of 6 yards (with 0.5 sack for 3 yards), plus 1 interception (at California), 2 deflections and 1 forced fumble (at Hawaii, which USC recovered to set up a TD). He also returned a short kickoff 17 yards at Hawaii. He had a team-best 9 tackles at Washington, 7 versus Washington State, 6 against Notre Dame and Fresno State, 5 at Hawaii, 4 at Arizona State and 3 against Arkansas, Arizona, Stanford and UCLA.

2004: Ashton earned a scholarship in the fall of 2004 as a junior. He handled all of USC's punt snaps flawlessly and also served as a backup middle linebacker (he can also play on the weak side) and key special teams player. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 16 tackles, including a 5-yard sack, and a forced fumble. He had 4 tackles against Colorado State and BYU and 3 stops versus Arizona.

2003: As a sophomore in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, Ashton had 28 tackles (0.5 for a loss), 1 forced fumble and 1 deflection as a backup linebacker and key special teams player. He even started 2 late-season games (Arizona and UCLA), becoming just the second USC walk-on to start a game in the previous 20 years. He had 8 tackles at Arizona and 5 against UCLA.

2002: As a redshirt freshman in 2002, Ashton made 3 tackles while seeing brief action in 3 games (Oregon State, Oregon and UCLA).

2001: Ashton redshirted as a first-year freshman in 2001.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. Current Trojans Ryan Powdrell, Drew Radovich and Mark Sanchez also prepped at Mission Viejo.

PERSONAL: He's an international relations major at USC. During games, he wears a gray USC T-shirt under his jersey that he has been wearing since he was 10 years old. As a youngster, he served as a ballboy for several years for the USC men's basketball team. He is a fifth generation Trojan. He attended his first USC football game when he was a month old and has never missed a Trojan home game in his lifetime.

	(79) SAM BAKER
	Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 305, So./Jr., Tustin, CA (Tustin HS)

2005: Baker started all of 2005 for his second season at left offensive tackle as a sophomore and continued his solid play. He was named to the 2005 CBS Sportsline.com All-American first team, AP and Rivals.com All-American third team and SI.com All-American honorable mention squad. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. He won USC's Co-Lifter of the Year Award.

2004: Baker, who was switched from offensive guard to tackle prior to 2004 spring practice, started all of 2004 at left offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2004 and he did an outstanding job. He made the 2004 Football Writers, The Sporting News, Collegefootballnews.com and Rivals.com Freshman All-American first teams, All-Pac-10 second team, ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team. He also was USC's 2004 Offensive Lineman of the Year.

2003: Baker redshirted as a freshman offensive guard in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VI first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County first team choice as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Tustin (Calif.) High. On defense in 2002, he made 34 tackles, with 2.5 sacks. Tustin advanced to the CIF Division VI semifinals in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Division VI first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and All-League.

He also competed in track at Tustin. Current Trojans Frostee Rucker and Chris Barrett also prepped at Tustin.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, David, is the commissioner of the Arena Football League and formerly played basketball at UC Irvine and then professionally in Europe. His brother, Ben, was an offensive lineman at Duke.

(91) CHRIS BARRETT
Defensive End, 6-5, 265, So./Jr., Tustin, CA (Tustin HS)

2005: Barrett, who moved back to defensive end (his original position) from tight end during 2005 spring practice, served as a backup there as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing briefly in 6 games (Hawaii, Washington, Washington State, Stanford, California and UCLA), he made 5 tackles (including 2 against Washington State) and 1 deflection. He missed 4 early contests (Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State and Arizona) with a strained left calf suffered prior to the Arkansas contest. He missed part of 2005 spring practice with a torn calf muscle.

2004: Barrett began his 2004 redshirt freshman season as a reserve defensive end, then switched midseason to tight end and served as a reserve there. He missed USC's first 4 games (Virginia Tech, Colorado State, BYU and Stanford) with a dislocating right shoulder. He saw brief action in 4 games (at defensive end versus Arizona State and at tight end against Washington, Arizona and Notre Dame), but did not make a tackle or catch.

2003: Barrett saw brief action in 2 early-season games (BYU and Hawaii) as a freshman defensive end in 2003, but he suffered a dislocating left shoulder injury prior to the California game, had surgery and missed the rest of the 2003 season (he was allowed to redshirt because of the early injury). He did not record a tackle. After the season, he had surgery on his right shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VI first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County first team honors as a senior at Tustin (Calif.) High. He had 17 receptions for a 21.0 average as a tight end and made 70 tackles with 10 sacks as a defensive lineman in 2002. Tustin advanced to the CIF Division VI semifinals in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team as he caught 17 passes for 450 yards (26.5 avg.) with 4 TDs and made 9 sacks.

He also played basketball at Tustin. Current Trojans Frostee Rucker and Sam Baker also prepped at Tustin.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. He lived in Florida as a youngster.

(20) DARNELL BING
Safety, 6-2, 220, Jr./Jr., Lakewood, CA (Poly HS)

CAREER: He has 173 tackles and 8 interceptions in his career as a 3-year starter.

2005: Bing, the veteran of USC's defense, started for his third season at strong safety as a junior in 2005. He was a semifinalist for the 2005 Thorpe Award and quarterfinalist for the Lott Trophy. He was named to the 2005 AP and Rivals.com All-American first team, Walter Camp All-American second team and SI.com All-American honorable mention squad. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. Overall in 2005 while starting 11 games (he missed the Arkansas game because of a strained hip suffered in the Hawaii opener), he made 41 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 4 yards, plus intercepted 4 passes for 119 yards (29.8 avg.) with a TD, deflected 6 passes and forced a fumble. He is tied for 21st nationally in interceptions (0.4, tied for second in Pac-10). Midway through the season, he became one of USC's kickoff returners and returned 4 kickoffs for 122 yards (30.5 avg.).

He returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown on the sixth play at Hawaii (he also had 2 tackles), had 2 tackles with 4 deflections at Oregon, added 5 stops and a deflection at Arizona State and 3 tackles (1 for a loss) against Arizona. He had 4 tackles and forced a fumble (that USC recovered) at Notre Dame, added 2 tackles and returned his first career kickoff return 68 yards to set up a TD at Washington, had 5 tackles (1 for a loss) and returned 2 kickoffs for 36 yards against Washington State and had 6 tackles (0.5 for loss) versus Stanford. He had 3 tackles and an interception (to set up a USC TD) at California, then added 7 stops, 2 interceptions (1 set up a USC TD and the other was in the end zone near the end of the game to seal the victory) and a deflection against Fresno State. He had 2 tackles and an 18-yard kickoff return against UCLA. He had surgery to repair a dislocating shoulder prior to 2005 spring practice and missed spring drills.

2004: Bing started for his second season at strong safety as a sophomore in 2004 and made an impact. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, he had 63 tackles (third on USC), including 8 for losses of 22 yards (with 0.5 sack for 5 yards), plus 7 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions that he returned 8 yards (4.0 avg.). He had 10 tackles versus Oklahoma, 7 against Virginia Tech, 6 versus Stanford (with a forced fumble and deflection), Arizona State and Arizona (with 2.5 for losses), 5 against Washington State (with 1.5 for losses and 2 deflections), Oregon State (with a forced fumble and deflection), Notre Dame and UCLA, and 4 at BYU. His interceptions came at BYU (8 yards) and Washington State. He sprained his shoulder in 2004 fall camp (he did not start the Colorado State or BYU games because of that) and then again prior to the California game, which sidelined him for that contest. He made the 2004 All-Pac-10 second team and the Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American first team.

2003: After enrolling at USC in the spring of 2003, Bing emerged as the starting strong safety as a first-year freshman in 2003. Overall in 2003 while starting all 13 games, he had 69 tackles (fourth on USC), including 2 for losses of 3 yards, plus a fumble recovery, 2 interceptions that he returned 34 yards (17.0 avg.) and 5 deflections. He made the 2003 The Sporting News, Scripps/Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-American first team, Collegefootballnews.com and Rivals.com Freshman All-American first teams and All-Pac-10 honorable mention squad, as well as being named to the 2003 The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team (and he was Defensive Freshman of the Year). He had 11 tackles at Notre Dame, 9 versus California and Michigan, 6 against Arizona State and Oregon State, 5 versus Washington State and 4 against Auburn (in his Trojan debut), Hawaii and UCLA. At Auburn, he had an interception to set up USC's opening touchdown and then a fumble recovery to set up a field goal. He also intercepted a pass against Washington State, which he returned 29 yards out of the end zone.

2002: He originally signed with USC in 2002, but did not qualify for admission, so he attended Long Beach (Calif.) City College in 2002 as a part-time student (he didn't play football there).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2001 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team honoree as a senior at Poly High in Long Beach (Calif.). He had 86 tackles (34 solo), with a sack, plus 5 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and 5 deflections in 2001 as a safety and ran for 256 yards on 20 carries (12.8 avg.) with 5 TDs on offense.

As a junior in 2000, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team second team while notching 62 tackles (37 solo), 2 interceptions, 3 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles, 3 deflections and scoring 3 times on defense despite missing part of the year with injuries.

He had 85 tackles and 10 deflections as a 1999 sophomore. He was a 3-year starter as Poly went 39-1-1 and won 3 CIF Division I titles.

He also was on Poly's track team as a sprinter (with bests of 10.6 in the 100 meters and 21.8 in the 200 meters), long jumper and triple jumper. Current Trojans Hershel Dennis and Winston Justice also prepped at Poly.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. He received permission from USC athletic director Mike Garrett (Troy's 1965 Heisman Trophy-winning tailback) to wear Garrett's retired No. 20 jersey.

(10) JOHN DAVID BOOTY

Quarterback, 6-3, 195, So./Jr., Shreveport, LA (Evangel Christian HS)

2005: The promising Booty, believed to be the first prep football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university, was USC's No. 2 quarterback as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 10 games (all but Notre Dame and Fresno State), he completed 27-of-42 passes (64.3%) for 327 yards and 3 TDs with 2 interceptions.

He threw his first career TD pass while hitting 2-of-5 passes while directing USC in the fourth quarter at Hawaii. Against Arkansas, he was 4-of-9 for 60 yards with a TD, then saw brief action at the end of the Oregon game, but did not throw a pass, and played a snap at Arizona State when Matt Leinart was briefly dinged, but he did not throw a pass. He was 3-of-3 for 27 yards while directing the last series against Arizona, then was 5-of-6 for 71 yards with a 31-yard TD toss (and he threw an interception that was returned for a touchdown) while playing the fourth quarter at Washington. He hit 5-of-6 passes for 69 yards while playing most of the fourth quarter against Washington State, then hit 7-of-10 passes for 86 yards while playing most of the second half against Stanford and played the final 2 series at California, but did not throw a pass. He completed a 5-yard pass and had an interception among his 3 throws while playing most of the fourth quarter against UCLA

2004: Booty was set to be the No. 2 quarterback as a sophomore in 2004. But he suffered a badly bruised right (throwing) elbow in 2004 fall practice, which limited his participation, so he redshirted.

2003: As just a first-year freshman in 2003, Booty emerged as USC's No. 2 quarterback by mid-season. Overall in 2003 while seeing limited backup action in 5 games (Stanford, Notre Dame, Washington, Arizona and UCLA), he completed 7-of-14 passes (50.0%) for 90 yards. He broke his left wrist against UCLA, which sidelined him for USC's last 2 games of 2003. He was 1-of-4 for 13 yards against Stanford in his first action as a Trojan, then hit his only pass attempt (a 5-yarder) at Notre Dame, was 3-of-6 for 63 yards at Arizona and 2-of-3 for 9 yards against UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a junior quarterback in 2002 at Evangel Christian Academy in Shreveport (La.), he led his team to the Class 5A state title while throwing for 4,144 yards and 38 touchdowns while earning Student Sports Underclass All-American and Class 5A All-State honors.

He also led Evangel Christian to the Class 5A state title as a 2001 sophomore, passing for 4,330 yards and 50 TDs while being named a Student Sports Underclass All-American and Class 5A All-State.

As a 2000 freshman, he completed 9-of-11 passes.

In his career, he threw for 8,474 yards on 555-of-864 passing (64.2%) with 88 touchdowns and 26 interceptions. Because Louisiana rules allow junior high students to compete on high school teams if the school is a kindergarten-through-12th grade school, he actually played some varsity football for Evangel Christian since the seventh grade.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Johnny, played quarterback at Arkansas, Louisiana Tech and Mississippi State, then coached football at Evangel Christian. His brother, Josh, was a quarterback for the Cleveland Browns who played at LSU for 2 seasons (1999-2000) following a 5-year (1994-98) baseball career as an infielder in the Florida Marlins organization (including 13 games in the majors). Another brother, Abram, was a wide receiver at LSU (1997-1999) and Valdosta State (2001).

(30) MIKE BRITTINGHAM

Fullback, 6-1, 205, Jr./Sr., Santa Ana, CA (Foothill HS)

2005: A one-time walk-on, Brittingham earned a scholarship in the fall of 2005 and served as a reserve fullback and key special teams player as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games, he caught 1 pass (9 yards against Arizona) and made 3 tackles.

2004: As a sophomore in 2004, Brittingham was a reserve linebacker and then fullback, as well as playing on special teams, and he recorded 1 tackle (at Oregon State) while appearing in 10 games (all but Virginia Tech, California and UCLA).

2003: As a redshirt freshman reserve fullback in 2003, Brittingham appeared in 1 game (Oregon State) on special teams.

2002: Brittingham redshirted as a first-year freshman safety in 2002, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Foothill High in Santa Ana (Calif.), where he earned All-CIF Division VI first team honors as a senior defensive back in 2001.

PERSONAL: He has 5 relatives with athletic backgrounds: sister, Kristine, lettered on UCLA's women's soccer team in 2000 and 2001, cousins Jack and Robert Brittingham were 3-year (1933-35) football lettermen at California, great uncle Richard Munroe lettered in football at both Stanford (1942) and California (1943), and great great grandfather Louis Sumner lettered in football at Wisconsin (1889, 1891-92).

(85) CHARLES BROWN Offensive Tackle-Tight End, 6-6, 250, Fr./Fr., Chino Hills, CA (Diamond Ranch HS)

2005: Brown redshirted as a freshman tight end in 2005, his first year at USC. He was switched to offensive tackle from tight end in the middle of the 2005 season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division VIII and Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley Lineman of the Year selection as a senior two-way lineman and tight end at Diamond Ranch High in Pomona (Calif.). He had 15 receptions and 2 touchdowns in 2004.

He was an All-League second teamer as a 2003 junior and an All-League first teamer as a 2002 sophomore.

(52) LUTHUR BROWN Linebacker, 6-3, 235, Fr./Fr., Lakewood, CA (Lakewood HS)

2005: Brown redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 2005, his first year at USC. He was sidelined all season with a strained back that required mid-season surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2004 Parade All-American, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American second team, Old Spice Red Zone Player of the Year, Super Prep All-Farwest, Super Prep All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Star Back of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast Back of the Year and All-Moore League Defensive MVP squads as a senior linebacker and running back at Lakewood (Calif.) High. He had 83 tackles, 3 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he was a Student Sports Junior All-American, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team pick. He had 88 tackles, 21 tackles for loss, 3 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions in 2003.

He also played baseball at Lakewood.

PERSONAL: He spent his elementary school years living in a small town in Mississippi.

(31) WILLIAM BUCHANON Cornerback-Wide Receiver, 6-3, 185, Sr./Sr., Oceanside, CA (Oceanside HS)

2005: Buchanon played on both sides of the ball and on special teams as a senior in 2005. He began the year as a backup wide receiver, but early in the season was moved back to cornerback (where he has starting experience) and served as a backup there while also getting work on offense. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 11 games (he missed the Washington contest after straining a hip flexor at Notre Dame), he made 1 tackle (at Arizona State), intercepted a pass (against Stanford to set up a USC touchdown) and had a punt return (for 0 yards after a bouncing punt hit him) at Oregon.

2004: Buchanon was a reserve wide receiver as a junior in 2004. Overall in 2004 while seeing action in 12 games (all but UCLA), he had 4 catches for 15 yards (3.8 avg.). He caught 2 passes for 11 yards versus Arizona.

2003: Buchanon began his 2003 sophomore season as a backup cornerback, but was switched back to backup wide receiver by mid-season. Overall in 2003 while seeing action in 7 games (all but California, Washington State, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State), he made 3 tackles, an interception and a deflection on defense, but didn't have a catch on offense. He suffered a sprained back prior to the Washington State game and missed USC's last 4 games. He had 2 tackles and the interception against Stanford.

2002: Buchanon came into his 2002 redshirt freshman season as a backup wide receiver, but was moved to cornerback in the pre-season when injuries hit the secondary. He made an immediate impression, even starting 3 mid-season games (Oregon State, Washington State, California) when Ronald Nunn got hurt (he saw significant action at Kansas State when Nunn was injured early in that game). Overall in 2002 while appearing in 11 games (all but Auburn and Arizona State), he had 19 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 4 yards, and 6 deflections. He had 4 tackles at Kansas State and 3 deflections at Washington State. He sprained his neck at Stanford and missed the Arizona State game.

2001: Buchanon saw brief action at wide receiver in USC's first 2 games (San Jose State and Kansas State) of 2001, his first year at USC, but then a lower back sprain sidelined him for the rest of the season. The early-season injury allowed him to redshirt. He did not catch a pass.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2000 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports Senior All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region Super 30, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF San Diego Section first team and All-Avocado League Co-MVP honors as a senior at Oceanside (Calif.) High. He had 30 receptions for 553 yards (18.4 avg.) and 5 TDs in 2000. Oceanside was 9-4-1 in 2000.

As a 1999 junior, he caught 24 passes for 553 yards (23.0 avg.) and 5 TDs as Oceanside won the CIF San Diego Section Division II title.

He made 30 catches for 302 yards (10.2 avg.) as a 1998 sophomore.

In his career, he caught 90-plus passes for 1,621 yards and 15 scores. He also had 5 career interceptions (1 for a TD) as a defensive back in his career.

He also was on the track team at Oceanside, with bests of 11.19 in the 100 meters, 22.73 in the 200 meters, 48.6 in the 400 meters, 21-10 % in the long jump and 43-11 in the triple jump.

PERSONAL: He's an African American studies major at USC. His father, Willie, was a 1971 All-American cornerback at San Diego State who was a 3-time Pro Bowler during his 11-year (1972-82) NFL career, the first 7 seasons with the Green Bay Packers and the last 4 with the San Diego Chargers (he also prepped at Oceanside). Willie's second cousin is former Trojan fullback C.R. Roberts (1955-56).

(61) ROSS BURRUEL

Center, 6-2, 290, Sr./Sr., Castro Valley, CA (Castro Valley HS/Chabot JC)

2005: A one-time walk-on, Burruel earned a scholarship in the fall of 2005 and served as a reserve center as a senior in 2005. He saw brief action in 5 games in 2005 (Arkansas, Arizona, Washington State, Stanford and UCLA).

2004: As a junior reserve center in 2004, Burruel did not see any action. He enrolled at USC in the spring of 2004 after transferring from Chabot Junior College in Hayward (Calif.).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Burruel played at Chabot JC in 2002 and 2003.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Castro Valley (Calif.) High.

(5) REGGIE BUSH

Tailback, 6-0, 200, Jr./Jr., Spring Valley, CA (Helix HS)

CAREER: In his career, the 2-time All-American Bush has proven to be a 5-way threat as he has produced touchdowns via rushing, receiving, kickoff returning, punt returning and passing. He has 6,338 all-purpose yards in his career (averaging 10.3 yards on each of his 615 touches) to rank second in USC history (behind Charles White's 7,226 in 1976-79) and 13th in NCAA history. His 2 seasons with 2,000-plus all-purpose yards ties an NCAA record. He has scored 41 TDs in his 38-game career (24 rushing, 13 receiving, 1 on kickoff returns, 3 on punt returns), averaging a touchdown every 15.0 times he touches the ball (615 touches). He has 93 plays of 20-plus yards in his career. His 3,087 career rushing yards is seventh on USC's career chart. He is averaging 7.4 yards per carry in his career (420 rushes). He has rushed for 100 yards 11 times in his career. He and Marcus Allen are the only Trojans to twice rush for at least 260 yards in a game. He is the only Trojan to rush for 200 yards twice against UCLA. His 1,420 career kickoff return yards is second on USC's all-time list and his 589 career punt return yards is fifth on USC's all-time chart. His 89 career receptions is 19th on USC's career ladder and caught a pass in 27 consecutive games before his streak was snapped against UCLA in 2005.

2005: The electrifying, multi-purpose Bush, who brings flash and dash with his incredible speed and moves, once again was used in a variety of roles as a junior in 2005: at tailback, split out as a receiver and returning punts and kicks. Overall in 2005 while starting all 12 games, he had 187 carries for a team-best 1,658 yards (8.9 avg.) with 15 TDs, 31 receptions (third on USC) for 383 yards (12.4 avg.) with 2 TDs, a team-high 23 kickoff returns for 391 yards (17.0 avg.) and a team-leading 18 punt returns for 179 yards (9.9 avg.) with 1 TD. He also threw 2 incomplete passes and made a tackle.

He won the 2005 Heisman Trophy (getting the highest percentage of points ever), becoming USC's seventh winner (and first tailback since 1981). He also won the 2005 AP Player of the Year Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Offensive Player of the Year Award and Rivals.com Offensive Player of the Year, as well as the Doak Walker Award (the first Trojan to do so). He won the 2005 Touchdown Club of Columbus' Player of the Year Award and Running Back of the Year Award. He was 1 of 3 finalists for the 2005 Maxwell Award and 1 of 4 finalists for the Cingular-ABC Sports All-America Player of the Year Award. He was named a 2005 AP Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBS Sportsline.com, Rivals.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American first teamer (a unanimous choice). He was named the 2005 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive year (just the fifth player ever to win it twice and the first non-quarterback to do it in 20 years) and also made the All-Pac-10 first team as a tailback (the squad's only unanimous pick) and second team as a punt returner. He was the MVP of the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. He was USC's team MVP (for the second consecutive year) and won the USC Player of the Game versus Notre Dame, Co-Player of the Game versus UCLA, Co-Lifter and Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" (for longest run) Awards. He is currently first nationally in all-purpose running (217.3, first in Pac-10), fourth in rushing (138.2, second in Pac-10) and tied for 18th in scoring (9.0, tied for fifth in Pac-10). His 8.9 yards per carry in 2005—nearly a first down every carry—is tops in the nation. His 1,658 rushing yards (sixth on USC's season rushing list and Troy's 24th 1,000-yard runner) are the most at USC since Marcus Allen's 2,427 in his 1981 Heisman Trophy season. He has 2,611 all-purpose yards in 2005 (within range of Marcus Allen's USC and Pac-10 record of 2,683 in 1981 and ninth on the NCAA season list) and is averaging 10.1 yards on his 259 touches. The average length of his 18 touchdowns in 2005 is 31.4 yards and he is averaging a touchdown every 14.4 times he touches the ball in 2005. His 5 consecutive 100-yard rushing games in 2005 (Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona State, Notre Dame) was the first time a Trojan did that since Ricky Ervins also had 5 in a row in 1989. His 8 100-yard rushing games in 2005 are the most in a season by a Trojan since Ricky Ervins had 9 in 1989. In USC's 5 games against AP ranked opponents in 2005, he is averaging 198.8 rushing yards (10.0 per carry), with 10 rushing TDs, and 302.2 all-purpose yards. His combined 554 rushing yards versus Fresno State (294) and UCLA (260) in 2005 were the most ever by a Trojan in back-to-back games. He has 36 plays of 20-plus yards in 2005. He had arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder prior to 2005 spring practice. He was named to the prestigious 2005 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team.

Bush had 158 all-purpose yards (86 on 12 rushes with TDs of 41 and 1 yards, 58 on 4 receptions and a 14-yard kickoff return) at Hawaii. He scored on his first two touches against Arkansas (a 76-yard run and a 29-yard catch) as he compiled 211 all-purpose yards (125 on 8 rushes, 70 on 3 receptions and 16 on 2 kickoff returns). He had a game-topping 122 yards on a career-high 20 carries at Oregon as part of his 267 all-purpose yards (he returned 3 kickoffs for 75 yards, caught 3 passes for 43 yards and had 4 punt returns for 27 yards; he also caught a 19-yard TD pass and had an 11-yard reverse field TD run) to earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He had 158 yards (132 after halftime) on 17 carries with 24- and 34-yard TDs (he also returned 3 punts for 13 yards, had an 18-yard kickoff return and a 4-yard reception) at Arizona State. He had 110 yards on 14 carries against Arizona (his fourth consecutive 100-yard performance, the most by a Trojan since Sultan McCullough also had 4 in a row in 2000) and added 2 catches for 16 yards and a 17-yard kickoff return. He had 265 all-purpose yards at Notre Dame (160 on 15 rushes, 57 on 4 kickoff returns, 35 on 4 receptions and 13 on 3 punt returns) and had his fifth consecutive 100-yard rushing outing (the first time a Trojan did that since Ricky Ervins in 1989) while rushing for a career-best 3 TDs (36, 45 and 9 yards) to earn The Sporting News National Player of the Week and Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors (he also will be remembered for his "Bush Push" to help Matt Leinart score the game-winning touchdown). He had 185 all-purpose yards at Washington (51 on 8 carries with a 6-yard TD, 32 on 2 kickoff returns and 18 on 2 receptions to go along with his spectacular 84-yard scoring punt return where he spun away from a gang of tacklers to earn Master Coaches Survey National Special Teams Player of the Week). He had 156 all-purpose yards (97 on 17 rushes, 40 on 4 receptions and 19 on 4 punt returns) against Washington State. He ran for 113 yards on 12 carries with an impressive 42-yard TD burst against Stanford to go over the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 2005 (he had 161 all-purpose yards, including 27 on 4 catches, plus a 15-yard kickoff return and 6-yard punt return). He ran for 82 yards on 17 tries at California (he also caught a 4-yard pass). He had a Pac-10 record 513 all-purpose yards against Fresno State (the second most in NCAA history), including 294 rushing yards (the second most in USC history) on a career-high 23 carries with a pair of long touchdown runs (a 45-yard burst and an amazing 50-yard cutback jaunt) and he added 135 yards on 7 kickoffs (both career bests), 68 yards on 3 receptions and a 16-yard punt return to earn The Sporting News National Player of the Week, Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week, Master Coaches Survey National Offensive Player of the Week and Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors (in all, he had 10 plays of 20-plus yards, including 5 of 35-plus yards). Against UCLA, he ran for 260 yards (the sixth most ever by a Trojan, the most by a Trojan against the Bruins and his eighth 100-yard outing of 2005) with 2 TDs (13 and 10 yards) on 24 rushes (averaging 10.8 per carry) despite sitting out most of the fourth quarter (he had 107 yards on 10 carries in the first quarter and was at 228 yards on 18 carries by halftime) and he also added a 12-yard kickoff return and 1-yard punt return to earn Master Coaches Survey National Offensive Player of the Week honors.

2004: Bush was a difference maker as a sophomore tailback in 2004. He was college football's most exciting player. Overall 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 908 yards on 143 carries (6.3 avg.) with 6 TDs, caught 43 passes for 509 yards (11.8 avg.) with 7 TDs, returned 24 punts for 376 yards (15.7 avg.) with 2 TDs, returned 21 kickoffs for 537 yards (25.6 avg.) and even completed a 52-yard TD pass. He started only against Washington State and Oklahoma (LenDale White started the other games at tailback, although both were on the field together often in 2004). He was fifth nationally in all-purpose running (179.2, first in Pac-10), as well as ninth in punt returns (15.7, first in Pac-10) and 16th in kickoff returns (25.6, second in Pac-10).

He had 2,330 all-purpose yards in 2004 (the most by a Trojan since Marcus Allen had a school-record 2,683 yards in his 1981 Heisman season) and averaged 10.1 yards every time he touched the ball (231 touches). He had 34 plays of 20-plus yards in 2004, including 8 of 50-plus yards. His 2 scoring punt returns in 2004 were the most in a season by a Trojan since R. Jay Soward also had 2 in 1998 (and are 1 shy of the USC and Pac-10 season records). He topped the Pac-10 in punt returns for the first time by a Trojan since Raymond Butler in 1979, thereby becoming the first Trojan to win Pac-10 titles in both punt and kickoff returns (he was the league's 2003 kickoff return leader). And if was the first Trojan to lead the Pac-10 in all-purpose yardage since Marcus Allen in 1981 (when he topped the NCAA).

He finished fifth in the voting for the 2004 Heisman Trophy. He was selected as the 2004 College Player of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He was named to the 2004 All-American first team by Football Coaches, Cingular/ABC Sports, The Sporting News, ESPN.com, CSTV (all as a return specialist) and AP, SI.com and Rivals.com (as an all-purpose player), to the second team by Walter Camp and honorable mention by SI.com (as a punt returner) and Collegefootballnews.com. He also made the 2004 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American first team. He was the 2004 Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year (along with teammate Matt Leinart) and made the All-Pac-10 first team as both a tailback (USC's first tailback first teamer since 1989) and punt returner, and the second team as a kickoff returner. He made the 2004 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team (as both a punt returner and utility player). He was USC's 2004 team MVP and won USC's Co-Player of the Game versus UCLA and Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" (longest run) Awards. He was a finalist for the 2004 Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award and Maxwell Award.

In the opener against Virginia Tech, he caught 3 long scoring passes to become the 10th USC player to catch a school-record 3 TD passes in a game (but the first running back to do so) and he had 258 all-purpose yards (127 on 5 receptions, 60 on 4 punt returns, 44 on 3 kickoff returns and 27 on 9 rushes), all of which earned him Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He rushed for 84 yards and a TD on 12 tries (along with a 39-yard kickoff return, 3 punt returns for 17 yards and a 2-yard catch) against Colorado State. At BYU, he and White became the first Trojan duo to each break the 100-yard rushing barrier since Chad Morton and LaVale Woods did so against Oregon State in 1996, as he had 124 yards (the first 100-yard outing of his career) with a career-long 66-yard TD run on 14 carries (he had 211 all-purpose yards as he also caught 4 passes for 42 yards, including a 21-yard TD, returned a kickoff 38 yards and had 7 yards on a pair of punt returns) and White had 110 rushing yards. He then had 240 all-purpose yards (95 on 16 rushes, 25 on 4 receptions, 85 on 4 kickoff returns and 35 on 2 punt returns) at Stanford, with a 17-yard tackle-breaking TD run and a 33-yard zig-zagging punt return to set up USC's winning score. He had 109 yards on 2 kickoff returns (including an 84-yarder), plus he rushed 8 times for 23 yards and caught a 6-yard pass, against California. He had 115 all-purpose yards (49 on 2 punt returns, including a 41-yarder in which he barely stepped out of bounds as he was breaking into the clear, plus 45 yards on 2 receptions and 21 on 5 carries) and caught a 10-yard TD pass versus Arizona State in just 3 quarters of action. He had 126 all-purpose yards (55 on 13 carries and 41 on a game- and career-best 6 receptions with a 15-yard TD, plus a 30-yard punt return) against Washington. At Washington State, he had 143 all-purpose yards (42 on 14 carries, 23 on 5 receptions and 78 on 3 punt returns) with 2 TDs (a 19-yard run and 57-yard punt return). At Oregon State, he had 249 all-purpose yards (88 on 11 rushes, 82 on 3 kickoff returns, 73 on 3 punt returns and 6 on 2 receptions) and had a dazzling reverse-his-field scoring punt return for the second consecutive week (this one was 65 yards) to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had 130 all-purpose yards (65 yards on 3 kickoff returns, 45 yards on 12 rushes, 19 yards on 4 receptions and 1 yard on a punt return) against Arizona. He took a short pass 69 yards for a TD against Notre Dame (he also ran for 25 yards on 8 carries). At UCLA, Bush had a pair of electrifying touchdown runs (a zig-zagging 65-yarder on the game's second play, then a career-long 81-yarder) among his career-best 335 all-purpose yards; he ran for a career-best 204 yards (the most by a Trojan since Shawn Walters' 234 in 1994 at Stanford) on 15 carries (he had 153 yards and both TDs on just 6 carries in the first half), plus he had 73 yards on a game-best 6 catches, 39 yards on 2 kickoff returns and 19 yards on 2 punt returns. He had 149 all-purpose yards against Oklahoma (75 on 6 carries, 36 on 2 kickoff returns, 31 on 2 receptions and a 7-yard punt return).

2003: Bush proved to be an impact player as a first-year freshman reserve tailback in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 521 yards on 90 carries (5.8 avg.) with 3 TDs, had 15 receptions for 314 yards (20.9 avg.) with 4 TDs, had a team-best 18 kickoff returns for 492 yards (27.3 avg.) with a TD and returned 2 punts for 4 yards (2.0 avg.). He also recovered a fumble (on a bad punt snap). He had 24 plays of 20-plus yards in 2003 out of 115 touches (rushes of 23, 27, 58, 20, 32 and 24 yards, receptions of 28, 37, 38, 27, 30 and 36 yards, and kickoff returns of 23, 25, 30, 34, 35, 35, 20, 58, 96, 30, 24 and 28 yards). He was 10th nationally in kickoff returns (27.3, first in Pac-10). He set USC's freshman all-purpose yardage record (1,331 yards). He was the first Trojan to lead the league in kickoff returns since Anthony Davis in 1974. He was named to the 2003 Scripps/Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-American first team, Collegefootballnews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention and Rivals.com Freshman All-American honorable mention and All-Pac-10 honorable mention squads, as well as ESPN.com All-Pac-10 Co-Newcomer of the Year. He also won USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award (for the longest play).

He had 270 all-purpose yards at Washington (132 yards on 5 receptions—the most receiving yards ever by a Trojan running back—with TDs of 60 and 37 yards, plus 81 yards on 12 rushes and 57 yards on 2 kickoff returns). Against Oregon State, he had 173 all-purpose yards (71 on 6 rushes, 48 on 3 receptions with TDs of 30 and 3 yards and 54 on 2 kickoff returns). At Notre Dame, he rushed for a game-best 89 yards on 6 carries (14.8 average), including a 58-yard cutback TD run (he was untouched), and he caught a 38-yard pass. He ran for 64 yards on 11 tries and also had a 58-yard kickoff return at Arizona. He had 54 yards on 9 carries with 2 scores (23 and 27 yards) against Hawaii, plus he caught a 28-yard pass and returned a kickoff 20 yards. Against UCLA, he had 10 yards on 6 rushes, 32 yards on 2 catches and 105 yards on 3 kickoff returns (including a 96-yard TD, USC's first scoring kickoff return since 1998) and he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week. Against Michigan in the Rose Bowl, he had 41 yards on 8 rushes, 42 yards on 2 catches, 45 yards on 2 kickoff returns and 4 yards on 2 punt returns. He also ran for 34 yards on 6 attempts against Stanford, 27 yards on 4 carries (he also returned a kickoff 23 yards) at Arizona State, 19 yards on 6 tries against BYU (he also returned a kickoff 30 yards), 15 yards on 7 attempts against Washington State (he also had 62 yards on 3 kickoff returns and recovered a fumble on a bad punt snap that set up a USC field goal), 9 yards on 5 carries at Auburn, 7 yards on 4 carries at California (he also returned 2 kickoffs for 38 yards).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Parade All-American (and the top running back), USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Tom Lemming All-American, The Insiders.com All-American second team, Tom Lemming Super Team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, San Diego Union-Tribune Offensive MVP and All-Grossmont South League Offensive MVP pick as a senior running back at Helix High in La Mesa (Calif.). He ran for 1,691 yards on 140 carries (12.1 avg.) with 27 TDs in 2002 despite missing 4 games with a broken wrist. Helix advanced to the CIF San Diego Section Division II finals.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and All-CIF San Diego Section first team Offensive MVP. He ran for 2,200-plus yards, averaged 36.4 yards per rushing touchdown, scored 204 points (on 34 TDs, including 6 on receptions and 2 on punt returns) and had 3,135 all-purpose yards in 2001.

He made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team in 2000.

In his career, he ran for 4,995 yards (averaging 12.0 a carry) and scored 450 points.

He also competed in track at Helix, placing third in the 2002 California state 100 meters final and posting bests of 10.42 in the 100 (the fastest prep time in California in 2002 and the fastest among the nation's 2002 senior footballers) and 21.06 in the 200 meters (third fastest prep in California in 2002). He placed second in the boys' 50-meter dash in 5.85 at the 2003 Los Angeles Invitational Indoor Meet.

PERSONAL: He's a political science major at USC. His nickname is "The President" (because of that, he humorously was singled out in remarks by President George W. Bush during USC's national championship visit to the White House in March of 2004). He covered the 2003 Super Bowl as a reporter for NFLHS.com.

(53) JEFF BYERS

Offensive Guard, 6-3, 300, So./Sr., Fort Collins, CO (Loveland HS)

2005: The precocious Byers was set to see plenty of action on the offensive line as a sophomore in 2005 as a left guard, either as a starter or key backup. But he had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right hip prior to 2005 spring practice and missed most of spring drills while recuperating, which forced him to redshirt in 2005.

2004: As a first-year freshman in 2004, Byers started 4 late-season games (Oregon State, Arizona, Notre Dame and UCLA) at left offensive guard for an injured John Drake and performed well. He served as a backup there and at center in USC's other 9 contests. He made the 2004 The Sporting News Freshman All-American second team and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2003 honors were Gatorade National Player of the Year, EA Sports National Player of the Year, Army of One Award (for effort on the field, class and community), Arena Football League Ironman of the Year (as nation's best two-way player), USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American MVP, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, EA Sports All-American, Insiders.com All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Midlands, Prep Star All-Midlands, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team and Gatorade Colorado Player of the Year as a senior center and linebacker at Loveland (Colo.) High. He had 34 pancake blocks on offense in one game in 2003 and never allowed a sack in his career. On defense in 2003, he had 203 tackles, 56 tackles for loss, 10 sacks, 14 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries (with a TD). Loveland won its second consecutive Class 4A state championship in 2003. As a junior in 2002, he won All-State honorable mention, All-Area and All-Conference honors while posting 138 tackles, 29 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks on defense.

(86) DOMINIQUE BYRD

Tight End, 6-3, 260, Sr./Sr., Minneapolis, MN (Breck HS)

2005: Byrd, equally effective blocking and catching (especially on deep patterns), started most of 2005 at tight end as a senior. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 11 games (he missed the Stanford game after suffering a hip pointer versus Washington State), he caught 25 passes for 274 yards (11.0 avg.). He started 8 times (Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame, Washington, Washington State and UCLA). He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in a toe prior to 2005 spring practice and in a knee in the summer of 2005. He missed spring drills while concentrating on his academics and because of a broken jaw.

He caught a 3-yard pass at Hawaii, then had 2 catches for 27 yards against Arkansas, 3 catches for 32 yards at Oregon, 3 catches for 17 yards at Arizona State and a 16-yard grab against Arizona. He caught 2 passes for 56 yards at Notre Dame, including a 52-yarder, then had 3 catches for 31 yards at Washington, an 18-yard grab versus Washington State and a 5-yard reception at California. He caught 2 passes for 16 yards versus Fresno State and then had a game-best 6 receptions for 56 yards against UCLA.

2004: Byrd had quite an impact at tight end as a junior in 2004 in USC's final 9 games. He missed the first 4 contests (Virginia Tech, Colorado State, BYU and Stanford) after breaking his left kneecap in a pickup basketball game just before 2004 fall practice began. But when he returned, he was impressive. Overall in 2004, he had 37 receptions (fourth on USC) for 384 yards (10.4 avg.) with 3 TDs, plus he had 1 carry for 1 yard (1.0 avg.) and made a tackle. All of his catches came in the last 8 games. He made 2004 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He missed 2004 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury.

He had 3 catches for 39 yards against Arizona State (his first receptions in 13 games since getting injured), then 5 catches for 57 yards against Washington, 5 for 32 yards at Washington State and 7 for 85 yards with 2 TDs (a one-handed 18-yarder and a 25-yarder)—all career highs—at Oregon State. He had 8 catches (a career-best for the second consecutive week) for 72 yards against Arizona, then 4 for 23 yards against Notre Dame and 2 for 8 yards at UCLA. Against Oklahoma, he had 3 catches for 58 yards, including a spectacular one-handed 33-yard TD.

2003: Byrd was expected to be a key backup tight end as a sophomore in 2003, but when an injury sidelined Alex Holmes all season, Byrd emerged as the starter for the first 6 games and he excelled. But he tore ligaments in his left knee against Stanford, had surgery and was sidelined the remainder of the 2003 season. Overall in 2003 in those 6 games, he caught 14 passes for 268 yards (19.1 avg.). He caught 3 passes for 63 yards at Auburn, including a 42-yarder, 2 for 19 yards against BYU, 3 for 28 yards against Hawaii, 2 for 60 yards (with a 27-yard TD) at California, 2 for 68 yards at Arizona State and 2 for 30 yards against Stanford before going out with the knee injury.

2002: Byrd was a backup tight end and special teams player as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 12 games (all but Kansas State), he had 1 reception for 10 yards (at Stanford) and made 2 tackles (both at Oregon). He also worked some at defensive end early in the season, but never saw action there.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Student Sports All-American second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Super Prep All-Midwest Offensive MVP, Prep Star All-Western Region and Student Sports All-Midwest first team honors as a senior at The Breck School in Minneapolis (Minn.). He caught 62 passes for 1,236 yards (19.9 avg.) and 25 touchdowns as a tight end in 2001 and had a team-high 108 tackles, including 21 for losses (with 4 sacks), and made 4 interceptions (returning 3 for TDs) as a linebacker.

As a junior in 2000, he had 56 receptions for 1,280 yards (22.9 avg.) and 17 scores on offense and 109 tackles on defense. In his career (he also played some at wide receiver), he had 147 catches for 3,008 yards (20.5 avg.) and 49 TDs while starting for 4 years.

He also was on the basketball team, earning 2002 Student Sports Grid-Hoops All-American third team notice while averaging 17.3 points as a junior, and track team, going 11.2 in the 100 meters and 6-4 in the high jump. He started on the varsity basketball team since the eighth grade after obtaining a waiver to play at that level. Current Trojan Nick Vanderboom also prepped at The Breck School.

PERSONAL: He's an African American studies major at USC. He interned for Minnesota senator Mark Dayton during a summer in high school.

(19) GREIG CARLSON
Wide Receiver, 5-10, 190, Sr./Sr., Woodland Hills, CA
(Pacific Palisades HS)

CAREER: He is 18th on USC's career punt return list, with 53 runbacks for 379 yards (7.2 avg.).

2005: The sure-handed ex-walk-on Carlson was a backup wide receiver and punt returner as a senior in 2005, but only appeared in USC's first 2 games before straining his groin prior to the Oregon game and missing the rest of the year. Overall, he caught 1 pass for 14 yards (14.0 avg.)—against Arkansas—but did not return any punts.

2004: Carlson was a reserve wide receiver and the backup punt returner as a junior in 2004. He returned 5 punts for 14 yards (2.8 avg.) and had a tackle while appearing in 11 games in 2004, but did not catch a pass. He sprained his left knee prior to the Washington State game and missed that contest and the Oregon State game.

2003: As a sophomore in 2003, Carlson spent his second season as USC's punt returner and also served as a reserve wide receiver. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he had a team-best 21 punt returns for 188 yards (9.0 avg.), but he did not catch a pass. He returned 4 punts for 66 yards (with a 20-yarder) at Arizona State, 3 versus Stanford (29 yards) and Notre Dame (11 yards) and 2 against Washington (17 yards), Washington State (13 yards), Arizona (20 yards), UCLA (18 yards) and Oregon State (54 yards). He had arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder following 2003 spring practice. He was awarded a scholarship in the spring of 2003.

2002: As a redshirt freshman walk-on reserve wide receiver, Carlson appeared in 12 games (all but the Auburn opener), primarily as a sure-handed punt returner. Although he did not catch a pass, he led USC in punt returns, running back 27 for 177 yards (6.6 avg.). It was the most punt returns by a Trojan since Larry Parker had 29 in 1995. He had a 41-yard return against Iowa in the Orange Bowl and a 28-yarder versus Notre Dame.

2001: He redshirted as a walk-on freshman wide receiver in 2001, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2000 Prep Star All-West, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside and All-Western League selection at Pacific Palisades (Calif.) High. He caught 66 passes for 1,380 yards (20.9 avg.) with 26 TDs as a wide receiver in 2000 and had 4 interceptions as a defensive back. He also scored 2 TDs each on punt and kickoff returns. He even had to play quarterback when the starter went down with an injury in the opening round of the playoffs; without ever having taken a snap in practice or a game, he threw for 260 yards and 3 TDs (and ran for another 2) while completing 11-of-16 passes (he hit his final 11 throws).

He attended Taft High in Woodland Hills (Calif.) before going to Pacific Palisades. As a 1999 junior at Taft, he had 55 catches for 1,220 yards (22.2 avg.) with 11 TDs as a wide receiver and he also played defensive back. He was named All-League.

He played for Taft's varsity as a 1998 sophomore. Current Trojan Steve Smith also prepped at Taft.

PERSONAL: He's a political science major at USC. He plays the saxophone in his free time.

(27) MICHAEL COLEMAN

Tailback, 6-1, 235, Fr./Fr., San Bernardino, CA (Arroyo Valley HS)

2005: Coleman, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2005, was a backup tailback as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 4 games (Arkansas, Arizona, Washington and Washington State), he ran for 95 yards on 20 carries (4.8 avg.) with 1 TD. He had surgery in the summer of 2005 for a hip strain and missed the Hawaii opener. He re-strained his hip prior to the Oregon game and missed the next 2 contests (Oregon, Arizona State) and again before the Stanford game, which sidelined him for USC's last 4 contests (Stanford, California, Fresno State, UCLA). He had 8 carries for 41 yards against Arkansas, 16 yards on 4 tries versus Arizona, 12 yards on 3 carries at Washington and then ran for 26 yards (with a 6-yard TD) on 5 carries versus Washington State.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2004 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division V Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-San Bernardino Area Player of the Year and San Bernardino Sun All-San Bernardino County Player of the Year as a senior quarterback and safety at Arroyo Valley High in San Bernardino (Calif.). He completed 143-of-261 passes (54.8%) for 2,388 yards and 22 TDs with 8 interceptions and ran for 1,077 yards with 17 TDs in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made All-San Andreas League first team while throwing for 1,171 yards and 15 touchdowns (with 3 interceptions) and rushing for 710 yards with 10 scores.

He was on the Cal-Hi Sports Sophomore All-State team in 2002. In his career, he started 4 seasons at quarterback and also posted more than 100 tackles.

He also was on Arroyo Valley's track team, throwing the shot put more than 52 feet.

(50) WILL COLLINS
Snapper, 6-2, 220, So./Jr., Laguna Beach, CA (Mater Dei HS)

2005: Collins, a one-time walk-on, was flawless as spent his second season as the short snapper and first season as the long snapper as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 1 tackle (against Arizona).

2004: Collins, who received a scholarship prior to 2004 spring practice, was USC's snapper on all field goals and PATs as a redshirt freshman in 2004 and he did a flawless job.

2003: Collins redshirted as a freshman snapper in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a long snapper and blocking tight end at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.), playing both years with a broken thumb. Current Trojan Matt Leinart also prepped at Mater Dei.

PERSONAL: He's a political science major at USC. His older brother, Rob, was a walk-on quarterback at USC in the 1980s, while 2 older sisters also attended USC (another sister currently is attending USC). His uncle, Joe Collins, was a member of USC's 1974 national championship football team.

(10) BRIAN CUSHING
Linebacker, 6-4, 235, Fr./Fr., Park Ridge, NJ (Bergen Catholic HS)

2005: Cushing made quite an impact in 2005 as a first-year freshman linebacker, despite missing nearly half the season with a shoulder injury. He started 3 times (versus California, Fresno State and UCLA) on the strong side after previously serving as an often-used backup there and a key special teams player. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 7 games (he missed the Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona and Notre Dame games after dislocating his shoulder before the Arkansas contest), he made 22 tackles, including 0.5 for a loss, plus had 2 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and a blocked punt that he returned 6 yards. He made 2005 Scout.com Freshman All-American honorable mention.

As a starter, he led USC with 7 tackles at California, then added 4 stops, a deflection and a fumble recovery to set up a USC field goal against Fresno State and had 2 tackles, a fumble recovery and a deflection versus UCLA. As a backup, he had 5 tackles against Stanford, 2 tackles and blocked a punt to set up a USC field goal at Washington, 1 tackle and forced a fumble that USC recovered for a touchdown at Hawaii and 1 stop versus Washington State.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2004 honors were Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Northeast Defensive Player of the Year, Prep Star All-East and All-State Defensive Player of the Year as a senior linebacker, running back and tight end at Bergen Catholic High in Oradell (N.J.). He had 120 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 10 sacks and 7 interceptions on offense in 2004, plus 475 rushing yards with 10 TDs and 13 receptions for 456 yards (35.1 avg.) with 7 TDs and a kickoff return for a score. He did all that despite missing 3 games with an ankle sprain.

As a junior in 2003, he made Student Sports Junior All-American, All-State first team and All-Bergen County Defensive Player of the Year while posting 120 tackles, 22 tackles for loss, 9 sacks and 7 interceptions.

(19) MARIO DANELO

Placekicker, 5-10, 185, So./Jr., San Pedro, CA (San Pedro HS)

2005: A one-time walk-on, the accurate Danelo earned a scholarship in the fall of 2005 and won the starting placekicking job as a sophomore in 2005, setting NCAA and USC records in the process. Overall in 2005 in his first year as USC's kicker, he hit 78-of-81 PATs and 10-of-11 field goals. He set the NCAA, Pac-10 and USC season records for PATs (78) and PAT attempts (81). He is tied for 18th nationally in scoring (9.0, tied for fifth in Pac-10). He hit his last 10 field goals after missing his first-ever try. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

His career got off to a quick start as he tied a USC game record by hitting all 9 of his PATs at Hawaii in his first USC action (he missed a 42-yard field goal). Then, for the second week in a row, he set the USC game record by hitting all 10 of his PATs versus Arkansas. At Oregon, he hit his first career field goal (36 yards) and made all 6 PATs, then he hit a 36-yard field goal and all 5 of his PATs at Arizona State. He hit all 6 of his PATs against Arizona, 4-of-5 PATs (his miss was on a 30-yard try because of a penalty) at Notre Dame and 6-of-7 PATs along with a 30-yard field goal (at the first half gun) at Washington. He added a pair of field goals (27 and 22 yards) and all 7 of his PATs against Washington State, a 21-yard field goal and 6 of his 7 PATs against Stanford, all 5 of his PATs at California and all 3 of his field goals (25, 31 and 26 yards) and all 5 of his PATs to set the Pac-10 season marks for PATs and PAT attempts against Fresno State. He set NCAA season records for PATs and PAT attempts as he hit 9-of-9 PATs and a 35-yard field goal against UCLA.

2004: Danelo did not see any action as a redshirt freshman reserve placekicker in 2004.

2003: Danelo redshirted as a first-year freshman placekicker in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at San Pedro (Calif.) High, where he played football (he was an All-L.A. City first team linebacker as a senior in 2002) and soccer.

PERSONAL: His father, Joe, was a placekicker at Washington State (1972-74) before playing in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (1975), New York Giants (1976-82) and Buffalo Bills (1983-84).

(83) FRED DAVIS

Tight End, 6-4, 245, So./So., Toledo, OH (Rogers HS)

2005: Davis saw significant action at tight end as a sophomore in 2005, even starting 3 games (Stanford, California, Fresno State). Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 11 catches for 126 yards (11.5 avg.) with 2 TDs. He caught 4 passes for 35 yards, with a 19-yard TD, against Stanford in his first start. He added 2 grabs against Arizona (23 yards) and Washington State (28 yards), and 1 catch against both California (16 yards) and Fresno State (9 yards). He had a 15-yard TD reception against UCLA.

USC FOOTBALL: 141 ALL-AMERICANS, 7 HEISMANS

2004: Davis, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2004, was a reserve wide receiver and tight end as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 9 games (all but Oregon State, Arizona and Oklahoma), he caught 4 passes for 30 yards (7.5 avg.). He had a 15-yard grab at Stanford, 2 catches for 6 yards against Arizona State and a 9-yard reception versus Washington.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2003 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Insiders.com All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Midwest Offensive MVP, Prep Star All-Midwest and All-Ohio selection as a senior at Rogers High in Toledo (Ohio). He had 500-plus receiving yards, 600-plus rushing yards, 100-plus tackles and 4 interceptions while scoring 12 TDs as a wide receiver, running back, quarterback and strong safety in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he made the Student Sports Junior All-American and All-Ohio squads while running for 1,100 yards and catching 50 passes for 700-plus yards with 26 TDs on offense and getting 80 tackles and 2 interceptions on defense.

He also was on the basketball (averaging 15 points a game) and track (hurdles) teams at Rogers.

(34) HERSHEL DENNIS

Tailback, 5-11, 200, Sr./Sr., Long Beach, CA (Poly HS)

2005: Dennis, a quick, darting runner who started at tailback in 2003, redshirted his 2005 senior season while recuperating for torn knee ligament surgery performed in January of 2005 (he was sidelined for 2005 spring practice).

2004: Dennis was a reserve as a junior in 2004. He also played on special teams. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 9 games (all but Virginia Tech, Colorado State, California and Oklahoma), he ran for 109 yards on 28 carries (3.9 avg.) with a TD and made a tackle. He had 18 yards on 3 carries at BYU, 19 yards on 5 tries versus Arizona State, 12 yards on 4 carries versus Washington and 55 yards on 11 rushes at Washington State. He had a 1-yard TD run against Arizona. He sat out USC's first 2 games while suspended for a team rule violation. He tore ligaments in his left knee in practice prior to the Orange Bowl, ending his 2004 season.

2003: Dennis started all of his 2003 sophomore season at tailback. Overall in 2003 while starting all 13 games, he rushed for 661 yards on 137 carries (4.8 avg.) with 4 TDs, plus caught 10 passes for 62 yards (6.2 avg.) with 1 TD.

In his first career start, he ran for a career-best 85 yards on 21 carries at Auburn, including a second-effort 14-yard TD. He ran for 40 yards on 16 carries, with an 11-yard TD, against BYU, then had for 54 yards on 9 attempts and caught 2 passes for 5 yards against Hawaii. He rushed for 53 yards on 14 carries at California (he also caught 2 passes for 7 yards), then added 19 yards on 4 carries (he also caught a 12-yard pass) at Arizona State and 80 yards on 10 tries against Stanford. At Notre Dame, he had 38 yards on 10 tries (with a 2-yard TD) and caught 2 passes for 23 yards (with a 3-yard score), then had a game-high 98 rushing yards on 14 carries (he also had a 10-yard catch) at Washington and 53 yards on 7 tries (with a 24-yard TD) versus Washington State. He had 52 yards on 10 rushes at Arizona, then a game-best 69 yards on 12 carries against UCLA, followed by 5 yards each on 3 carries and 2 receptions versus Oregon State. He added 17 yards on 7 carries against Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

2002: Dennis exhibited his outstanding future during his action as a reserve tailback and on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 198 yards on 49 carries (4.0 avg.) with 1 TD, caught 4 passes for 23 yards (5.8 avg.), returned 9 kickoffs for 151 yards (16.8 avg.) and had a tackle for a loss of 34 yards (on a punt at UCLA).

He got his first carries at Colorado, where he ran for 32 yards on 5 tries and caught a 4-yard pass. He then gained 9 yards on 3 carries and returned a kickoff 10 yards at Kansas State. He ran for 3 yards on 4 tries and returned a kickoff 21 yards against Oregon State, returned 3 kickoffs for 40 yards against California, rushed for 7 yards on 2 carries against Washington and gained 19 yards on 10 carries (he also caught a 2-yard pass) at Oregon. He had 21 yards on 6 carries at Stanford, 23 yards on 5 rushes versus Arizona State. At UCLA, he ran for a game-best 57 yards on 8 carries, with a 38-yard TD on a fourth-down play. He had 19 yards on 3 carries and returned a kickoff 15 yards versus Notre Dame. Against Iowa in the Orange Bowl, he ran twice for 8 yards.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2001 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Student Sports All-American second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Far West, Prep Star All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 first team, Student Sports All-West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team Co-Offensive MVP, Los Angeles Times Glenn Davis Award (as the top Southern California prep football player), Los Angeles Times All-Southern California first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team MVP and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team Offensive MVP as a senior running back at Poly High in Long Beach (Calif.). He ran for 1,740 yards on 221 carries (7.9 avg.) with 24 touchdowns, averaging 134 yards a game, in 2001, even though he was pulled out of most games in the third quarter because Poly had large leads. He had some of his best performances in Poly's biggest games: getting 161 yards on 20 carries versus national champion De La Salle High and then 189 yards and 3 scores on 29 carries against Edison High in the CIF Division I final.

As a junior in 2000, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team Co-Offensive MVP, All-CIF Division I first team Co-Offensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team Offensive MVP. He set school and Moore League records for rushing yards (2,106) and rushing touchdowns (32) in 2000 while carrying 209 times (10.1 avg.). In one game as a junior, he had 41 carries for 237 yards and 5 TDs. He scored the winning touchdown on an 11-yard catch in overtime in the 2000 CIF Division I championship game against Loyola High.

He made the All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team as a sophomore in 1999 while running for 1,400-plus yards.

He set school career records for rushing yards (5,440) and rushing touchdowns (82). He returned 7 kicks for scores in his career. He was a 3-year starter as Poly went 39-1-1 and won 3 CIF Division I titles.

He also was on Poly's track team, with bests of 10.7 in the 100 meters, 22.3 in the 200 meters, 22-plus in the long jump and 6-6 in the high jump, and basketball team. Current Trojans Darnell Bing and Winston Justice also prepped at Poly.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Hershel Sr., played tailback at North Carolina A&T.

(63) TRAVIS DRAPER

Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 295, Fr./So., Paso Robles, CA (Paso Robles HS)

2005: Draper, who was switched from offensive guard to nose tackle prior to 2005 spring practice, served as a backup there as a redshirt freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while seeing brief action in 5 games (Hawaii, Arkansas, Arizona, Washington State and Stanford), he had 2 tackles.

2004: Draper, a 2003 signee who didn't enroll at USC until the spring of 2004, redshirted as a first-year freshman offensive guard in 2004. He broke his right thumb prior to the Oregon State game and had surgery, sidelining him for USC's final 5 games (Oregon State, Arizona, Notre Dame, UCLA and Oklahoma).

2003: Draper originally signed with USC in 2003, but did not qualify for admission, so he attended Cuesta Junior College in San Luis Obispo (Calif.) in 2003 as a part-time student (he didn't play football there).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura County/North Coast Lineman MVP and All-League Offensive Lineman MVP honors as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Paso Robles (Calif.) High.

As a junior in 2001, he made All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-North Coast first team and All-League Offensive Lineman MVP. He started for 3 years.

He also was on the track team at Paso Robles.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(49) SEDRICK ELLIS
Defensive Tackle, 6-1, 285, So./Jr., Chino, CA (Chino HS)

2005: After an eye-opening showing in 2005 spring practice, Ellis earned the starting nose tackle spot as a sophomore in 2005 and didn't disappoint. Overall in 2005 while starting all 12 games, he made 47 tackles, including 8 for losses of 36 yards (with 4.5 sacks for minus 26 yards), plus 3 deflections and 1 forced fumble. He had 9 tackles (with a sack) at Notre Dame, 7 tackles (1.5 for a loss, with a sack) versus UCLA, 6 stops (with a sack) at Washington, 4 tackles against Arkansas (1 for a loss) and Oregon (2.5 for losses), and 3 stops versus Arizona State (with a sack). Washington State, Stanford and Fresno State. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

2004: Ellis backed up Mike Patterson at defensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 11 games (all but Virginia Tech and Notre Dame), he made 2 tackles (1 each against Arizona State and Oregon State).

2003: Ellis redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2003, his first year at USC. He suffered a left ankle fracture in 2003 fall practice, played briefly against BYU and then had midseason surgery, forcing him to miss the rest of the 2003 season (he was allowed to redshirt because of the early injury).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star Lineman MVP and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Lineman MVP selection as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Chino (Calif.) High. He posted 122 tackles (35 solo), including 19 for losses (with 6.5 sacks), plus 1 blocked punt, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team. He had 108 tackles, including 16 for losses (with 10 sacks), in 2001.

He was on the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team in 2000.

He also was on Chino's track team. Current Trojan Chris McFoy also prepped at Chino.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(4) KEVIN ELLISON
Safety, 6-1, 220, Fr./Fr., Inglewood, CA (Redondo Union HS)

2005: Ellison, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2005, was headed to an impressive season as a backup strong safety and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 2005, appearing often in extra defensive back situations. But he tore ligaments and got a fracture in his left knee while making a crucial interception late in the Arizona State game and had surgery, sidelining him the rest of the season. Overall while appearing in USC's first 4 games of 2005, he made 6 tackles, the interception and a forced fumble. He had 3 tackles at Arizona State, 2 versus Arkansas (with a forced fumble) and 1 at Hawaii. He made the 2005 The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside Player of the Year, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area Player of the Year and All-Bay League MVP as a senior running back and linebacker at Redondo Union High in Redondo Beach (Calif.). He ran for 1,661 yards on 230 carries (7.2 avg.) with 32 TDs and had 25 receptions for 414 yards (16.6 avg.) with 5 TDs on offense and 115 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 5 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions (1 for a TD) in 2004. In one game, he ran for a school-record 322 yards on 18 carries (17.9 avg.).

As a junior in 2003, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Division IV, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first team and All-Ocean League Co-MVP. He had 1,402 yards on 222 carries (6.3 avg.) with 15 TDs and 15 receptions for 161 yards (10.7 avg.) with 1 TD, plus 101 tackles, 8 tackles for loss, 3 sacks, 2 interceptions (1 for a TD) and 1 fumble recovery in 2003.

He was a 2002 South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area and All-Ocean League Co-Defensive MVP selection as a 2002 sophomore. In his career, he rushed for a school-record 3,718 yards on 578 carries (6.4 avg.) and had 297 tackles.

PERSONAL: His brother, Keith, is a senior linebacker at Oregon State (he formerly played at San Diego State). His cousin, Dominic Ellison, played basketball at Washington State and New Mexico State.

(44) RASHAAD GOODRUM
Defensive End, 6-3, 245, Jr./Sr., Fayetteville, NC (Pine Forest HS/Los Angeles Valley JC)

2005: Goodrum was a backup defensive end as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 8 games (all but Notre Dame, California and Fresno State), he made 2 tackles (both at Oregon). He suffered bruised ribs against Stanford and missed USC's last 3 games (California, Fresno State and UCLA).

2004: Goodrum, who came to USC in the fall of 2004 as a junior college transfer, had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his left knee in 2004 fall practice and sat out the opener against Virginia Tech. He then saw brief action against Colorado State and BYU (he had a sack at BYU). But his knee injury flared up again, so he sat out the rest of the season and because of the early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was a 2-year (2002-03) starting defensive end and linebacker at Los Angeles Valley Junior College in Valley Glen (Calif.). He was a 2003 Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention and All-Western State Conference Northern Division first team (unanimous) selection. He posted 55 tackles (35 solo), including 16 tackles for loss (with 6 sacks), and 2 forced fumbles in 2003.

He also made the 2002 All-Western State Conference Northern Division first team.

He originally signed with Washington in 2004, but did not enroll there in the spring because he did not graduate from junior college in time.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Pine Forest High in Fayetteville (N.C.), where he was a 2000 All-Mid South Conference second teamer as a senior linebacker and fullback. He averaged 6.0 yards per carry as a senior.

He did not attend any school during the 2001 season.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. His brother, Nuru, is a sophomore fullback at The Citadel.

(40) BRANDON HANCOCK
Fullback, 6-1, 230, Jr./Sr., Fresno, CA (Clovis West HS)

2005: The big, strong and fast Hancock—a tough blocker and an excellent receiver—returned after a year's layoff because of injury and served as the backup fullback as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games he ran for 13 yards on 4 carries (3.2 avg.) with a TD and caught 8 passes for 94 yards (11.8 avg.). He ran for an 8-yard score against Stanford. He had 2 catches for 17 yards at Arizona State, plus caught a 21-yarder against Arkansas, a 17-yarder at Arizona State, a 16-yarder at Oregon, a 15-yarder at Washington and a 12-yarder versus Washington State. He had arthroscopic surgery to removed cartilage from his knee in the summer of 2005. He won USC's Howard Jones/Football Alumni Club Award.

2004: Hancock redshirted the 2004 season (he was slated to start at fullback) after having surgery in the spring of 2004 for a torn ligament in his right knee and a ruptured chest muscle (the injuries also caused him to miss 2004 spring football practice).

2003: Hancock started at fullback for most of his 2003 sophomore season. He missed USC's first 3 games of 2003 (Auburn, BYU and Hawaii) with a sprained right ankle suffered in fall drills. He then sprained his left knee at Arizona and missed the UCLA and Oregon State contests. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 8 games (off the bench at California, then starting the next 6 contests and against Michigan in the Rose Bowl), he caught 13 passes for 160 yards (12.3 avg.) with 2 TDs, had 1 carry for minus 2 yards and made a tackle. He caught 2 passes for 42 yards (including a 33-yard TD on fourth down) at Arizona State, then had 3 receptions versus Stanford (19 yards) and Notre Dame (28 yards). He caught a 52-yard TD pass at Washington. He then had a 5-yard reception against Washington State and a 6-yarder at Arizona. He added 2 grabs for 8 yards versus Michigan. He missed 2003 spring practice after having spring surgery to repair a dislocating bone in his right wrist.

2002: Hancock, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2002, was a backup fullback and appeared on special teams as a freshman in 2002. He even started twice (Oregon State and California). Overall while appearing in all 13 games, he gained 8 yards on 3 carries (2.7 avg.), caught 2 passes for 15 yards (7.5 avg.) and made 4 tackles and a fumble recovery (at Washington State, which led to a USC TD).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Far West, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and Fresno Bee All-Fresno second team pick as a senior fullback at Clovis West High in Fresno (Calif.). He ran for 1,280 yards in 2001 and had 1,600-plus all-purpose yards with 15 TDs.

As a junior in 2000, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team as he rushed for 700-plus yards with 5 scores and, as a linebacker, had 80 tackles (31 solo), 2 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles and an interception despite missing some game with a mid-season ankle sprain. He also played some at quarterback and defensive end while at Clovis West.

Also a fine student, he was valedictorian at Clovis West.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC with an A- average (3.91). He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest honor society. He was named to the 2005 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VIII first team, 2003 CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII first team and 2003 and 2005 Pac-10 All-Academic first teams. He has been featured in various body building magazines, including Muscle Magazine International.

He had 5 tackles against Oregon State (1.5 for losses) and Notre Dame (2 for losses) and 4 stops against Arizona State.

2003: Jackson redshirted as a freshman defensive end in 2003, his first year at USC. He won USC's Service Team Defensive Player of the Year award. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right ankle to remove debris.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Tom Lemming All-American, CNNSI.com All-American first team, The Insiders.com All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside Lineman MVP, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Bay League MVP honors as a senior at Inglewood (Calif.) High. He had 142 tackles, with 11 sacks, plus 4 fumble recoveries and 2 interceptions in 2002 while playing defensive line and middle linebacker.

As a junior in 2001, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay Lineman of the Year, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Ocean League Defensive MVP. He had 134 tackles, including 22 sacks, plus 2 interceptions (1 returned for a TD), 7 forced fumbles, 3 fumble recoveries and 3 blocked kicks in 2001. Inglewood made it to the 2001 CIF Division X semifinals.

During his 2000 sophomore season, Inglewood advanced to the CIF Division X finals.

In his career, he had 57 sacks.

He also was on Inglewood's track team.

PERSONAL: He's a philosophy major at USC. His brother, Keith, was an offensive tackle at Arizona.

(8) DWAYNE JARRETT
Wide Receiver, 6-5, 210, So./So., New Brunswick, NJ
(New Brunswick HS)

CAREER: His 136 career receptions puts him eighth on USC's career list. He has 28 TD catches (tied for fifth on the Pac-10 career list) in 25 career games, well within range of Mike Williams' USC record of 30 career scoring grabs and the Pac-10 mark of 32. He has caught at least 1 TD pass in 16 of his 25 career games. He has 8 100-yard receiving games in his career. He has caught a pass in every game of his career (25).

2005: The eye-opening Jarrett, who reminds USC fans of All-American Mike Williams because of his size and big-play pass catching ability, started for his second year at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while starting 11 games (all but UCLA) and appearing in all 12 contests, he had a team-best 81 receptions for 1,153 yards (14.2 avg.) with 15 TD. He also had 1 rush for -1 yard, completed 1-of-2 passes for 11 yards and made 1 tackle. He was 1 of 3 finalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award. He won the 2005 Touchdown Club of Columbus' Wide Receiver of the Year Award. He was named a 2005 AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, SI.com, CBS Sportsline.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American first teamer and Rivals.com All-American second teamer (he was a unanimous choice and joined Mike Williams as the only USC sophomore wide receivers to win All-American honors). He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. He currently is 14th nationally in receiving yards (96.1, fourth in Pac-10) and 16th in receptions (6.8, second in Pac-10). His 81 catches in 2005 puts him tied for fourth on USC's season list. His 15 TD catches are tied for most in the nation in 2005 and put him fourth on the Pac-10 season chart (he is within range of Mike Williams' USC record of 16 season scoring grabs and the Pac-10 mark of 18). He has a TD catch in 8 games in 2005 and 4 100-yard receiving games in 2005 (including a 200-yarder). With 1,153 receiving yards in 2005, he is USC's ninth pass catcher to break the 1,000-yard barrier.

He had 7 catches for 88 yards at Hawaii, with 3 TDs (22, 28 and 2 yards) to tie a USC game record. He added 4 catches for 79 yards against Arkansas, with a pair of TD grabs (24 and 8 yards). He caught 8 passes for 94 yards (both game highs), with 2 TDs (11 and 6 yards), at Oregon. He had a team-best 7 receptions for 90 yards at Arizona State, then had a game-best 9 catches for 116 yards and 2 TDs (22 and 29 yards) against Arizona. He added 4 catches for 101 yards at Notre Dame, none bigger than his 61-yard grab with less than a minute to play to set up USC's game-winning TD. He then caught 3 TDs at Washington (24, 7 and 7 yards, with the last being a spectacular one-handed, one-foot-in grab) on 7 receptions for 95 yards (all game bests). He caught 11 passes for 200 yards (both career bests) with a 29-yard TD against Washington State (it was only the eighth time a Trojan had at least 200 receiving yards). He had 8 catches for 101 yards (both team highs) against Stanford, including a spectacular 19-yard over-the-shoulder TD grab. He hit 1,000 receiving yards in 2005 with 5 catches for 69 yards (both game highs) at California. He made 5 receptions for 37 yards against Fresno State. He caught a game-best 6 passes for 83 yards, with an 8-yard TD grab, against UCLA (he also completed an 11-yard pass off a reverse).

2004: Jarrett made an immediate impact as a first-year freshman wide receiver in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games (he started the last 8), he had a team-high 55 receptions for 849 yards (15.4 avg.) and 13 TDs. He had just 3 less TD catches than Williams had in his 2003 All-American sophomore campaign (and just 1 less than Williams had in 2002 when he was a Freshman All-American). His 13 TD catches are the second most ever by a Trojan freshman receiver (behind Williams' 14). He had 4 multiple-TD games and 4 100-yard outings in 2004. His 55 catches is tied for 14th on USC's season list. He made the 2004 Football Writers, The Sporting News, Collegefootballnews.com and Rivals.com Freshman All-American first teams, All-Pac-10 honorable mention and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team.

He had 2 catches for 8 yards in his debut at Virginia Tech, then 3 for 32 yards (with a 4-yard score) against Colorado State and 3 for 58 yards (including a 15-yard TD) at BYU. He added 5 receptions for 54 yards at Stanford, then had a team-best 4 catches for 37 yards (with a 16-yard TD) versus California. He tied the USC single game TD catch record with his 3 scores (19, 52 and 34 yards, all in the second quarter) against Arizona State (overall, he caught 5 passes for a career-best 139 yards) to earn Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week honors. He had 5 catches for 31 yards versus Washington, 4 catches for 64 yards at Washington State, with 2 TDs (42 and 4 yards), and 2 catches for 21 yards at Oregon State. He had 6 catches for 144 yards (both career bests) and 2 TDs against Arizona for his second career 100-yard outing. He then had a game-best 6 catches for 102 yards (his third 100-yard outing and second in a row) with 2 TDs (12 and 57 yards) against Notre Dame. At UCLA, he had 5 catches for 44 yards. He had 5 catches for 115 yards, with a 54-yard TD grab, against Oklahoma.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2003 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Super Prep All-Northeast Offensive MVP, Prep Star All-East and New Jersey Offensive Player of the Year pick as a senior wide receiver and defensive back at New Brunswick (N.J.) High. He scored 26 TDs (including all 3 in New Brunswick's 21-14 state title victory), with 5 of the TDs coming on his 15 punt returns (for a 48.0 average) in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he had 40 receptions for 956 yards (23.9 avg.) with 17 TDs on offense and 24 tackles and 6 interceptions on defense.

He also played basketball at New Brunswick.

PERSONAL: His cousin, Desmond Belton, is a sophomore wide receiver at Idaho.

(74) WINSTON JUSTICE
Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 300, Jr./Sr., Long Beach, CA (Poly HS)

2005: After a year's layoff, Justice reclaimed his starting right offensive tackle spot as a junior in 2005 (he also started there in 2002 and 2003) and picked right up where he left off, starting all season. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team.

2004: Justice was slated to start for his third season at right offensive tackle as a junior in 2004. But he was ineligible for 2004 spring practice and the 2004 season because of a student conduct violation (he did not attend USC during that time), so he redshirted.

2003: Justice started for his second season on the right side as a sophomore in 2003. He was named to the 2003 All-Pac-10 honorable mention squad. He missed 2 games (Arizona State and Stanford) with an ankle sprain.

2002: As just a first-year freshman, Justice started 12 games (all but the opener against Auburn, in which he didn't play at all) at right offensive tackle in 2002 and did a marvelous job. He was named to the 2002 The Sporting News Freshman All-American first team, Scripps/Football Writers Freshman All-American first team, Rivals.com Freshman All-American first team and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team. He got his first start (at Colorado) on his 18th birthday, becoming USC's first true freshman to start on the offensive line since guard Travis Claridge and tackle Faafesea Mailo did so in 1996 against Notre Dame. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery to repair a dislocating right shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2001 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southern California Lineman of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Southern California first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team Lineman of the Year and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team honors as a senior offensive lineman at Poly High in Long Beach (Calif.). He had 38 pancake blocks in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he was named to the Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team third team. He was a member of 3 Poly teams that went 39-1-1 and won 3 CIF Division I titles (he started 2 years). He didn't play football until his sophomore year in high school. Current Trojans Hershel Dennis and Darnell Bing also prepped at Poly.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His mother is from Barbados and he likes calypso music. While suspended in 2004, he trained daily at a Hollywood boxing gym with trainer Freddie Roach, who worked with Mike Tyson.

(67) RYAN KALIL
Center, 6-3, 285, Jr./Jr., Corona, CA (Servite HS)

2005: Reliable, tough Kalil started for his second season at center as a junior in 2005 and anchored the USC offensive line with his fine play. He was named to the 2005 SI.com All-American and Collegefootballnews.com second teams. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award.

2004: Kalil started all season at center as a sophomore in 2004 and did an admirable job. He won USC's 2004 Courage Award.

2003: As just a first-year freshman, Kalil backed up Norm Katnik at center in 2003 and saw brief action in 6 games (Hawaii, Arizona State, Notre Dame, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Southern Section first team, CIF Division I first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County second team selection as a senior offensive lineman at Servite High in Anaheim (Calif.).

He also started as a 2001 junior. He did not allow a sack in 2001 or 2002. He also was a long snapper.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Frank, was a center at Arkansas (1978) and Arizona (1980-81-82), then was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in 1982 before playing for the USFL's Arizona Wranglers in 1983 and Houston Gamblers in 1984. He likes to sing, particularly Frank Sinatra tunes.

(37) DAVID KIRTMAN
Fullback, 6-0, 230, Sr./Sr., Mercer Island, WA (Mercer Island HS)

2005: Kirtman, known for his steady play and pass catching ability, started at fullback and was a key special teams player as a senior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while starting all 12 games, he caught 19 passes for 220 yards (11.6 avg.) with 1 TD, ran 8 times for 26 yards (3.2 avg.) with 1 TD and had a tackle. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

He caught 3 passes for 46 yards (including a 21-yard TD in which he leaped into the end zone) against Arkansas, then had a 21-yard reception at Oregon. He had a team-high 7 receptions for 97 yards at Arizona State, added a 5-yard catch against Arizona, and then had 2 catches for 11 yards and 3 rushes for 6 yards at Washington. He ran for 14 yards on 2 carries, caught a 17-yard pass and had a tackle at California, then added a 7-yard grab against Fresno State. He ran for 6 yards on 3 carries (with a 2-yard TD) and caught 3 passes for 16 yards against UCLA.

2004: Kirtman played often as the backup fullback behind Lee Webb and on special teams as a junior in 2004. He even started 4 games (Colorado State, Arizona State, Washington and UCLA). Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he caught 19 passes for 161 yards (8.5 avg.) with 1 TD, ran for 45 yards on 8 carries (5.6 avg.) and made a tackle. He had 3 catches against Virginia Tech for 32 yards, and 2 grabs against Colorado State (30 yards), BYU (19 yards), Oregon State (17 yards) and Washington State (12 yards). He caught a 5-yard TD pass versus Arizona (the first touchdown of his USC career).

2003: Kirtman was a backup fullback and played on some special teams as a sophomore in 2003. He even started the UCLA game. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 12 games (all but California), he ran for 23 yards on 5 carries (4.6 avg.), caught 4 passes for 20 yards (5.0 avg.) and had 1 tackle. All of his rushing yards came at Arizona, while he had 2 catches for 12 yards against Oregon State and the tackle was against Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

2002: Kirtman was a reserve fullback and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2002. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 8 games (all but Kansas State, Washington State, Oregon, Arizona State and UCLA), he made 2 tackles.

2001: Kirtman redshirted as a freshman tailback and fullback in 2001, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2000 Super Prep All-Farwest and Prep Star All-Western Region pick as a senior at Mercer Island (Wash.) High. He ran for 1,380 yards and 18 TDs, plus has 480 receiving yards, in 2000. He set 11 school records.

As a 1999 junior, he made All-KingCo 3-A first team while rushing for 1,311 yards (7.9 avg.) and 18 TDs, along with 16 receptions for 228 yards (14.3 avg.) and 2 scores.

He also was on the track team (100 and 200 meters and shot put) at Mercer Island. Current Trojan Taylor Odegard also prepped at Mercer Island.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He grew up in Northern California. His father, Louis, ran track at California, while his brother, Michael, was on Pomona-Pitzer's football and track teams. His uncle, Nate, played football at Stanford in 1967.

Quarterback, 6-5, 225, Sr.*Sr., Santa Ana, CA (Mater Dei HS)

CAREER: He is only the second 3-time All-American first teamer in USC history (along with linebacker Richard Wood, 1972-74). He owns 10 USC records, 9 of which are Pac-10 marks (and 1 is an NCAA record), and is on the verge of setting several others. He is 37-1 as a USC starter (his 97.4% winning percentage is second best in NCAA history, behind the perfect 35-0 mark of Toledo's Chuck Ealy in 1969-71). His 98 career touchdown passes are a Pac-10 and USC record (fifth on the NCAA list) and it took him 733 less pass attempts to break the USC mark than previous recordholder Carson Palmer, the 2002 Heisman winner. He ranks second on the Trojan career total offense list (10,256, fifth on the Pac-10 chart), as well as second on the USC all-time lists for passing yardage (10,328, sixth on the Pac-10 ladder) and completions (778). His career completion percentage of 64.6% equals Rob Johnson's USC record (64.6%, 1991-94). His career TD/inteception ratio is 98/22. His career interception percentage of 1.83% is better than the NCAA record of 2.12%. His career total offense average of 269.9 is above the Pac-10 mark of 262.4. He has thrown at least 1 TD in all but 4 of the 38 games he has started (including the first 24) and at least 2 TDs in all but 7 games (he had a string of at least 2 TDs in 15 consecutive games). He also has thrown at least 3 TDs 20 times in his career and at least 4 TDs 10 times, including 5 TDs on 3 occasions. He is averaging a TD pass every 12.3 career attempts. His career passing efficiency mark of 159.7 is fifth on the NCAA list, 1 spot below his current quarterbacks coach, Steve Sarkisian (who was at 162.0 at BYU, 1995-96). He has never completed less than 52.5% of his passes in any of his 38 career games. He has thrown for at least 300 yards in 11 games in his career, including once for 400-plus yards. He has thrown for at least 200 yards in 35 career games, a Pac-10 record. He was just the third quarterback in the last 30 years to lead his team to back-to-back national championships.

2005: The record-setting Leinart, the left-handed record-setting 3-time All-American and 2004 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback, again was one of America's top players as he started for his third season as a senior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while starting all 12 games, he completed 254-of-391 passes (65.0%) for 3,450 yards and 27 TDs with 7 interceptions. He also ran for 34 yards on 45 carries (0.8 avg.) with 6 TDs. He won the 2005 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award as the nation's top senior quarterback (USC's third recipient, along with Rodney Peete and Carson Palmer). He won the 2005 Touchdown Club of Columbus' Quarterback of the Year Award. He finished third in the 2005 Heisman Trophy voting. He was 1 of 3 finalists for the Davey O'Brien Award and the Maxwell Award, 1 of 4 finalists for the Cingular-ABC Sports All-America Player of the Year Award and 1 of 5 finalists for the Walter Camp Award and Manning Award. He was named a 2005 Football Coaches and Walter Camp All-American first teamer. He also was named to the 2005 AP, SI.com, Rivals.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American second teams. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team for his third straight year, just the second quarterback to ever do so (along with UCLA's Gary Beban, 1965-67). He was named the 2005 Southern California Sportsman of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council. He is 1 of 10 finalists for the 2005 Awards and Recognition Association Sportsmanship Award.

His completions, passing yardage, passing efficiency rating and rushing TDs in 2005 were better than his 12-game numbers from his 2004 Heisman Trophy season (he also had 7 3-TD passing games and 6 300-yard passing games this year, but only 4 and 1, respectively, after 12 games last season). He currently is seventh nationally in passing efficiency (158.3, second in Pac-10) and 15th in total offense (290.3, first in Pac-10). In his last 6 games of 2005 (while never playing in the fourth quarter in the first 3 and only 1 series into the fourth quarter in the fourth and sixth contests), he completed 66.8% of his passes (129-of-193) for 1,493 yards, 15 TDs and just 2 interceptions. His 3,484 yards of total offense in 2005 is third on USC's season list (10th on the Pac-10's season ladder) and his 254 completions in 2005 is fifth on USC's season chart. He had minor outpatient surgery to address tendonitis in his left (throwing) elbow in late January of 2005, which sidelined him in 2005 spring practice. He was named to the prestigious 2005 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team for the second consecutive year. In January of 2005, he decided to return to USC instead of declare early for the NFL draft.

In the equivalent of 2 quarters of action at Hawaii, he completed 75.0% of his passes (18-of-24) for 332 yards with 3 TDs (he broke the USC career TD pass record). For the second week in a row, he completed 18-of-24 passes (75.0%), this time for 381 yards (the second most in his career) and 4 TDs in less than 3 full quarters of action against Arkansas (he also scrambled for a 17-yard score). He hit 23-of-39 passes for 315 yards and 3 touchdowns at Oregon, including going 11-of-14 for 170 yards in the second half. Despite being knocked woozy early in the game at Arizona State, he hit 23-of-39 passes for 258 yards, including going 13-of-16 for 145 yards in the second half. He was 26-of-40 for 360 yards and 2 TDs against Arizona. He hit 17-of-32 passes for 301 yards (with 2 interceptions) at Notre Dame, but he'll long be remembered for his 61-yard audible pass completion to Dwayne Jarrett on fourth-and-9 from the USC 26 that set up his dramatic 1-yard twisting sneak for the game-winning touchdown with 3 seconds to play. He became the Pac-10 career leader in touchdown passes when he threw 4 TDs at Washington while completing 20-of-26 passes for 201 yards in just 3 quarters of work. He completed 24-of-34 passes for 364 yards and 3 TDs in just 3 quarters of work versus Washington State, the Pac-10 record-tying 31st 200-yard passing outing of his career. He hit a season-best 78.6% of his passes (22-of-28) for 259 yards and 4 TDs with no interceptions against Stanford before coming out after USC's first series of the second half (he was 20-of-25 for 245 yards with the 4 TDs at halftime) to earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. At California, he went over the 3,000-yard passing mark for his third season in a row (a USC record and tying the Pac-10 mark), going 20-of-32 for 246 yards (he was 15-of-21 for 171 yards in the first half, including 9-of-11 in the first quarter after hitting his first 8 throws); his 2 short rushing TDs were his most ever in a game. He was 22-of-33 for 200 yards and a TD against Fresno State and also had a 1-yard scoring sneak. He was 21-of-40 for 233 yards with 3 TD passes in just over 3 quarters of work against UCLA despite getting off to a slow start (0-of-5) because he was affected by the emotion of playing in his last game in the Coliseum (he settled down and was 13-of-20 for 165 yards in the second half); he also caught an 11-yard pass.

2004: Leinart started for his second season at quarterback as a junior in 2004. Overall in 2004, he completed 269-of-412 passes (65.3%) for 3,322 yards and 33 TDs with just 6 interceptions, plus he rushed for 3 TDs. He was seventh nationally in passing efficiency (156.5, first in Pac-10) and 25th in total offense (252.2, third in Pac-10). His 33 TD passes in 2004 were second on the USC season list, his 269 completions were third, and his 3,322 passing yards and 3,278 yards of total offense were fourth (the TD passes was tied for third on the Pac-10 list). His statistics were comparable or better in 2004 than they were in 2003, and he did it without 2003's top 2 pass catchers—WRs Mike Williams and Keary Colbert—and behind a rebuilt offensive line. And he had fewer interceptions, the same amount of touchdown passes, and a better completion percentage and passing rating—and led USC to more wins—than Carson Palmer did in his 2002 Heisman Trophy season. Against USC's 4 opponents in the final 2004 AP rankings (Virginia Tech, California, Arizona State and Oklahoma), he threw for 992 yards and 14 TDs with only 1 interception.

He won the 2004 Heisman Trophy (becoming the sixth Trojan to do so, along with Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979, Marcus Allen in 1981 and Carson Palmer in 2002). He was named the 2004 Walter Camp Player of the Year (joining 3 other Trojans to have been so honored, Simpson in 1967 and 1968, White in 1979 and Allen in 1981) and AP Player of the Year. He won the Touchdown Club of Columbus' 2004 Archie Griffin Award (nation's MVP) for the second year in a row and its Quarterback of the Year Award. He also won the inaugural 2004 Manning Award (as the nation's best quarterback), the National Quarterback Club's College Quarterback of the Year, the Victor Award College Football Player of the Year and the Sporting News Radio Socrates Award. He was named to the 2004 All-American first team by AP, Football Coaches, Walter Camp, ESPN.com, CSTV and Rivals.com, and to the second team by SI.com and Collegefootballnews.com. He was the 2004 Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year (along with teammate Reggie Bush), becoming just the fourth player to win that honor twice (and the second quarterback, along with Stanford's John Elway). He was a finalist for the 2004 Davey O'Brien Award, Maxwell Award and Cingular Wireless/ABC Sports All-America Player of the Year Award, as well as the ESPY Best Championship Performance of the Year Award. He also was named the 2004 ESPN.com and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 Player of the Year. He was USC's 2004 Player of the Game versus Notre Dame and a team captain. He was presented with the 2004 Chuck Benedict Founder's Award (for outstanding achievement) from the Southern California Sportscasters Association and was the Orange County Youth Sports Foundation Sportsman of the Year. He also was won a 2005 ESPY Award for Best Male College Athlete and was named a finalist for the 2004 Sullivan Award (given to the nation's top amateur athlete). He was the 2004 Sports Illustrated On Campus Athlete of the Year. He was named to the 2004 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team (the first USC quarterback so honored).

In the opener against Virginia Tech while breaking in a new receiving corps, he hit 65.5% of his passes (19-of-29, despite missing on his first 4 throws) for 272 yards and 3 long TDs (he was 11-of-13 for 170 yards and 2 TDs in the second half, with 11 consecutive completions at one point). He was 20-of-31 for 231 yards and 2 short TDs (with 4 drops) in just 3 quarters of action against Colorado State (he also ran for a career-high 46 yards on 7 attempts). At BYU, he hit 22-of-34 passes for 236 yards and 2 TDs with an interception (breaking a streak of 102 pass attempts without a pick) and he also ran for a 1-yard TD (his first career score). He hit a career-best 76.7% of his passes (23-of-30) for 284 yards with a TD at Stanford and he also scored on a 1-yard sneak to earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He was 15-of-24 for 164 yards and 2 TDs (with a pick) against California. In just 3 quarters of action against Arizona State, he threw 4 TD passes on 13-of-24 passing for 224 yards with no interceptions and also had a 1-yard sneak for a touchdown to earn The Sporting News National Player of the Week honors. He was 24-of-43 (a career high for attempts) for 217 yards and 2 scores (with a pick) against Washington (he came out after the first series of the final quarter). He hit a career-best 82.1% of his passes (23-of-28) for 235 yards and 2 TDs at Washington State (he was 18-of-21, 85.7%, for 203 yards and a TD in the first half). In the fog at Oregon State, he completed 17-of-31 passes for 205 yards with 2 TDs and an interception. He completed a career-best 27 passes in 35 attempts (77.1%) for 280 yards and 3 TDs against Arizona despite sitting out most of the fourth quarter (he hit 11 consecutive passes in the first half and was 12-of-14 for 273 yards in the second half). Against Notre Dame, he equaled a USC and Notre Dame opponent single game record with 5 TD passes (the second time in his career that he has thrown that many) as he completed 24-of-34 aerials for a career-best 400 yards (the second most ever against the Irish) with no interceptions to earn both The Sporting News College Player of the Week and Cingular Wireless/ABC Sports All-America National Player of the Week honors. He was 24-of-34 for 242 yards and an interception at UCLA (he completed his first 10 passes of the game and was 15-of-17 for 103 yards in the first half), but he was held without a TD throw for the first time in 25 games as a starter. He was the Orange Bowl MVP and made the Sports Illustrated All-Bowl Team, as he threw an Orange Bowl record (and USC record-tying) 5 TD passes against Oklahoma while hitting 18-of-35 passes for 332 yards (he had 4 TDs and 243 yards in the first half).

2003: How's this for filling the shoes of a Heisman Trophy winner? Leinart, a sophomore who had never thrown a pass at USC while seeing brief action in just 3 games in 2002, won USC's starting quarterback job at the end of 2003 spring practice...by an ever-so-slight edge. He extended his hold on the job through 2003 fall practice, then put together a season in which it appeared there was little—if any—dropoff from Carson Palmer's 2002 Heisman production. In fact, Leinart's passing percentage, efficiency rating, TD passes, interceptions and won-loss record were better than Palmer's 2002 numbers. Overall in 2003 while starting all 13 games, Leinart completed 255-of-402 passes (63.4%) for 3,556 yards, 38 TDs and just 9 interceptions, plus he caught a 15-yard pass for a TD. He was a 2003 Collegefootballnews.com All-American first team, SI.com All-American second team and Rivals.com All-American honorable mention selection. He also was named the 2003 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year (only the second sophomore to win that honor, along with Stanford's John Elway in 1980) and made the All-Pac-10 first team, as well as being selected the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 MVP and first team and Collegefootballnews.com All-Pac-10 Player of the Year, Offensive MVP and first team. He was 1 of 10 semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Award and he even was sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting. He won the Touchdown Club of Columbus' Archie Griffin Award (nation's MVP). He was USC's team MVP and won the USC Player of the Game versus Notre Dame award.

He was third nationally in passing efficiency (164.5, first in Pac-10) and 19th in total offense (268.8, second in Pac-10). In his last 9 games, he threw for 2,632 yards and 30 TDs with just 3 interceptions on 65.5% passing (182-of-278). He threw at least 2 TDs in his last 12 games (included was a string of at least 3 TDs in the first 5 of those contests). He set a Pac-10 season record with 212 consecutive passes without an interception—stretching over 8 games—and fell just 4 passes short of the Pac-10 career record. His 164.5 passing efficiency rating was the best season in USC history. His 255 completions were third on the USC season list. His 38 TD passes was a Pac-10 season record (and the second most by any sophomore in NCAA history). His 3,494 yards of total offense was second on the USC season chart. He passed for more season yards than any sophomore in USC history, he is the first USC sophomore to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games and he is the first USC sophomore to have thrown for 3,000 yards in a season.

In his first career start, he was an efficient 17-of-30 for 192 yards with a touchdown (on his first career pass) at Auburn. He threw 3 touchdown passes against BYU while hitting 19-of-34 passes for 235 yards (but he had 3 interceptions). He then completed 71.4% of his passes (15-of-21) for 220 yards and 2 TDs (with no picks) in 3 quarters of action against Hawaii. He was 21-of-39 for 277 yards and 2 scores (but threw 3 interceptions) at California (in the second half, he hit 16-of-24 throws for 191 yards). He completed 12-of-23 passes for 289 yards and 2 TDs (57 and 33 yards) with an interception despite missing most of the second quarter with a banged up knee and ankle at Arizona State (he played while hobbled during the second half). He was 18-of-27 for 260 yards and 3 TDs (all to Mike Williams) in 3 quarters of action against Stanford (in the first half, he was 16-of-20 for 249 yards and all 3 scores). He completed 76.6% of his passes (26-of-34) for 351 yards and 4 TDs (career bests for completions, yards and TDs, as well as tying an Irish opponent record for TD passes) at Notre Dame (he hit his first 7 throws). Then, for the second week in a row, he threw for 351 yards, 4 TDs and no interceptions, this time on 19-of-29 passing (65.5%) at Washington (he was named Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week). He was 17-of-31 for 191 yards and 3 TDs and no interceptions against a Washington State defense that was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (he was 6-of-7 for 93 yards and the 3 scores in the second half). At Arizona, he was 22-of-30 for 296 yards and 4 TDs (he was taken out midway through the third quarter) while setting a USC season record for consecutive passes without an interception. He was 23-of-32 for 289 yards and 2 TDs in 3 quarters of action against UCLA (he was 12-of-14 for 171 yards and a TD in the first quarter). Against Oregon State, he tied the USC game TD pass record (shared with Palmer and Rodney Peete) when he threw 5 scores (giving him a Pac-10 record 35 on the season) while hitting 22-of-38 passes for 278 yards with 2 interceptions (ending his Pac-10 season record streak of 212 consecutive passes without an interception, just 4 short of the Pac-10 career mark). He was named the Rose Bowl MVP as he threw 3 TD passes (on 23-of-34 passing for 327 yards) and he also caught a tricky 15-yard reverse pass for a TD against Michigan.

2002: Leinart was USC's third-string quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2002. He appeared briefly late in 3 games (taking 2 snaps at Colorado, directing 3 series at Oregon and taking a snap at UCLA), but didn't throw a pass. He also served as a backup holder on placekicks, but wasn't called on in that role.

2001: Leinart redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2001, his first year at USC. He spent the season as the co-backup to Carson Palmer, although he never got into a game.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2000 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports Senior All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region Super 30, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I Co-Offensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-Serra League as a senior at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.). He completed 192-of-309 passes (62.1%) for 2,870 yards, 28 TDs and 10 interceptions in 2000. Against national champion De La Salle High, he was 31-of-47 for 447 yards and 4 TDs. Mater Dei went 9-3 in 2000.

As a 1999 junior, he was the All-Serra League Offensive MVP while hitting 150-of-233 passes (64.4%) for 2,400 yards with 15 TDs and 6 interceptions. Mater Dei was the CIF Division I co-champion in 1999.

He sat out his 1998 sophomore season with a rotator cuff injury to his left (throwing) shoulder. Current Trojan Will Collins also prepped at Mater Dei.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. He was born with strabismus (cross-eyes), as his left eye was not aligned with his right (he underwent surgery when he was 3 years old and was fitted with glasses).

MATT LEINART'S POTENTIAL USC RECORDS

Highest passing efficiency rating, season: currently at 158.3 (record is 164.5, Matt Leinart, 2003)
 Highest completion percentage, career: currently 64.6% (record is 64.6%, Rob Johnson, USC, 1992-94)

(4) WHITNEY LEWIS

Wide Receiver, 6-1, 225, So./Jr., Oxnard, CA (St. Bonaventure HS)

2005: Lewis returned after a year's layoff and served as a backup wide receiver as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005, he appeared in 9 games (all but Hawaii, Arkansas and California), but did not catch a pass. A sprained shoulder suffered in 2005 fall camp sidelined him for USC's first 2 games (Hawaii and Arkansas).

2004: Lewis redshirted the 2004 season while academically ineligible.

2003: Lewis was tried at several offensive positions as a first-year freshman in 2003. He came to USC as a wide receiver, but then was moved to running back—first at fullback (usually in motion) and then at tailback—before going back to wide receiver by midseason, where he is a backup. He sprained his right knee in practice prior to the Oregon State game and missed that contest. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 8 games (all but Auburn, California, Stanford, Washington State and Oregon State), he had 3 receptions for 27 yards (9.0 avg.) and 3 carries for 11 yards (3.7 avg.). He had 2 catches for 25 yards at Arizona. All of his carries came at Arizona State.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2002 Parade All-American first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Tom Lemming All-American, CNNSI.com All-American first team, The Insiders.com All-American first team, Old Spice Red Zone All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Tom Lemming Super Team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Player of the Year (Mr. Football), All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV Offensive MVP, Los Angeles Times Glenn Davis Award (as the top Southern California prep football player), Los Angeles Times All-Star first team and Los Angeles Times All-Ventura County/North Coast MVP pick as a senior at St. Bonaventure High in Ventura (Calif.). He had 65 catches for 1,235 yards (19.0 avg.) with 16 TDs as a wide receiver, ran for 1,059 yards on 112 carries (9.5 avg.) with 23 TDs as a tailback and scored 268 points with 42 total TDs (he scored a touchdown every 4.5 times he touched the ball) in 2002. St. Bonaventure won the 2002 CIF Division IV title, its fourth consecutive CIF crown (the others were Division XI).

As a junior in 2001, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Small Schools first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division XI first team, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura County first team and All-League. He caught 65 passes for 959 yards (14.8 avg.) with 14 TDs and also ran for 323 yards on 20 carries (16.2 avg.) in 2001.

As a sophomore in 2000, he had 52 receptions for 879 yards (16.9 avg.) with 17 TDs. He made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team and Los Angeles Times All-Ventura County first team in 2000.

In his career, St. Bonaventure went 55-1, including a streak of 42 consecutive wins.

He also competed in basketball and track (with a best of 10.5 in the 100 meters) at St. Bonaventure. Current Trojan Rey Mauluga also prepped at St. Bonaventure.

PERSONAL: He was born in Corpus Christi, Tex., but moved to California when he was 2.

(45) OSCAR LUA
Linebacker, 6-1, 240, Jr.*Sr., Indio, CA (Indio HS)

2005: Lua emerged from 2005 fall camp as the starting middle linebacker and did a commendable job there as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 11 games (he missed the California game with a sprained left knee suffered against Stanford) and starting 10 times (he didn't start against Stanford after getting hurt on the opening kickoff), he had a team-high 60 tackles, including 0.5 sack for minus 1 yard, plus 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble, 1 interception which he returned 13 yards and 2 deflections. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

He had 3 tackles at Hawaii, a team-best 8 stops against Arkansas, another 8 at Oregon and 3 tackles with an interception (to set up a USC field goal) at Arizona State. He then had a team-best 10 tackles against Arizona, another 10 tackles and a deflection at Notre Dame, 7 stops at Washington and 3 tackles and a fumble recovery (to set up a USC TD) against Washington State. He returned from his knee injury to post 6 tackles with a forced fumble against Fresno State. He had 2 tackles and a deflection against UCLA.

2004: Lua was a backup middle linebacker and key special teams player as a sophomore in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 13 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He had 2 stops against Virginia Tech and Oregon State. He missed some of 2004 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury.

2003: Lua hoped to push for the starting middle linebacker job as a sophomore in 2003. But he missed 2003 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury suffered late in 2002. He then played briefly against BYU but reinjured the knee, forcing him out for the rest of the 2003 season (he had mid-season surgery). He was able to redshirt because of the early injury.

2002: Lua served as an often-used backup middle linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 11 games (all but Arizona State), he made 13 tackles, including a 14-yard sack, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble. He had 2 tackles against Oregon State, Washington State and UCLA. His sack was at Colorado (which caused a fumble that USC recovered to set up a TD) and his fumble recovery was at Kansas State. He tore ligaments in his right knee during bowl practice, had surgery and was sidelined.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2001 Prep Star All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest Defensive MVP, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, All-CIF Division VIII first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southern California first team, Los Angeles Times All-Desert/Mountain first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County first team and All-Desert Valley League Defensive MVP laurels as a senior linebacker at Indio (Calif.) High. Despite missing 3 games with an injury in 2001, he made 148 tackles (88 solo) with 3 sacks while averaging 13 stops a game, plus had 3 interceptions (one returned for a TD), 4 fumble recoveries, 6 forced fumbles and scored twice on blocked punts.

He also was an outfielder on Indio's baseball team, hitting .485 with 11 home runs in 2001 to earn All-League honors for the second consecutive season and then .456 with 28 RBI in 2002.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. His sports idol is ex-USC All-American and NFL star linebacker Junior Seau.

(71) TAITUSI LUTUI
Offensive Guard-Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 365, Sr./Sr., Mesa, AZ
(Mesa HS/Snow JC)

2005: Lutui, who started at right offensive tackle in 2004, was moved to left guard in 2005 fall camp and not only ended up starting there all season as a senior, but he had an honors-filled season. He was named a 2005 Football Coaches, Football Writers, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBS Sportsline.com and Rivals.com All-American first teamer and AP, Walter Camp and Collegefootballnews.com All-American second teamer. He also made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. He won USC's Offensive Lineman of the Year, Co-Most Inspirational Player and Co-Lifter Awards.

2004: Lutui, who came to USC in the fall of 2005 as a heralded junior college transfer, started all season at right offensive tackle as a junior in 2004 and did a fine job.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was named to the 2003 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, National Junior College Athletic Association All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100 and All-Western States Football League first team as a sophomore offensive lineman at Snow Junior College in Ephraim (Utah). Snow went 9-1 and tied for fourth in the final NJCAA poll.

He spent his 2002 freshman season at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College.

He originally signed with Utah in 2002, but did not qualify for admission.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a senior two-way lineman at Mesa (Ariz.) High in 2001, he was a Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-State, All-Region and All-Conference selection.

As a junior in 2000, he made All-State, All-Region and All-Conference.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. He was married in July of 2004 and his wife's name is Pua. Their son, Inoke Liuaki Moeltau ("Return a champion"), was born on Jan. 5, 2005, the day after USC's win in the 2005 Orange Bowl. His brother, Sam, was an assistant football coach at Southern Utah, where he also started on the line in 1995 and 1996. He is related to current BYU players T.J. Sitake and David Tafuna and former Cougar Ofa Moehetau. His nickname is "Deuce." He was born in Ha'api, Tonga.

(43) KALUKA MAIAVA
Linebacker, 6-0, 220, Fr./Fr., Wailuku, HI (Baldwin HS)

2005: Maiava served as a backup outside linebacker and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games (he even started against Stanford), he had 19 tackles and 1 interception that he returned 10 yards. He had 4 tackles versus Stanford and UCLA, 3 against Arkansas (with the interception to set up a USC touchdown) and 2 against Oregon, Washington and Fresno State. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year and Service Team Defensive Player of the Year Awards.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2004 honors were Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Gatorade Hawaii Player of the Year, Honolulu Adver- tiser All-State first team, All-Maui Interscholastic League Defensive Player of the Year and All-League as a senior linebacker at Baldwin High in Wailuku (Hi.). He had 147 tackles, 39 tackles for loss, 8 sacks, 8 forced fumbles and 5 blocked kicks in 2004, as well as a punt return for a TD.

As a junior in 2003, he was a Honolulu Advertiser All-State pick as he posted 157 tackles, 22 tackles for loss and 8 sacks.

He also participated in soccer and boxing at Baldwin.

PERSONAL: His grandfather is ex-pro wrestler Neff Maiava and his uncle is pro wrestler "The Rock" (Dwayne Johnson, who played football at Miami).

(14) TOM MALONE

Punter, 6-0, 205, Sr./Sr., Lake Elsinore, CA (Temescal Canyon HS)

CAREER: Malone's 44.1 career punting average (on 183 punts) equals the USC record (44.1 set by Des Koch in 1951-53) and is just shy of the all-time Pac-10 mark (44.6, by UCLA's Kirk Wilson in the mid-1950s). Fifty-six of his 183 career punts have traveled at least 50 yards and 95 have pinned opponents within the 20-yard line.

2005: The strong-legged Malone, a record-setting All-American, was USC's punter for his fourth season as a senior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 11 games (all but Hawaii), he averaged 41.7 yards on 30 punts. Eleven of his punts in 2005 kept foes within the 20-yard line and 5 traveled 50 yards. He was bothered all season by a sore hip, which caused him to miss the Hawaii opener. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right knee prior to 2005 spring practice. He was named to the prestigious 2005 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team for the second consecutive year. He decided to return to Troy in 2005 after flirting with an early departure to the NFL.

After missing the Hawaii opener, he had a 31-yard punt against Arkansas, then averaged 41.5 yards on his 2 punts at Oregon (1 pinned the Ducks within the 20). He averaged 44.7 yards on his 7 punts (with 60- and 59-yarders) at Arizona State and had 4 pin the Sun Devils within the 20. He averaged 43.5 yards on his 2 punts against Arizona (with 1 pinning the Wildcats within the 20). He averaged 45.8 yards on 6 punts at Notre Dame, with 62- and 51-yarders (1 of his punts pinned the Irish within the 20). He had a 42-yard punt at Washington, then averaged 39.5 yards on 2 punts against Washington State and his 48-yard punt kept Stanford within the 20. He averaged 35.5 yards on his 4 punts at California (1 kept the Bears within the 20). He averaged 38.0 on his 4 punts versus Fresno State (2 pinned the Bulldogs within the 20 and 1 was a 50-plus yarder). USC did not punt against UCLA.

2004: Malone was in his third season as USC's punter as a junior in 2004. He has proven to be a weapon whenever he boots the ball. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he averaged 43.8 yards on 49 punts. He ranked ninth nationally in punting (43.8, first in Pac-10). A total of 30 of his 49 punts in 2004 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and 13 traveled at least 50 yards (with a pair of 62-yarders). He was a semifinalist for the 2004 Ray Guy Award. He was named a 2004 SI.com All-American honorable mention. He made the 2004 All-Pac-10 first team (for the second consecutive year) and the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team. He was named to the 2004 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team.

He averaged 42.8 yards on his 5 punts versus Virginia Tech (1 traveled 53 yards and 2 pinned the Hokies within the 20). He averaged 43.2 yards on his 4 punts against Colorado State (with 2 keeping CSU within the 20). He averaged 44.0 yards on 4 punts at BYU (all pinned the Cougars within the 20). He averaged 40.3 yards on his 3 punts at Stanford and 57.0 yards on his 2 punts (with a 62-yarder) against California. He averaged 48.7 yards on his 3 punts against Arizona State (with a 62-yarder for the second consecutive game), then 48.3 yards on his 3 punts against Washington (all of them kept UW within the 20), with a pair of 50-yarders. He averaged 37.3 yards on his 6 punts at Washington State (3 pinned WSU within the 20). He averaged 43.1 yards on 7 punts at Oregon State (5 pinned OSU within the 20), then 44.5 yards on his 2 punts versus Arizona. He averaged 43.0 yards on 2 punts against Notre Dame, with 1 stopping within the 20 (he had another punt partially blocked). At UCLA, he averaged 45.0 yards on his 4 punts (with a 59-yarder), but had a punt blocked and another returned for a TD. He averaged 43.5 yards on his 4 punts against Oklahoma (all kept OU pinned within the 20) to be named to CBS Sportline.com's All-Bowl Team.

2003: Malone, in his second season as USC's punter, proved to be the nation's top punter as just a sophomore. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he averaged 49.0 yards on his 42 punts. Some 24 of his 42 punts went at least 50 yards and 28 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. He was 1 of 10 semifinalists for the 2003 Ray Guy Award and made the 2003 ESPN.com, SI.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American first teams (USC's first-ever All-American first team punter), as well as the AP All-American second team. He was named to the 2003 All-Pac-10 first team, as well as the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 and Collegefootballnews.com All-Pac-10 first teams. His 49.0 punting average broke the USC season record by 3.4 yards (and was close to the Pac-10 season record of 49.3 set by UCLA's Kirk Wilson in 1956). He led the nation in punting for 5 consecutive weeks in the midseason and would have won the national punting title but, because of the efficiency of USC's offense, he was 5 punts shy of having the NCAA-required minimum 3.6 punts per game to be listed. In fact, his 49.0 average was 1.0 yards above the national leader. He also did a flawless job as the holder on all placekicks.

At Auburn, he boomed 7 punts for a 45.1 average (including 5 within the 20-yard line and 3 that went 50-plus yards, with a 70-yarder and then nailing his last one out of bounds at the Auburn 2). He then rocketed 5 of his 6 punts more than 50 yards (including a 59-yarder) against BYU for a 52.0 average and 5 of his boots pinned the Cougars within the 20-yard line (he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week). He averaged 53.7 yards on 3 punts (with a 69-yarder) against Hawaii. At California, Malone averaged 50.5 on his 4 punts (2 pinned the Bears within the 20) but had a punt blocked. He averaged 45.2 yards on his 5 punts at Arizona State (1 pinned ASU within the 20) and 50.7 yards on his 3 punts against Stanford (2 pinned the Cardinal within the 20). His only punt at Notre Dame was partially blocked. His only punt at Washington traveled 54 yards. He averaged 51.0 yards on his 3 punts against Washington State. His only punt at Arizona went 47 yards. He averaged 45.0 yards on 3 punts (with a 64-yarder) against UCLA, with 2 pinning the Bruins within the 20. Against Oregon State, he averaged 54.0 yards on 3 punts (all pinned OSU within the 20). All 3 of his punts in the Rose Bowl against Michigan pinned the Wolverines within the 20 (he averaged 46.7 yards, with a 50-yarder).

2002: Malone, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2002, did a nice job as USC's punter as a freshman in 2002. He was USC's first true freshman punter since John Stonehouse in 1992. Overall in 2002 while appearing in all 13 games, he averaged 42.1 yards on his 62 punts. Some 28 of his 62 punts kept foes within the 20-yard line and 12 traveled at least 50 yards (including a 72-yarder). He made 2002 The Sporting News Freshman All-American second team, Rivals.com Freshman All-American honorable mention, All-Pac-10 honorable mention, Rivals All-Pac-10 honorable mention and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team. He also was the holder on all placekicks.

Against Auburn, he averaged 42.0 yards on 3 punts in his Trojan debut (including a 50-yarder). He averaged 51.2 yards on his 4 punts at Colorado (including a 60-yarder), but had a punt blocked. He averaged 36.9 yards on 11 punts at Kansas State (4 pinned the Wildcats within the 20 and 2 traveled 50-plus yards). He averaged 39.8 yards on his 6 punts against Oregon State (with 3 keeping OSU within the 20). At Washington State, Malone averaged 43.7 yards on 6 punts (with 3 pinning the Cougars within the 20). He averaged 49.0 yards (with a 50-yarder) on his 2 punts against California. Against Washington, he averaged 45.2 yards on his 5 punts (with 54- and 52-yarders) and twice pinned the Huskies within the 20-yard line. He averaged 49.0 yards on his 2 punts at Oregon (with a 52-yarder), with 1 pinning the Ducks within the 20, then averaged 41.8 yards on his 5 punts at Stanford (with a 54-yarder), with 1 pinning the Cardinal within the 20. He averaged 42.1 yards on his 7 punts against Arizona State, including a 72-yarder (USC's longest since John Stonehouse nailed a 76-yarder versus Washington State in 1994), and pinned the Sun Devils 4 times within the 20. At UCLA, he averaged 40.7 yards on his 6 punts (with a 53-yarder) and 4 pinned the Bruins within the 20. He averaged 42.0 yards on 3 punts against Notre Dame (1 kept the Irish within the 20), but had 1 blocked. He averaged 37.5 yards on his 2 punts against Iowa in the Orange Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 2001 Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division V first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southern California first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and Riverside Press Enterprise All-Riverside County first team as a senior punter and placekicker at Temescal Canyon High in Lake Elsinore (Calif.). He averaged 43.4 yards per punt in 2001 and 9 of his 38 punts pinned opponents inside the 10-yard line. He also kicked 46- and 47-yard field goals in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he made the All-CIF Division V first team while averaging 41.5 yards per punt despite missing the season's first 5 games with a broken left foot. Besides his punting, placekicking and kickoff chores, he was a wide receiver.

He also played basketball and was on the track team (running the 200 meters in a school-record 22.37).

Also a fine student, he was valedictorian at Temescal Canyon.

PERSONAL: He's a political science major at USC. His personal punting coach was former Arizona State 1997 All-Pac-10 first team punter Marcus Williams. He was the subject of the malone4heisman.com website created by some USC fans in 2004.

(70) ALATINI MALU
Offensive Guard, 6-4, 340, So./Jr., Torrance, CA
(Torrance HS/Long Beach CC)

2005: Malu was a backup offensive guard as a sophomore in 2005 (he was also available at tackle). He appeared briefly in 9 games (all but Oregon, Arizona State and Notre Dame) on the line and on special teams.

2004: Malu, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2004 after transferring from a junior college, redshirted as a sophomore offensive guard in 2004. He was slowed early in the season after having an appendectomy in 2004 fall practice, then he broke a finger prior to the California game.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made the 2003 All-Mission Conference first team as a freshman offensive lineman at Long Beach (Calif.) City College. He originally signed with Cal State Northridge and was set to play there following his return from a 2-year Mormon mission in Australia, but the Matador program disbanded while he was serving his mission, so he enrolled at Long Beach City.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Torrance (Calif.) High, where as a senior offensive lineman in 1998 he did not allow a sack and was a Super Prep All-Farwest, All-CIF Division X, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team and All-Ocean League first team honoree.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His nickname is "Tiny."

(51) FRED MATUA
Offensive Guard, 6-2, 305, Jr./Sr., Wilmington, CA (Banning HS)

2005: Matua, who brings a defensive lineman's mentality to the offensive line, stared for his third season at right offensive guard as a junior in 2005 and provided stability to the line. He also saw some action at center. He was a 2005 Rivals.com All-American second team. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 second team.

2004: Matua started for his second season at right offensive guard as a sophomore in 2004 and performed solidly. He recovered a fumble following an interception at UCLA. He played most of the season with a tender left ankle and back, both of which he sprained in fall practice. He made the 2004 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American first team.

2003: Matua started the first 6 games of 2003 at right offensive guard as a redshirt freshman, then backed up John Drake for the next 5 contests (seeing action in each game) before re-entering the starting lineup against Oregon State and Michigan in the Rose Bowl when Drake suffered a season-ending injury against UCLA. He made the 2003 Collegefootballnews.com Freshman All-American second team and The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team.

2002: Matua was set to start the opener against Auburn at offensive guard (he also was available at center) as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. But he sprained his right knee in 2002 fall drills and that kept him out of the lineup against Auburn (he did see backup action in that contest). He then aggravated the injury prior to the Colorado game and missed that contest, returned to see brief action at Kansas State, then had arthroscopic surgery on the knee prior to the Oregon State game and was sidelined the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt. After the season he had hernia surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 honorable mention and Orange County Register Fab 15 second team as a senior two-way lineman at Banning High in Wilmington (Calif.). He missed all but 3 games in 2001 with a broken leg.

As a junior in 2000, he was named to the All-L.A. City second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team and All-Marine League first team while getting 75 tackles, including 15 sacks, 5 forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and an interception. Banning won the 2000 L.A. City title.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His uncle is former 3-year (1990-92) letterwinning USC offensive guard Titus Tuiasosopo, while another uncle, Navy Tuiasosopo, played offensive line at Utah State and later with the Los Angeles Rams, another uncle, Mike Tuiasosopo, is the defensive line coach at Arizona (he was a defensive tackle at Pacific Lutheran from 1985 to 1988), and a distant cousin, Manu Tuiasosopo, was a 3-time All-Conference defensive lineman at UCLA (1976-78) who then played with the Seattle Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers.

(58) REY MAUALUGA
Linebacker, 6-3, 250, Fr./Fr., Eureka, CA (Eureka HS)

2005: Maualuga was an effective and often-used backup middle linebacker and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 11 games (all but Hawaii), he had 36 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 23 yards (with an 8-yard sack), plus he had 2 forced fumbles, 2 deflections and an interception that he returned 9 yards. He had a team-best 9 tackles (1 for a loss), 2 forced fumbles (both recovered by USC to set up touchdowns) and 2 deflections against UCLA, 6 tackles (with the sack) and the interception at California, another 6 stops against Washington State, 5 tackles versus Stanford, 3 stops (2 for losses) against Arkansas and another 3 versus Fresno State. He made the 2005 Scout.com Freshman All-American first team. He won USC's John McKay Award (most competitive spirit).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2004 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team and Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team honors as a senior linebacker at Eureka (Calif.) High. He had 96 tackles, 37 tackles for loss, 4 interceptions (2 for TDs), 2 fumble recoveries and 1 kickoff return for a touchdown in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he was a Student Sports Junior All-American and Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team pick while posting 146 tackles, 43 tackles for loss, 11 sacks and 1 interception. Eureka went 20-2-1 during his junior and senior seasons.

He spent his 2001 freshman year at St. Bonaventure High in Ventura (Calif.). Current Trojan Whitney Lewis also prepped at St. Bonaventure.

PERSONAL: He was born in Oklahoma.

(9) MOZIQUE McCURTIS
Cornerback, 6-1, 225, So./So., San Diego, CA (St. Augustine HS/Grossmont JC)

2005: McCurtis, a sophomore cornerback who transferred to USC in the fall of 2005 from a junior college, redshirted in 2005. He was sidelined all season with a strained abdominal muscle (sports hernia).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: McCurtis emerged as a starting safety by the middle of his 2004 freshman season at Grossmont Junior College in El Cajon (Calif.). He had 30 tackles, 10 deflections and 2 interceptions as Grossmont went 11-1.

He attended Grossmont in 2003, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: He missed his junior and senior seasons (2001 and 2002) at St. Augustine High in San Diego (Calif.) with torn knee ligaments.

PERSONAL: His nickname is Zeke.

(16) MICHAEL McDONALD
Quarterback, 6-2, 185, So./Jr., Newport Beach, CA (Newport Harbor HS)

2005: McDonald, a one-time walk-on, earned a scholarship in the fall of 2005 and was USC's No. 3 quarterback as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing briefly in 4 games (Arkansas, Washington State, Stanford and UCLA), he was 1-of-1 (1.000%) for 4 yards and 1 TD. He saw his first career action late in the Arkansas game and threw a 4-yard TD on his first career pass (his only toss of the contest). He played the last 3 snaps versus Washington State and took the final snap of the Stanford and UCLA games (kneel downs).

2004: McDonald did not see any action as a redshirt freshman reserve quarterback in 2004.

2003: McDonald redshirted as a first-year freshman quarterback in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Newport Harbor High in Newport Beach (Calif.), where he starred in football and volleyball.

PERSONAL: His father, Paul, was a 3-year (1977-79) letterman quarterback at USC who helped the Trojans to the 1978 national championship and earned All-American and Academic All-American honors in 1979 (he then played in the NFL with the Browns and Cowboys from 1980 to 1987 and now serves as the radio analyst on USC football broadcasts).

(36) JOSH PINKARD
Cornerback-Safety, 6-1, 200, So./So., Oxnard, CA (Hueneme HS)

2005: Pinkard began his 2005 sophomore season as an often-used backup safety, available at both the free and strong safety spots. He played often in extra defensive back situations and even started the Arkansas game at strong safety. But he was moved to cornerback by mid-season and started there in USC's last 5 games (Washington State, Stanford, California, Fresno State and UCLA). Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 56 tackles, including 1.5 for losses of 8 yards (with 0.5 sack for minus 4 yards), plus a team-best 6 deflections, 2 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery.

He had a team-high 10 tackles (1 for a loss) against Washington State in his first start at cornerback. He had 7 tackles and 4 deflections against Fresno State, 6 stops and an interception (to set up a USC TD) versus Arkansas (while starting at safety), 5 tackles at Hawaii (with a forced fumble) and Arizona State, and 4 stops at Notre Dame (with a forced fumble) and Washington (in his first extended action at cornerback). His other interception came at Oregon (to set up a USC touchdown). He returned a fumbled interception 21 yards to set up a USC TD versus Stanford. He recovered a fumble against UCLA (to set up a USC touchdown).

2004: Pinkard was a reserve safety and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 9 tackles (including 2 against both Arizona State and Oklahoma), recovered a fumble (against Oklahoma, setting up a USC TD) and fielded a short kickoff (against California, returning it for 0 yards).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2003 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV and Los Angeles Times All-Ventura/North Coast pick as a senior defensive back and wide receiver at Hueneme High in Oxnard (Calif.). He had 123 tackles, 2 sacks and 4 interceptions on defense and 22 receptions for 200-plus yards with 5 TDs on offense.

As a junior in 2002, he had 90 tackles and 6 interceptions.

(56) RYAN POWDRELL

Linebacker, 6-0, 250, Jr./Sr., Rancho Santa Margarita, CA (Mission Viejo HS/Saddleback CC)

2005: Powdrell was a reserve linebacker (available in the middle or outside) and played on special teams as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 10 games (all but Hawaii and Arkansas), he made 10 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 5 yards, and also had a deflection. He had to sit out USC's first 2 games of 2005, per the NCAA, in order to get a redshirt year out of 2004 (when he played just briefly in the 2004 opener). He had 5 tackles against Stanford and 3 at Washington.

2004: Powdrell, a junior reserve linebacker who transferred to USC in the fall of 2004 from a junior college, saw brief action in the 2004 opener against Virginia Tech on special teams (he did not make a tackle). But he did not see any further action in 2004 and, after petitioning the NCAA, was allowed to redshirt if he sat out the first 2 games of 2005.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was named a 2003 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100, JC Athletic Bureau All-Region IV and All-Mission Conference National Division first team honoree as a sophomore linebacker and short-yardage fullback at Saddleback Community College in Mission Viejo (Calif.). He recorded 83 tackles, 3 interceptions and 5 forced fumbles in 2003.

As a freshman in 2002, he had 107 tackles and 4 interceptions. Current Trojan Mike Davis also attended Saddleback.

He originally signed with Fresno State, but did not qualify for admission.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High, where as a senior linebacker and fullback in 2001 he was a Super Prep All-Farwest, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II Defensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-League MVP selection. He had 98 tackles, 5 sacks, 2 interceptions, 9 deflections and 1 fumble recovery on defense and ran for 494 yards and 8 TDs on offense in 2001. Mission Viejo was 14-0 and won the CIF Division II title in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he posted 87 tackles, 4 sacks and 1 interception. Current Trojans Collin Ashton, Drew Radovich and Mark Sanchez also prepped at Mission Viejo.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(66) CHILO RACHAL

Offensive Guard, 6-5, 300, Fr./So., Compton, CA (Dominguez HS)

2005: Rachal appeared in all 12 games as he served as a backup offensive guard and on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

2004: Rachal redshirted as a freshman offensive guard and tackle in 2004, his first year at USC. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage from his left knee prior to the Colorado State game, sidelining him for 3 contests (Colorado State, BYU and Stanford).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2003 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast Lineman of the Year, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team and All-Conference selection as a senior offensive lineman at Dominguez High in Compton (Calif.). He only played in 4 games in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass squad. Current Trojans LaJuan Ramsey and Justin Wyatt also prepped at Dominguez.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(60) DREW RADOVICH

Offensive Guard, 6-5, 300, So./Jr., Mission Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2005: Radovich appeared briefly in USC's first 3 games as a reserve offensive guard and on special teams as a sophomore in 2005. But he then suffered a hip strain that required surgery, which sidelined him for the rest of the season and allowed him to redshirt. He was switched from offensive tackle to guard in 2005 spring practice.

2004: Radovich was a backup at offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2004 (he also was available at offensive guard). He also played on special teams. He saw action in 10 games (all but Virginia Tech, Stanford and UCLA) in 2004. He suffered a sprained hip against Notre Dame, sidelining him for the UCLA contest.

2003: Radovich redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle and guard in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2002 honors included Parade All-American first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American, Riddell Footwear All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Lineman MVP, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County first team as an offensive and defensive lineman at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division II first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County second team. Mission Viejo went 14-0 and won the CIF Division II championship in both 2001 and 2002. Current Trojans Collin Ashton, Ryan Powdrell and Mark Sanchez also prepped at Mission Viejo. His head coach at Mission Viejo was Bob Johnson, father of ex-USC and current NFL quarterback Rob Johnson.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Mark, was a linebacker at Arizona State in 1974-75-76.

(98) LAJUAN RAMSEY

Defensive Tackle, 6-3, 290, Sr./Sr., Compton, CA (Dominguez HS)

2005: Ramsey started at defensive tackle as a senior in 2005 and did a commendable job. Overall in 2005 while starting 10 games (he missed the Arizona State and Arizona games after spraining his ankle at Oregon), he made 35 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 13 yards (with a 7-yard sack). He had 11 tackles at Notre Dame in his first action following the ankle sprain. He added 4 stops versus Hawaii, Washington and Fresno State and 3 tackles against Arkansas and California. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

2004: Ramsey was a backup defensive tackle and end as a junior in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 9 games (all but Virginia Tech, BYU, Oregon State and UCLA), he made 2 tackles (1 each against Washington and Arizona). He sat out the Virginia Tech opener while recovering from hernia surgery and missed the BYU contest with a groin strain. He missed some of 2004 spring practice while recovering from an abdominal strain.

2003: Ramsey was a backup defensive tackle behind Mike Patterson as a sophomore in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 10 games (all but Stanford, Washington State and Arizona), he had 6 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 15 yards (with 1.5 sacks for 10 yards), plus a forced fumble (at Auburn, which USC recovered and led to a TD). He suffered a shoulder nerve injury prior to the Washington State game and missed USC's next 2 games. He had 2 tackles against both Auburn and BYU.

2002: Ramsey was a backup defensive tackle (he also was available to play end) as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while seeing action in 7 games (Colorado, Washington, Oregon, Stanford, Arizona State and UCLA), he made 1 tackle and had a fumble recovery. He returned the fumble 19 yards at Colorado to set up a USC TD.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2001 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division II first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team honors as a senior two-way lineman at Dominguez High in Compton (Calif.). Currents Trojan Justin Wyatt and Chilo Rachal also prepped at Dominguez.

He attended Venice (Calif.) High as a freshman.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC.

(22) DESMOND REED

Tailback, 5-9, 180, So./Jr., San Gabriel, CA (Temple City HS)

2005: The exciting, quick, all-purpose Reed, whose ability is reminiscent of teammate Reggie Bush, served as a backup tailback as a sophomore in 2005, played on special teams and also returned kickoffs for his second season. But he tore ligaments in his right knee at Notre Dame and had surgery, sidelining him the rest of the 2005 season. Overall in 2005 while appearing in USC's first 6 games, he ran for 137 yards on 19 carries (7.2 avg.) with 1 TD, returned 5 kickoffs for 194 yards (38.8 avg.) and made 5 tackles, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery. He averaged 13.8 yards on his 24 touches in 2005 (he had 331 all-purpose yards).

He ran for 26 yards on 5 tries, including a 29-yard scoring cutback run, at Hawaii and also starred on special teams as he returned a fumbled Warrior kickoff 15 yards for a score, made a tackle on another kickoff and returned a kickoff 33 yards. He then rushed for 50 yards on 3 carries (including a 43-yarder) and returned 2 kickoffs for 101 yards (51 and 50 yards) against Arkansas. He ran for 32 yards on 4 carries, returned a kickoff 29 yards and had a tackle at Oregon, then had a 2-yard run, made a tackle and forced a fumble at Arizona State. He ran for 27 yards on 6 carries against Arizona (he also made a tackle) and returned a kickoff for 31 yards and had a tackle at Notre Dame.

2004: Reed, who spent 2003 working in the secondary and at wide receiver, was switched to tailback prior to 2004 spring practice and was a reserve there as a redshirt freshman in 2004. He also played on special teams. Some say he is a younger version of USC tailback Reggie Bush. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 173 yards on 31 carries (5.6 avg.) with a TD, returned 7 kickoffs for 150 yards (21.4 avg.), had a 16-yard punt return, caught 3 passes for 0 yards, completed a 55-yard pass and made 5 tackles (including 1 for a 12-yard loss). He made the 2004 All-Pac-10 second team (as a special teams player). He was USC's 2004 Special Teams Player of the Year.

He had 56 yards on 8 carries (the first of his career) against Colorado State. At BYU, he had 21 yards on 7 carries. He returned a kickoff 15 yards against California, plus he tackled the punter after a bad snap and forced a fumble. He had a 21-yard kickoff return, a carry for no yards and a tackle against Arizona State. He ran for a 28-yard TD (the first of his career) against Washington (he also caught a 2-yard pass and had a tackle), then ran for 27 yards on 9 tries and also had a 16-yard punt return and a 7-yard kickoff return at Washington State. He had a 32-yard kickoff return at Oregon State. Against Arizona, he rushed for 37 yards on 2 carries, caught a 1-yard pass, completed a 55-yard pass off a reverse and made a tackle. He returned 2 kickoffs for 26 yards, plus had a 2-yard run and a tackle, versus Notre Dame, then returned a kickoff 49 yards at UCLA. He ran for 2 yards on 2 carries against Oklahoma.

2003: Reed redshirted as a freshman in 2003, his first year at USC. He began the season playing safety and cornerback, but was moved to wide receiver in midseason.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2002 Super Prep All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Defensive Back MVP, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium School first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division X Defensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley MVP, Pasadena Star News Player of the Year choice as a senior at Temple City (Calif.) High. He had 80 tackles and 9 interceptions as a defensive back in 2002, while on offense as a running back and wide receiver he ran for 1,200 yards and caught 46 passes for 800 yards (17.4 avg.). He scored 29 touchdowns in 2002, including a California state record 8 while returning kicks (4 on kickoffs, 4 on punts). He set 6 school records in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division X first team (as a wide receiver) and Pasadena Star News Player of the Year. He had 62 tackles, 9 interceptions (3 for TDs) and 3 forced fumbles in 2001, and returned 3 punts and a kickoff for touchdowns.

As a sophomore in 2000, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team, All-CIF Division X (as a wide receiver) and All-Area (as a cornerback). He had 9 interceptions in 2000.

In his career, he had 31 interceptions. He was a 4-year starter.

He also played basketball and baseball at Temple City. His head coach in football at Temple City was ex-USC fullback Mike Mooney (1990-92).

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

	Linebacker, 6-3, 220, So./So., Lake Mary, FL (Lake Mary HS)

2005: Rivers started at weakside linebacker job as a sophomore in 2005 and proved effective. Overall in 2005 while starting 10 games (he missed the Stanford game with a hamstring strain suffered prior to the Washington game and then the UCLA game after re-training his hamstring against Fresno State), he had 47 tackles (third on USC), including 3 for losses of 17 yards (with an 11-yard sack), recovered a team-best 2 fumble recoveries and returned an interception 14 yards. He saw limited action at Washington because of the hamstring strain, then re-trained it early in the Fresno State contest and was sidelined. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

He had 3 tackles at Hawaii, 7 against Arkansas, 8 (with 2 for losses) at Oregon and 6 at Arizona State. He added a stop against Arizona, then a game-best 12 tackles (with a sack), plus an interception (to set up a USC TD) and fumble recovery, at Notre Dame. He made 1 tackle at Washington before sitting out with the sore hamstring and another tackle versus Washington State in restricted play before sitting out the Stanford contest. He returned to get 6 tackles with a fumble recovery at California, then had 2 tackles in limited action versus Fresno State.

2004: Rivers saw significant playing time as a backup weakside linebacker behind Matt Grootegoed, as a defensive end in pass rushing situations and on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 25 tackles, including 3 for losses of 23 yards (with 2.5 sacks for 22 yards), plus had a deflection and returned an interception 22 yards. He made the 2004 The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team. He had 5 tackles against Colorado State, 4 versus Washington (with the interception) and Oklahoma and 3 against Stanford and Arizona.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2003 honors included USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, EA Sports All-American, Insiders.com All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Dixie, Prep Star All-Southeast, FOX Sports Net All-South, Gatorade Florida Player of the Year and Florida Class 6A Mr. Football runnerup as a senior linebacker at Lake Mary (Fla.) High. He had 111 tackles, 14 tackles for loss, 2 sacks and 2 interceptions in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he was a Student Sports Junior All-American and Florida Class 5A second team honoree as he posted 160 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 4 sacks and 2 interceptions.

He made All-State as a sophomore in 2001 when he had 100-plus tackles.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He was born in Riverside (Calif.) and lived in nearby San Bernardino for 8 years during his youth.

(90) FROSTEE RUCKER
Defensive End, 6-3, 260, Sr./Sr., Tustin, CA
(Tustin HS/Colorado State)

CAREER: Rucker has 23.5 tackles for loss and 10.5 sacks in his career. He has 29 career starts.

2005: Rucker, the veteran on USC's defensive front, started for his second season at defensive end as a senior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while starting all 12 games, he had 51 tackles, including 12 for losses of 56 yards (with 6.5 sacks for minus 45 yards), plus 1 interception that he returned 2 yards, 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He won USC's Co-Most Inspirational Player Award. He was invited to play in the 2006 East-West Shrine Game. He had toe surgery prior to 2005 spring practice and sat out spring drills.

He had 4 tackles (with 1 for a loss) at Hawaii, 5 versus Arkansas (with 2.5 sacks) and 7 at Oregon (with 3 for losses, including a sack). He had a team-high 7 tackles at Arizona State (including 2.5 for losses, with 1.5 sacks), then 3 stops against Arizona and 9 at Notre Dame (0.5 for a loss). He had 7 tackles, including 2 for losses (with 1.5 sacks), and a fumble recovery to set up a USC TD at Washington. He had a team-high 7 tackles (1.5 for loss), with an interception (to set up a USC touchdown), forced fumble and deflection, against Stanford. He added a tackle each versus California and Fresno State, then had a sack against UCLA.

2004: Rucker started all but 1 game (Arizona) at defensive end as a junior in 2003 and was very productive. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 29 tackles, including 7.5 for losses of 32 yards (with 2.5 sacks for 15 yards), plus 2 deflections and 1 fumble recovery. He had 6 tackles against California and 3 versus Washington (including 2 for losses, plus he had a forced fumble and a fumble recovery that set up a field goal) and Notre Dame. He missed some of 2004 spring practice because of a sprained toe on his left foot that required surgery (that injury bothered him throughout the 2004 season).

2003: After sitting out the 2002 season following his transfer, Rucker began his 2003 sophomore year as a backup defensive end behind Omar Nazel as a sophomore in 2003, but emerged as a starter for 5 late games (Washington, Arizona, UCLA, Oregon State and Michigan) when Nazel was injured. He was switched to defensive end from linebacker in 2003 spring drills. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 26 tackles, including 4 for losses of 21 yards (with 1.5 sacks for 9 yards), plus an interception (which he returned 2 yards), a deflection, a forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries. He had 8 tackles at Washington and 6 against BYU. His interception was against Hawaii (setting up a USC TD), while his fumble recoveries were versus Notre Dame and Washington State (to set up a USC TD).

2002: Rucker transferred to USC from Colorado State in the fall of 2002 as a redshirt freshman linebacker and had to sit out the 2002 season because of NCAA transfer rules.

COLORADO STATE: He redshirted as a first-year freshman outside linebacker at Colorado State in 2001.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 2000 All-CIF Division VI first team (as a running back), Orange County Register All-Orange County second team (as a linebacker) and All-Golden West League MVP as a senior at Tustin (Calif.) High. Current Trojans Sam Baker and Chris Barrett also prepped at Tustin.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(6) MARK SANCHEZ
Quarterback, 6-4, 215, Fr./Fr., Mission Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2005: Sanchez redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2005, his first year at USC. He won USC's Service Team Offensive Player of the Year Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named 2004 Parade All-American Player of the Year, Super Prep All-American Player of the Year, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Or- ange County Register Fab 15 first team, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division II Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-Orange County and All-South Coast League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior quarterback at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. He completed 151-of-245 (61.6%) passes for 2,441 yards with 24 TDs and 4 interceptions in 2004 despite sitting out 8 halves because Mission Viejo was winning handily. Mission Viejo was the CIF Division II champion in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Division II, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League first team. He completed 161-of-211 passes (76.3%) for 2,460 yards with 29 TDs and 7 interceptions, plus he ran for 90 yards and caught a touchdown pass in 2003. In one game in 2003, he was 12-of-12 for 326 yards and 4 scores. Mission Viejo was 27-1 in his career.

He also played basketball and baseball at Mission Viejo. Current Trojans Collin Ashton, Billy Hart, Ryan Powdrell and Drew Radovich prepped at Mission Viejo. His coach at Mission Viejo was Bob Johnson, the father of former USC and NFL quarterback Rob Johnson.

He spent his freshman and sophomore years at Santa Margarita High in Rancho Santa Margarita (Calif.), where his first varsity pass as a 2002 sophomore went 55 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

PERSONAL: His brothers—Nick (Yale in 1992-93-94) and Brandon (DePauw in 1997)—played football in college.

(42) DALLAS SARTZ
Linebacker, 6-5, 240, Sr./Sr., Granite Bay, CA (Granite Bay HS)

2005: Sartz began his 2005 senior season starting for his third year at strongside linebacker. But he dislocated his left shoulder early in the Arkansas game and was sidelined the rest of the season, allowing him to redshirt. Overall in 2005 while starting USC's first 2 games, he had 8 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 6 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 5 yards). He had a game-best 7 tackles (including 2 sacks) at Hawaii and a tackle (0.5 for a loss) versus Arkansas.

2004: Sartz started all of his 2004 junior season at strongside outside linebacker and did an outstanding job. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 48 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 11 yards (with 1.5 sacks for 5 yards), plus 6 deflections and an 8-yard interception. He made 2004 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He had 10 tackles against California, 7 versus Arizona State, 5 at Washington State and Oregon State, 4 against Stanford and Notre Dame and 3 against Virginia Tech and Oklahoma. His interception against Colorado State set up a TD.

2003: Sartz was one of USC's most pleasant surprises in 2003. After beginning his 2003 sophomore season as a backup strongside linebacker and safety (he saw action at both spots), as well as a special teams player, he emerged as the starting strongside linebacker for the last 6 games for an injured Matt Grootegoed. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 60 tackles, including 6 for losses of 29 yards (with 2 sacks for 17 yards), plus had 4 deflections and a blocked punt. He had 10 tackles versus Oregon State (with a sack and a blocked punt), 9 tackles against UCLA (a game high) and Washington State, 7 against Stanford (a team best), Notre Dame and Michigan in the Rose Bowl (including 2 for losses, with a sack, plus a deflection), 6 at Washington and 3 against Hawaii (while playing safety).

2002: Sartz was a backup strongside linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 12 games (all but Arizona State), he had 8 tackles, including 1 for a 5-yard loss, plus a pass deflection and an interception (which he returned 22 yards against Oregon State). He had 3 tackles at Stanford. HIGH SCHOOL: His 2001 honors included Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and Sacramento Bee All-Sacramento first team as a senior defensive back and tight end at Granite Bay (Calif.) High. He had 103 tackles, including 4 for losses, 2 interceptions, 7 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries, 3 forced fumbles and 6 blocked kicks in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he made 81 tackles, including 4 sacks, plus 6 interceptions and 4 forced fumbles. He was also a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete.

He also was on Granite Bay's track (with bests of 11.1 in the 100 meters, 14.47 in the 110-meter high hurdles, 39.7 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles and 20-plus in the long jump, while also competing in the high jump, shot put and 400 meters) and basketball (earning All-League honors) teams.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. His father, Jeff, played safety at Oregon State. His grandfather, also named Dallas, was a Golden Gloves boxer at Washington State and a professional hydroplane racer.

(54) JEFF SCHWEIGER
Defensive End, 6-4, 260, So./So., San Jose, CA (Valley Christian HS)

2005: After missing USC's first 4 games of 2005 while recovering from a fractured right foot suffered in 2005 fall camp, Schweiger saw significant action as a backup defensive end as a sophomore. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 7 games (all but Hawaii, Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State and UCLA), he made 11 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 2 yards. He had 2 stops each against Arizona, Notre Dame, Stanford and California.

2004: Schweiger backed up Frostee Rucker at defensive end as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, he made 18 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 32 yards (with 2 sacks for 27 yards), plus 1 deflection and 1 forced fumble. He had 4 tackles against Colorado State (2.5 for losses of 21 yards, with a sack that caused a fumble, which USC recovered for a TD), and 3 stops against Virginia Tech (including an 11-yard sack on his second play as a Trojan) and Washington (with a deflection). He missed the California game after spraining his left knee at Stanford.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2003 USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Insiders.com All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest Defensive MVP, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, and Orange County Register Fab 15 first team as a senior defensive lineman and tight end at Valley Christian High in San Jose (Calif.). He had 140 tackles, 37 tackles for loss, 18 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 4 fumble recoveries (with a TD) and 15 deflections in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team and San Francisco Chronicle All-Metro first team as he posted 138 tackles, 23 tackles for loss and 13 sacks.

(2) STEVE SMITH Wide Receiver, 6-0, 195, Jr./Jr., Canoga Park, CA (Taft HS)

CAREER: Smith's 116 career receptions is 11th on USC's career list. He has 6 100-yard receiving games in his career.

2005: Smith, who has outstanding quickness and hands, started for his second season at wide receiver in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games and starting 7 times (Hawaii, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Washington, Washington State and UCLA), he had 57 receptions (second on USC) for 928 yards (16.3 avg.) with 5 TDs and he also had 2 carries for 11 yards (5.5 avg.). His 57 catches in 2005 is tied for 12th on USC's season list. He had 3 100-yard receiving games in 2005. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He was 1 of 15 semifinalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award.

He had 7 catches for a game-high 185 yards at Hawaii, with a 67-yard TD grab. He had 4 catches for a game-best 129 yards against Arkansas, his third consecutive 100-yard outing (extending back to 2004). He added 6 catches for 93 yards at Oregon, and 3 grabs for 33 yards (and an 8-yard run) at Arizona State. He had 7 receptions for a game-topping 135 yards against Arizona, then 4 catches for 90 yards at Notre Dame. He opened USC's scoring at Washington with an 8-yard TD grab on 5 catches for 25 yards. He had 15- and 24-yard TD grabs among his 3 receptions for 53 yards versus Washington State. He added 3 receptions for 79 yards against Stanford and 5 grabs for 36 yards at California. He had a game-best 7 catches for 42 yards (with a 6-yard TD) against Fresno State. He caught 3 passes for 28 yards and a 3-yard rush against UCLA.

2004: Smith started 7 games (the first 5 contests, then the UCLA and Oklahoma games) at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2004. He broke his left leg against California and missed the next 5 games. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 8 games, he had 42 receptions (third on USC) for 660 yards (15.7 avg.) with 6 TDs. He also lost 1 yard on a reverse and had a tackle in 2004. (95) TRAVIS TOFI
Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 255, Jr.*/Sr., Aoa, American Samoa (Fagaitua HS)

2005: Tofi was an often-used backup defensive tackle as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 16 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 7 yards (with 1.5 sacks for 4 yards), plus had a deflection and forced fumble. He had 3 tackles at Washington and 2 each against Arkansas, Stanford and California.

2004: Tofi was a reserve defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2004. He appeared in 5 games (Virginia Tech, BYU, Arizona State, Notre Dame and Oklahoma) in 2004, getting 2 tackles. He sprained his knee prior to the Colorado State game, forcing him out of that contest, and then re-sprained it at BYU, which sidelined him for the Stanford game. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage from his right knee prior to the Washington State game, forcing him to miss 3 games (Washington State, Oregon State and Arizona).

2003: Tofi was a backup nose tackle behind Mike Patterson as a redshirt freshman in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 6 games (Hawaii, Stanford, Washington, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State), he made 3 tackles (all versus Hawaii), including a sack for 21 yards (which was a safety against Hawaii), plus he had 2 deflections.

2002: Tofi redshirted as a freshman defensive end in 2002, his first year at USC. He was USC's Defensive Service Team Player of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2-time (2000-01) All-Star (winning Defensive Line MVP in 2001) as a senior defensive end at Fagaitua (American Samoa) High. He had 49 tackles and 9 sacks in 2001. He also won a Samoa International Sports Award in 2001, which recognizes the achievements of Samoan athletes.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His real first name is Tupula. His cousin, Suaese "Pooch" Taase, played football at Louisiana Tech.

(18) JOHN WALKER
Cornerback, 6-1, 200, Sr.*/Sr., North Hills, CA (Birmingham HS)

2005: Walker—who was moved back to cornerback prior to 2005 spring practice (after spending the last half of 2004 at wide receiver)—began his 2005 senior season as USC's nickel back and a key special teams player, but he emerged as a starter by the third game before getting spraining his left ankle at Washington, which sidelined him for 2 contests (Washington State and Stanford). He returned for USC's last 3 games as a backup, including seeing time as the nickel back. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 10 games (all but Washington State and Stanford) and starting 5 times (Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame and Washington), he had 30 tackles, 4 deflections and 2 interceptions that he returned 1 yard (0.5 avg.), plus 1 kickoff return for 40 yards (30.0 avg.). He missed most of 2005 spring drills after breaking his right hand.

He had 5 tackles and a deflection at Hawaii and 5 more stops against Arkansas. He made 4 tackles with a deflection at Oregon in his first start. He then added 3 tackles, 2 interceptions and a deflection at Arizona State, with the picks coming in the second half when the Sun Devils were threatening (the second interception was in the end zone late in the game). He 4 tackles against Arizona, then 7 stops at Notre Dame and 2 at Washington. He had a deflection and returned an on-side kick 40 yards (to set up a USC touchdown) versus UCLA.

2004: Walker, who began his 2004 junior season as a reserve cornerback, was moved to wide receiver by midseason and served as a reserve there. He also played on special teams. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he caught a 22-yard pass (against Washington, the first of his career) and made 3 tackles (1 each against Colorado State, California and Washington State).

2003: Walker was a reserve cornerback and played on some special teams as a sophomore in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 10 games (all but California, Arizona State and Washington), he had 3 tackles and a deflection (all against Stanford).

2002: Walker was a backup free safety (he also was available at cornerback) and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2002. Overall in 2002 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 2 tackles. He also picked up a loose punt and returned it 4 yards against Iowa in the Orange Bowl. He missed part of 2002 spring practice while concentrating on his academics.

2001: Walker redshirted as a freshman safety and cornerback in 2001, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2000 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-L.A. City, Los Angeles Times All-San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley first team choice as a senior at Birmingham High in Van Nuys (Calif.). He had 5 interceptions (1 for a TD) as a defensive back, 30 receptions for 640 yards (21.3 avg.) and 5 TDs as a wide receiver, and 2 kickoff returns for scores in 2000. In one game, he scored 3 times on just 5 catches (for 136 yards). Birmingham went 10-2 in 2000.

As a 1999 junior, he was All-L.A. City second team and All-West Valley League while making 78 tackles, 3 interceptions and 2 fumble recoveries.

In 1998 as a sophomore, he made the All-Northwest Valley League first team.

He also was on the basketball and track teams at Birmingham, with bests of 14.2 in the 110-meter high hurdles and 6-3 in the high jump (he won the Sportsmanship Award at the 2000 California state meet). He was third in both the 110-meter high hurdles (14.44) and 300-meter intermediate hurdles (39.35) at the 2001 L.A. City meet. He was ninth at the 2001 California State meet in the high hurdles in 14.95 (he ran 14.25 in the prelims); he also ran 49.06 in the intermediate hurdles prelims, but did not advance to the finals.

PERSONAL: He's a political science/American studies and ethnicity major at USC. He was born in Wahiawa, Hi. As a youngster, he was a television actor who appeared in such shows as "E.R." and "7th Heaven" (in fact, he didn't play football until his sophomore season at Birmingham because of a clause in his acting contract that prevented him from doing anything that could affect his appearance).

(29) SCOTT WARE

Safety, 6-2, 215, Sr./Sr., Santa Rosa, CA (Montgomery HS/Santa Rosa JC)

2005: Ware, known for his steady play and big hits, started at free safety as a senior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while starting all 12 games, he had 46 tackles, 2 deflections, 2 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery and 1 interception that he returned 30 yards. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 second team. He won USC's Chris Carlisle Courage Award.

He had 1 tackle at Hawaii, 2 stops against Arkansas, 5 tackles at Oregon and 3 stops at Arizona State. He then had 5 tackles versus Arizona, 6 at Notre Dame and 4 at Washington. He had 3 tackles and a deflection against Washington State, 3 tackles and a fumble recovery in the end zone versus Stanford and 2 tackles at California. He had a team-best 8 tackles, along with 2 forced fumbles, a deflection and an interception in the end zone that set up a USC TD against Fresno State. He had 4 tackles against UCLA.

2004: Ware, who came to USC in the fall of 2004 from a junior college, was an often-used, promising safety as a junior in 2004 before an injury slowed his progress. He also played on special teams. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 7 games (Colorado State, BYU, Stanford, California, Notre Dame, UCLA and Oklahoma), he had 16 tackles and a deflection. He even started 3 times (Colorado State, BYU and California) at free safety when starter Jason Leach had to move to strong safety for an injured Darnell Bing. He had 12 tackles against California and 3 versus Colorado State. He sprained his left foot, knee and ankle against California and missed USC's next 5 games.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was a 2003 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100, JC Athletic Bureau All-State Defensive MVP, JC Athletic Bureau All-Regional I Defensive MVP and All-Mid Empire Conference Defensive MVP as a sophomore defensive back at Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College. He had 70 tackles and 4 interceptions in 2003.

He made the All-League team as a freshman in 2002.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Montgomery High in Santa Rosa (Calif.), where he was named the Santa Rosa Press Democrat All-Redwood Empire League Co-Defensive MVP as a senior defensive back and wide receiver in 2001. He had 7 interceptions, a 72-yard scoring fumble return and an 81-yard TD catch in 2001.

He also started as a junior in 2000.

He also was on the track team at Montgomery.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC.

(23) CHAUNCEY WASHINGTON

Tailback, 6-0, 215, So.*/Jr., Torrance, CA (South Torrance HS)

2005: Washington—a backup tailback whose running style is reminiscent of bull-like teammate LenDale White—was sidelined for his second consecutive year while academically ineligible as a sophomore in 2005. He had an impressive showing in 2005 spring practice.

2004: Washington redshirted the 2004 season while academically ineligible. He missed 2004 spring practice while recovering from the ankle injury.

2003: Washington was a backup tailback and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 7 games (all but California, Arizona State, Arizona, UCLA, Oregon State and Michigan), he ran for 65 yards on 19 carries (3.4 avg.), caught a 6-yard pass and made 3 tackles. He sprained his right ankle against Hawaii and missed USC's next 2 games, then reinjured the ankle against Washington State and missed the last 4 contests (a stress fracture also was discovered in the ankle).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Pioneer League Co-MVP honors as a senior running back at South Torrance (Calif.) High. He ran for 1,549 yards on 140 carries (11.1 avg.) with 23 TDs and caught 13 passes for 200 yards (15.4 avg.) with 2 TDs in 2002 despite missing 5 games with a knee injury.

As a junior in 2001, he was named to the All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Ocean League first team. He gained 1,975 yards on 225 carries (8.8 avg.) with 26 TDs, plus had 22 catches for 273 yards (12.4 avg.) with 2 TDs and returned 10 kickoffs for 324 yards (32.4 avg.) in 2001.

As a sophomore in 2000, he made the All-Ocean League first team as he rushed for 1,548 yards on 179 carries (8.6 avg.).

He also competed for South Torrance's soccer and track (with a best of 10.5 in the 100 meters) teams.

(21) LenDALE WHITE

Tailback, 6-2, 235, Jr./Jr., Denver, CO (Chatfield HS)

CAREER: White is eighth on USC's prestigious career rushing list (with 3,035 yards). He has 49 rushing TDs in 38 career games to tie the USC record first set by Charles White (1976-79). His 54 overall TDs is a USC record. He has 13 games with 100 rushing yards in his career. His 31 overall TDs in 2003 and 2004 were the most by a Trojan by the end of his sophomore year.

2005: The hard-charging White, who provides the thunder to USC's offense, played often as the backup tailback as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 177 carries for 1,178 yards (6.7 avg.) with 21 TDs, plus caught 14 passes for 219 yards (15.6 avg.) with 2 TD and made 1 tackle. He is third nationally in scoring (11.5, first in Pac-10). With 1,178 yards in 2005, he was USC's 25th runner with 1,000 yards in a season and the first since Marcus Allen in 1980 and 1981 to have back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons. He is 16th on USC's season rushing list (1,178 yards). His 21 rushing TDs in 2005 are tied for second most in the nation (and are sixth on the all-time Pac-10 season chart). He had 5 100-yard rushing games in 2005. More than half of his yards (850) in 2005 came after contact. He was a 1 of 12 semifinalists for the 2005 Doak Walker Award. He was a 2005 Rivals.com All-American second teamer and AP All-American third teamer. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 second team. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his left ankle prior to 2005 spring practice. He sat out 2005 spring drills to concentrate on his academics.

He had 69 yards on 13 carries at Hawaii, then ran for 60 yards with 2 short TDs on 10 carries and caught 2 passes for 30 yards against Arkansas. He had 111 yards and 2 short TDs on 15 carries at Oregon. He got a career-high 197 yards (186 in the second half) on 19 carries with TDs of 32 and 46 yards at Arizona State to earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He then rushed for 179 yards and a career-best 4 short TDs (the most rushing TDs by a Trojan since Ryan Knight had 4 against California in 1986) on 24 carries against Arizona (his third straight 100-yard game and, combined with his 197 yards in the previous game at Arizona State, the most yards in back-to-back games for USC since Marcus Allen's 398 in 1981). He added 26 yards on 10 carries (with a 3-yard TD) at Notre Dame and a game-best 56 yards on 16 carries (plus 2 catches for 31 yards) at Washington. He ran for a game-best 155 yards with 2 TDs (2 and 21 yards) on 20 carries (he also caught an 18-yard pass) against Washington State. He rushed for 60 yards on 13 tries with a 2-yard TD and also caught a 16-yard TD against Stanford. He ran for a game-high 90 yards on 16 carries with 3 short TDs (and added 61 yards on 3 catches) at California to break the 1,000-yard rushing barrier for his second straight year. He gained 21 yards on 7 carries with 2 shorts TDs and caught 2 passes for 14 yards against Fresno State. He had 154 yards on 14 carries (an 11.0 average) with 2 TDs (19 and 8 yards) against UCLA and also caught a 24-yard scoring pass (he set the USC career record for overall touchdowns at 54 and tied Charles White's school mark for rushing TDs at 49).

2004: White started all but 2 games (Washington State and Oklahoma) of his 2004 sophomore season at tailback. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he rushed for 1,103 yards on 203 carries (5.4 avg.) with 15 TDs and caught 11 passes for 97 yards (8.8 avg.) with 2 TDs. He became USC's 23rd 1,000-yard season rusher. He ran for 100 yards in 5 games in 2004. A total of 676 of his rushing yards in 2004 (61.3%) came after contact. He had a team-best 17 TDs in 2004, the most in a season by a Trojan since Marcus Allen's 23 in 1981 (USC's opponents scored only 20 TDs in 2004). He also was the first Trojan to lead the Pac-10 in touchdowns scored since Allen in 1981. He sprained his right ankle against Washington and played the rest of the season bothered by the injury. He made the 2004 All-Pac-10 second team, Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American second team and ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team.

In the opener against Virginia Tech, he had a team-best 78 rushing yards on 15 carries (5.2 avg.). He ran for a game-best 123 yards (the fourth 100-yard outing in his career) with 3 first-half TDs on just 14 carries (8.8 average) against Colorado State (he also caught a 22-yard pass). At BYU, he and Bush became the first Trojan duo to each break the 100-yard rushing barrier since Chad Morton and LaVale Woods did so against Oregon State in 1996, as he had 110 yards (with a 43-yard TD) on 17 carries (it was his second consecutive 100-yard game) and a 7-yard reception, while Bush had 124 rushing yards. He had 24 yards on 11 carries, including the game-winning 2-yard TD run late in the fourth quarter, at Stanford. He ran for 52 yards on 11 carries against California and caught 2 passes for 10 yards (with a 5-yard TD catch). He caught a 9-yard first quarter TD pass against Arizona State, plus ran for 68 yards on 16 carries and had 2 catches for 22 yards in just 3 quarters of action. He ran for 93 yards with 2 short TDs on 17 carries against Washington (he also caught 2 passes for 18 yards), then had a game-high 77 yards on 16 carries with 2 short TDs at Washington State. He ran for 116 yards on 25 tries (his sixth career 100-yard game and third of 2004) with a 5-yard TD and caught a 5-yard pass at Oregon State. He ran for a game-best 118 yards and 3 short touchdowns on 16 carries (his fourth 100-yard game of 2004, including his second in a row, and seventh of his career) against Arizona (he also had a season-long 54-yard scamper). He had 51 yards on 14 tries against Notre Dame and added 75 yards on 16 carries and 13 yards on 2 catches at UCLA. He ran for a game-high 118 yards with 2 TDs (6 and 8 yards) on 15 carries against Oklahoma to eclipse the 1,000-yard season rushing barrier.

2003: As just a first-year freshman tailback, White emerged by the middle of the 2003 season as USC's top runner while coming off the bench. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for a team-high 754 yards on 141 carries (5.3 avg.) with 13 TDs, plus he had 6 catches for 15 yards (2.5 avg.) with 1 TD and 2 tackles. He had a trio of 100-yard games in 2003 (1 shy of tying Charles White's 4 in 1976), his 754 rushing yards were the second most ever by a USC freshman (behind Charles White's 858 in 1976), he was the first true freshman to lead USC in rushing in a season, his 13 rushing TDs were a USC freshman record and his 14 total touchdowns tied the USC freshman TD mark (with Mike Williams in 2002). He made the 2003 Collegefootballnews.com Freshman All-American second team and Rivals.com Freshman All-American honorable mention and All-Pac-10 honorable mention squads, as well as being named to the The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team (and he was Offensive Freshman of the Year), ESPN.com All-Pac-10 Co-Newcomer of the Year and Collegefootballnews.com Pac-10 Freshman of the Year.

After running for 6 yards on 5 tries at Auburn and not getting any carries against BYU, he had a game-best 58 rushing yards on 10 carries with 2 TDs (5 and 20 yards) and made a tackle on special teams against Hawaii. He added 6 yards on 2 carries (with a 6-yard TD) at California. He then came off the bench to run for 140 yards—at the time, the most rushing yards ever by a Trojan first-year freshman—and 2 TDs (25 and 6 yards) on 21 carries at Arizona State (he became just the seventh USC true freshman to rush for 100 yards). Against Stanford, he became the first freshman (true or redshirt) in USC history to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games when he ran for 108 yards on 23 carries (both game highs) with 2 TDs (6 and 3 yards). He had 75 yards on 16 carries at Notre Dame and 29 yards on 9 carries with a 21-yard TD (plus he had a 10-yard reception) at Washington. Against a Washington State defense ranked third nationally in rushing defense (68.1), White ran for a game-best 149 yards—the most by a USC freshman (true or redshirt) and breaking his true freshman record of 140 set a month earlier at Arizona State—on 12 carries (a 12.4 average) with a TD, including non-scoring runs of 66 and 44 runs. At Arizona, White had a game-best 90 yards on 15 carries and scored TDs on runs of 1 and 43 yards to set the USC freshman season rushing TD record. He added 33 yards on 10 ties (with a 1-yard TD) and he caught 2 passes for 3 yards against UCLA. He ran for 34 yards with a 1-yard TD against Oregon State. He caught a 6-yard scoring pass and ran for 26 yards on 8 tries against Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2002 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Midlands, Prep Star All-Midlands, Tom Lemming All-Midland, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Gatorade Colorado Player of the Year, Rocky Mountain News All-Colorado first team and Rocky Mountain News Class 5A All-State first team as a senior tailback at Chatfield High in Littleton (Colo.). He ran for 1,683 yards and 21 TDs in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he earned Rocky Mountain News All-Colorado first team and Rocky Mountain News Class 5A All-State first team notice. He rushed for 1,850 yards with 30 TDs, plus had 185 receiving yards with 2 TDs in 2001. Chatfield went 14-0 in 2001 and was the Class 5A champion. His coach at Chatfield was Dave Logan, the former Colorado All-American wide receiver who played in the NFL.

He played the 1999 and 2000 seasons at Denver (Colo.) South High, where he made the Rocky Mountain News All-Colorado first team in 2000 and the Rocky Mountain News Class 5A All-State first team both years.

He finished his career (he started all 4 years) as Colorado's career rushing leader, with 7,803 yards.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. He is the cousin of former Notre Dame (1998) and Pittsburgh (2000-01) tailback/wide receiver Darcey Levy (who played in the NFL), ex-Wyoming (1998-2002) linebacker Herman White and former Colorado point guard Chauncey Billups, now in the NBA.

(78) KYLE WILLIAMS
Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 295, Jr./Sr., Dallas, TX (Highland Park HS)

2005: Williams served as a key backup offensive tackle and played on special teams as a junior in 2005. He appeared in 11 games in 2005 (all but Arizona State). He was used often in extra offensive linemen formations near the goal line.

2004: Williams was an often-used backup at right offensive tackle and also played on special teams as a sophomore in 2004. He appeared in 12 games (all but BYU) in 2004.

2003: Williams was a backup offensive right guard and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2003. He appeared in 12 games in 2003 (all but BYU), all on the PAT/field goal protection team. He also saw brief action on the offensive line in 7 of those games (Hawaii, Arizona State, Stanford, Notre Dame, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State). He was switched from offensive tackle to guard in 2003 spring drills.

2002: Williams redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2002, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Southwest, Prep Star All-Midlands Region, Student Sports All-Southwest first team, All-State, Dave Campbell Football Magazine Texas 4-1 Player of the Year finalist, Old Spice Lone Star All-Star team, All-Area and All-District as a senior offensive lineman at Highland Park High in Dallas (Tex.). He had 126 pancake blocks, didn't allow a sack and posted a blocking grade of 89% in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he had 60 pancake blocks. He was a 3-year starter and also saw action at tight end.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. He lived in California until his sophomore year in high school. His father, Scott, played college basketball. An uncle, Eric Williams, was a defensive lineman with the Detroit Lions (1984-89) and Washington Redskins (1990-93, including on the 1991 Super Bowl champs) after earning 1983 All-Pac-10 first team honors in his 3 years (1981-83) at Washington State. His grandfather, Roy Williams, played for the Detroit Lions and San Francisco 49ers. Another uncle played professional basketball in Europe, while his other grandfather played 3 sports at Lehigh in the 1960s.

(41) THOMAS WILLIAMS
Linebacker, 6-3, 230, So./Jr., Vacaville, CA (Vacaville HS)

2005: Williams played a key role for USC at linebacker as a sophomore in 2005. After serving as the backup on the strong side for USC's first 2 games, he took over the starting job there for the next 6 contests (Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame, Washington and Washington State), then switched to the starting inside job for the Stanford and California games. But he sprained his left kneecap at California and was sidelined for USC's last 2 games (Fresno State and UCLA). Overall in 2005 while appearing in 10 games (all but Fresno State) and starting 8 times (all but Hawaii, Arkansas, Fresno State and UCLA), he had 29 tackles, including 4 for losses of 12 yards (with a 3-yard sack), plus 3 deflections, a forced fumble and an interception that he returned 10 yards.

He had 3 tackles at Hawaii and a tackle for a loss and a deflection against Arkansas. He then made 4 tackles at Oregon in his first start. He added 2 stops (with 1 for a loss) at Arizona State, 2 tackles against Arizona, 8 stops (with a sack) and a deflection at Notre Dame and 2 tackles (1 for a loss) at Washington. He had 5 tackles, an interception to set up a USC field goal and a forced fumble against Stanford in his first start at middle linebacker. He added 2 stops at California before spraining his kneecap.

2004: Williams backed up Dallas Sartz at strongside linebacker and also played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 14 tackles, including 2 for losses of 8 yards (with a 7-yard sack at Washington State). He had 3 stops against Notre Dame. He won USC's 2004 John McKay Award.

2003: Williams redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and Sacramento Bee All-Sacramento first team selection as a senior fullback and linebacker at Vacaville (Calif.) High. He had 125 tackles, with 12 sacks, plus 2 interceptions, 6 forced fumbles and 4 fumble recoveries in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he posted 85 tackles, with 8 sacks, plus 3 interceptions, 4 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries on defense, and had 378 rushing yards with 4 TDs (and 1 receiving TD) on offense.

He played safety as a sophomore in 2000.

He also played baseball (hitting .430) at Vacaville.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(24) JUSTIN WYATT
Cornerback, 5-10, 185, Sr./Sr., Compton, CA (Dominguez HS)

2005: The athletic Wyatt started for his second season at cornerback as a senior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while starting all 12 games, he had 32 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 10 yards (with an 8-yard sack), plus 3 deflections, 2 fumble recovery (he returned 1 for a 38-yard TD) and 1 interception. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He was invited to play in the 2006 East-West Shrine Game. He had hernia surgery prior to 2005 spring practice and sat out spring drills.

He had 5 tackles at Hawaii and 3 versus Arkansas (with 0.5 for a loss). He had 5 tackles (including a sack) at Arizona State and his first career interception (to set up a USC TD). He added 1 tackle versus Arizona, 5 stops at Notre Dame and a tackle, a deflection and a fumble recovery to set up a USC TD at Washington. He had a tackle and a deflection against Washington State, 4 stops versus Stanford, a tackle for loss at California and 4 tackles against Fresno State. He had 2 tackles, a deflection and returned a fumble 38 yards for a TD against UCLA.

2004: Wyatt started all season at cornerback as a junior in 2004 and did an exemplary job. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 40 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 6 yards, plus 7 deflections, a forced fumble and an interception that he returned 19 yards. He made 2004 All-Pac-10 honorable mention and the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team. He had a career-high 7 tackles at Oregon State, 4 tackles against California, Notre Dame and UCLA and 3 stops against Virginia Tech, Colorado State (with a forced fumble and deflection), BYU (including 2.5 for losses) and Washington State. His interception came against Arizona, setting up a TD.

2003: Wyatt was moved from cornerback to wide receiver in 2003 spring drills, then was switched back to cornerback in the middle of his 2003 sophomore season. He played often, first as a backup wide receiver, then in extra defensive back situations. He also played on special teams. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 10 tackles, caught 3 passes for 20 yards (6.7 avg.) and returned 3 kickoffs for 41 yards (13.7 avg.). He had 3 tackles against Washington State and 2 at California and Washington. He had 2 receptions for 15 yards versus BYU and a 5-yard catch at Auburn. He had a 31-yard kickoff return against Hawaii.

2002: Wyatt was a backup cornerback and played on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. He played often in extra defensive back formations. Overall in 2002 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 10 tackles, a deflection and 2 fumble recoveries, plus he returned a punt for 16 yards (versus Arizona State). He had 4 tackles at Stanford. His fumble recoveries came at Kansas State and Stanford (leading to a USC touchdown).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 honorable mention, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team as a senior at Dominguez High in Compton (Calif.). He had 64 tackles, including 3 for losses (with 2 sacks), plus 2 interceptions, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries while allowing only 3 passes to be completed on him as a cornerback in 2001. On offense, he played quarterback, running back and wide receiver and also returned kicks. He ran for 1,436 yards on 138 carries (10.4 avg.) with 27 TDs in 2001, plus was 98-of-149 passing (65.8%) for 1,268 yards and 16 TDs, had 28 receptions for 473 yards (16.9 avg.) and 5 scores, and returned 3 punts and 2 kickoffs for touchdowns.

He made the All-CIF Division II first team as a junior in 2000. He had 60 tackles (42 solo), 39 deflections and an interception on defense in 2000 and averaged 100 all-purpose yards a game as he rushed for 876 yards on 104 carries (8.4 avg.) with 21 TDs and caught 37 passes for 400-plus yards with 8 TDs.

He also was on Dominguez's track team, with bests of 10.4 in the 100 meters, 21.5 in the 200 meters, 47.8 in the 400 meters and 37.8 in the 300-meter hurdles. Currents Trojan LaJuan Ramsey and Chilo Rachal also prepped at Dominguez.

He spent his first 2 years at Highland High in Palmdale (Calif.).

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Porter, played baseball in the Milwaukee Brewers organization, while his uncle, Reggie, was in the Kansas City Royals system.

PETE CARROLL

USC HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

It didn't take energetic and charismatic fifth-year USC head football coach Pete Carroll long to restore the glory of the Trojan football program and return Troy to national prominence.

He is 54-9 (85.7%) as a college head coach (all at USC). He got to 50 career USC wins faster than any head coach in Trojan history. His losses were by a total of 42 points (4.7 average) and only 1 was by more than a touchdown (it was by 11 points). After starting off his Trojan career 2-5, he has gone 52-4 (92.9%). He is 35-5 in Pac-10 games, giving him an 87.5% winning mark (a league record). He is 16-0 in November. His teams have posted 6 shutouts and have scored at least 20 points in the last 51 games (a school record). USC's 13, 25 and 37 wins over the previous 1, 2 and 3 years represent the winningest 1-, 2- and 3-year periods in Trojan history. USC is riding a Pac-10-record 34-game overall winning streak (as well as wins in a Pac-10 record 27 straight home games, a Pac-10-record 23 straight overall Pac-10 games, a Pac-10 record 19 consecutive league home games, 16 consecutive non-conference games, a school-record 15 road games in a row and 16 in a row over AP Top 25 teams). USC has been AP's No. 1 team for a national-record 33 straight polls (including 2 pre-season polls). In 2005, he won at least a share of his fourth consecutive Pac-10 title (tying a school record) and a trip to a fourth consecutive BCS bowl (including a second straight BCS Championship Game). Under Carroll, USC is the first school to have 3 Heisman Trophy winners in a 4-year span. He also serves as USC's defensive coordinator.

In 2005, his Trojans held AP's No. 1 ranking for the entire season and are trying to be the first team ever to win three consecutive AP national crowns. USC went 12-0 overall (while facing 5 AP Top 25 teams) to advance to the BCS Championship Game in the Rose Bowl and 8-0 in the Pac-10 to win its fourth straight league title. USC swept rivals Notre Dame and UCLA for an unprecedented fourth season in a row. Troy's offense was in the national Top 5 in every offensive category, including tops in total offense (580.3) and second in scoring offense (50.0), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans won games by an average of 28.7 points. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season. And USC led the nation in turnover margin (+1.8) for the second straight season. For the second year in a row, USC set Pac-10 records for total home attendance and home attendance average and is on pace to set the school marks for overall attendance and overall attendance average. The Trojans also set school standards for the second straight year for home sellouts (4), regular season sellouts (9) and season sellouts (10). For the second consecutive year, a school-record 6 Trojans were All-American first teamers (Heisman Trophy tailback Reggie Bush, quarterback Matt Leinart, wide receiver Dwayne Jarrett, offensive guard Taitusi Lutui, safety Darnell Bing and offensive tackle Sam Baker). He was the 2005 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team Coach of the Year and was named by The Sporting News as the top coach in the nation. He was the 2005 Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year, as well as the American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Region 5 Coach of the Year. He is 1 of 6 finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and 1 of 12 semifinalists for the George Munger Award.

In 2004, he guided No. 1-ranked USC to its second consecutive national championship with a convincing win over Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl. USC became only the second team ever to hold its AP pre-season No. 1 ranking all the way through a season. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. His team was 13-0 (a school record for wins) and went 8-0 in the Pac-10. He also led the Trojans to their third consecutive Pac-10 title and their third straight season sweep of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (a first at Troy). Troy was in the national Top 10 in every defensive statistical category (its total defense average was USC's lowest in 15 years), including first in rushing defense (for the second year in a row) and turnover margin and third in scoring defense. USC outscored opponents by 25.2 points (including a school-record 8 games with a margin of at least 30 points). USC played before 3 home sellouts, 7 regular-season sellouts and 8 season sellouts, all school marks. And Troy set a USC and Pac-10 record for home attendance average, as well as school records for total home attendance, overall attendance average and total overall attendance. A school-record 6 Trojans (Heisman Trophy quarterback Matt Leinart, tailback Reggie Bush, defensive linemen Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, and linebackers Matt Gootegoe and Lofa Tatupu) were named All-American first teamers. He was the 2004 National Quarterback Club College Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2004 Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award, the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the ESPY Best Coach of the Year Award and a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award. He was the 2004 ESPN.com Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

The 2003 season—his third at Troy—was one of the best in USC history. The Trojans won the AP national championship (USC's first national crown since 1978) and entered the Rose Bowl also ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN poll but weren't allowed to keep the top spot after winning that bowl because of a contractual agreement which required the coaches to vote the Sugar Bowl winner as their poll's champion (USC ended up second). USC was 12-1 overall (the only loss was by 3 points at California in triple overtime) and, at 7-1 in the Pac-10, Troy won its second consecutive league title for the first time since 1988-89 (and its first outright crown since 1989). His Trojans won their last 9 games and posted back-to-back seasons of double digit wins for the first time since 1978 and 1979. For just the second time in history (the other time also was 1978 and 1979), USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years. His 2003 squad featured a potent offense, a stingy defense and productive special teams. USC had a stretch of 11 consecutive 30-point games (also a school mark) and 7 straight 40-point contests (a Pac-10 record). USC's 534 points was a Pac-10 record. The defense led the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forced 42 turnovers and scored 8 touchdowns. And the Trojans topped the nation in net punting. Five Trojans—wide receiver Mike Williams, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, punter Tom Malone and quarterback Matt Leinart—were first team All-Americans (Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting).

For all this, Carroll was named the 2003 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year, Maxwell Club College Coach of the Year, ESPN.com National Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Coach of the Year and All-American Football Foundation Frank Leahy Co-Coach of the Year. He also was the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year (USC's first honoree since Larry Smith in 1988), a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year, 1 of 6 semifinalists for the Eddie Robinson/Football Writers Association of America Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Region 5 Coach of the Year. In early 2004, he received the Chuck Benedict Founders Award (for special achievement) from the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association, the Orange County Youth Sports Foundation Sportsman of the Year Award, the Spirit of Los Angeles Award from the Los Angeles Headquarters Association and the Vincent T. Lombardi Hall of Fame Award from the Boy Scouts of America San Gabriel Valley Council.

In 2002, just his second season at USC, his Trojans thrived despite playing what was ranked by the NCAA, Sagarin and the BCS as the nation's most difficult schedule (facing 9 AP-ranked teams and 11 bowl squads). USC—which beat Iowa in the Orange Bowl—posted an 11-2 overall record and a No. 4 ranking in the final polls, and won the Pac-10 championship while going 7-1. The Trojans also won their last 9 home games. It was USC's first 11-win season since 1979 and its highest ranking since 1988. Troy won its final 8 games (scoring at least 30 points in each), including blowouts of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (the first time USC beat both in the same season since 1981 and the first time in back-to-back games since 1978). USC led the Pac-10 in total offense (449.3) and total defense (284.9), as well as scoring offense (35.8) and scoring defense (18.5), and was in the NCAA's Top 25 in nearly every team statistical category on both sides of the ball. Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Carson Palmer and safety Troy Polamalu were first team All-Americans. Carroll was 1 of 8 finalists for the 2002 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award and was 1 of 4 runners-up for the 2002 American Football Monthly Schutt Sports Division I-A Coach of the Year Award.

Carroll brought big doses of experience, enthusiasm and leadership in his quest to revive the USC football program when he was named the Trojans' head football coach on Dec. 15, 2000 (he signed a 5-year contract). After USC started off his opening 2001 season slowly at 1-4, Carroll stayed the course and got his troops to rally by winning 5 of their last 7 games (including the final 4 regular season contests) to finish at 6-6 overall. USC, which won its last 5 Pac-10 games after beginning league play at 0-3, placed fifth in the conference at 5-3 and earned a berth into the Segal Sports Las Vegas Bowl. Putting an exclamation point on the regular season was a 27-0 blanking of No. 20 UCLA, USC's first shutout in the cross-town rivalry since 1947 and the series' biggest margin of victory since 1979. The 53-year-old Carroll has 30 years of NFL and college experience, including 14 on the college level.

He was the head coach of the NFL's New England Patriots for 3 seasons (1997-99) and New York Jets for 1 year (1994). He guided the Patriots into the playoffs in his first 2 seasons, winning the AFC Eastern Division title at 10-6 in 1997 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs, then posting a 9-7 regular season mark in 1998. His overall record in New England was 27-21 in the regular season (including 8-8 in 1999) and 1-2 in the playoffs. He owns the franchise's second-best winning percentage (54.9%).

After serving as the Jets' defensive coordinator for 4 seasons (1990-93), he became the team's head coach the following season. His 1994 Jets went 6-10. Only 3 other Jets head coaches won more games in their rookie campaign.

He spent the next 2 years (1995-96) as the defensive coordinator with the San Francisco 49ers, who won the NFC Western Division title both seasons. The 49ers were 11-5 in the 1995 regular season when they had the NFL's top-ranked defense and then went 12-4 in 1996.

Carroll began his coaching career at the college level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for 3 years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977) under Lou Holtz as the Razorbacks won the 1978 Orange Bowl, and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) under Earle Bruce (the Cyclones played in the 1978 Hall of Fame Bowl) and at Ohio State (1979) under Bruce. That Buckeye squad lost to USC in the 1980 Rose Bowl. He next spent 3 seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, then returned to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

He entered the NFL in 1984 as the defensive backs coach of the Buffalo Bills, then held a similar position with the Minnesota Vikings for 5 seasons (1985-89). The Vikings advanced to the playoffs his last 3 years there, getting to the NFC Championship game in 1987. The 1988 team was 11-5 in the regular season and the 1989 squad won the NFC Central Division crown with a 10-6 mark. His secondary averaged 25 interceptions a season and led the NFL in passing defense in 1989.

Carroll spent the 2000 season as a consultant for pro and college teams, doing charitable work for the NFL and writing a column about pro football for CNNSI.com.

Carroll was a 2-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. He received his secondary teaching credential and a master's degree in physical education from Pacific in 1976. He was inducted into the Pacific Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

After he graduated from Pacific, he spent a year trying out for the World Football League and selling roofing materials in the Bay Area.

He was a 3-sport (football, basketball and baseball) standout at Redwood High in Larkspur, Calif., earning the school's Athlete of the Year award as a senior. He played quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. He then played football at Marin Junior College in Kentfield, Calif., in 1970 (he also was on the team in 1969, but did not letter).

He was born on Sept. 15, 1951 in San Francisco. He and his wife, Gena, who played volleyball at Pacific, have 3 children: sons Brennan, 26, who played tight end at Pittsburgh (he previously played at Delaware) and is now an assistant at USC, and Nathan, 17, and daughter Jaime, 22, who played on the Women of Troy's highly-ranked volleyball team which competed in the 2000 NCAA Final Four.

In 2003, he helped develop "A Better L.A." a non-profit group consisting of a consortium of local agencies and organizations working to reduce gang violence by empowering change in individuals and communities. He received the Courageous Leadership Award from Women Against Gun Violence in 2005, as well as being named a Cedars-Sinai Sports Spec-

USC ASSISTANT COACHES

GREG BURNS Secondary

Greg Burns, who was a defensive back in the Pac-10, is in his fourth year as USC's secondary coach. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 2002.

In 2005, safety Darnell Bing was an All-American first teamer.

In 2004, USC's pass efficiency defense was ninth nationally. The Trojans won their second consecutive national championship.

In 2003, cornerback Will Poole was an All-Pac-10 first team pick and was a NFL fourth round pick, while safety Darnell Bing was a Freshman All-American first teamer. Troy won its first national championship since 1978.

Safety Troy Polamalu won his second consecutive All-American first team honor in 2002, plus he was a Thorpe Award finalist and was a NFL first round pick.

USC played in the 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Burns, 33, handled the cornerbacks at Louisville the previous 4 years (1998-2001) before coming to USC. The Cardinals were 18th nationally in pass efficiency defense and had 20 interceptions in 2001 (the team went 11-2 and beat BYU in the Liberty Bowl). In 2000, Louisville led the nation in interceptions (27) and was 20th in pass efficiency defense. In 1998, Cardinal cornerback Antonio Roundtree earned All-Conference USA first team honors. Louisville also played in the 1998 Motor City Bowl, 1999 Humanitarian Bowl and 2000 Liberty Bowl.

He was the cornerbacks coach at Idaho in 1997, as the Vandals intercepted 13 passes.

He was a 4-year letterman (1991-93, 1995) and 2-year starter as a defensive back at Washington State, earning All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors in 1992. The 1992 Cougar squad won the Copper Bowl. He ranks ninth on WSU's career interception list with 9 (his 5 picks in 1992—including 2 against USC—is tied for ninth on the school's season chart). He won WSU's Laurie Niemi Award in 1995 (for the senior exhibiting courage, spirit and positive attitude). He missed the 1994 season with torn ligaments in his knee and his 1995 season was cut short because of a shoulder injury.

He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1995 and a master's degree in counseling psychology in 1997, both from Washington State.

He was on the football and track teams at Dorsey High in Los Angeles, Calif.

Born Nov. 9, 1972, he is single. He has a son, Christopher, 2.

His brother, Dexter, was a defensive back at San Jose State in the mid-1990s.

BRENNAN CARROLL Tight Ends

Brennan Carroll, the oldest son of USC head coach Pete Carroll, is in his fourth year on the USC staff, including his second as a full-time assistant. He is in charge of the tight ends.

In 2003 and 2004, the Trojans won national championships.

He joined the USC staff in August of 2002 as a graduate assistant. He spent 2002 working with the offense and special teams, then handled the tight ends in 2003.

USC played in the 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Carroll, 26, was a reserve tight end and key special teams player at Pittsburgh the previous 3 years (1999-2001). He caught 3 passes for 25 yards (8.3 average) as a 2000 junior, including 1 for a touchdown (a 3-yarder versus Boston College). He added a 12-yard reception as a senior in 2001. The Panthers played in the 2000 Insight.com Bowl and the 2001 Tangerine Bowl. He redshirted the 1998 season.

He spent his 1997 freshman season at Delaware, but did not see action as a reserve tight end.

He prepped at Saratoga (Calif.) High, where he starred as a linebacker in football and also played basketball.

He earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Pittsburgh in 2001.

Born March 20, 1979, he is single.

His father, Pete, has been USC's head coach since 2001 and has 30 years coaching experience in college and the NFL (he was the head coach of the New England Patriots and New York Jets). His mother, Glena, played volleyball at Pacific. His sister, Jaime, was on the USC women's volleyball team in 2000 and 2001 (the 2000 Women of Troy advanced to the NCAA Final Four). His late grandfather, Dean Goranson, received his master's degree from USC.

JETHRO FRANKLIN Defensive Line

Jethro Franklin, who has spent 15 years coaching defensive lines at the NFL and collegiate levels, is in his first year at USC. He joined the Trojan staff in January of 2004 and works with the defensive line.

In 2005, defensive ends Lawrence Jackson and Frostee Rucker were All-Pac-10 first teamers.

USC played in the 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Franklin, 40, handled the defensive line for the Green Bay Packers for the previous 5 seasons (2000-04). The Packers were sixth in the league in total defense in 2004, 10th in rush defense in 2003, third in pass defense in 2002 and fifth in scoring defense in 2001. The defense set various Packers game, season and all-time sack records during his tenure

Before his stint in Green Bay, he coached the interior defensive line at UCLA in 1999.

Franklin began his coaching career at his alma mater, Fresno State, where he was in charge of the defensive line for 8 seasons (1991-98). The Bulldogs played in 3 bowls while he was there: the 1991 California Bowl, the 1992 Freedom Bowl (a 24-7 upset over USC) and the 1993 Aloha Bowl.

While at Fresno State, he had a pair of NFL coaching fellowships, working with the Buffalo Bills in the summer of 1994 and the Cleveland Browns in the summer of 1995.

After being drafted by the Houston Oilers in 1988, he spent the 1989 season playing defensive line for the Seattle Seahawks. He then was the No. 1 draft choice of the San Antonio Rough Riders of the World League of American Football in 1991, but instead opted to begin his coaching career.

He started on the defensive line for 2 seasons (1986-87) at Fresno State, earning All-American second team honors both seasons. As a 1986 junior, he set a then-school record with 19.5 sacks. He was the Pacific Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year and Fresno State's MVP as a 1987 senior. He had 31.5 career sacks.

Prior to Fresno State, he played 2 seasons (1984-85) at San Jose (Calif.) Community College, winning junior college All-American honors in 1985.

He was on the football and track teams at Yerba Buena High in San Jose (Calif.).

He earned his bachelor's degree in criminology at Fresno State in 1989.

He was born on Oct. 25, 1965, in St. Lazaire, France, where his father was stationed in the military.

He and his wife, Cherise, have a son, Khalil, 8, and a daughter, Takara, 6.

LANE KIFFIN Offensive Coordinator Wide Receivers Recruiting Coordinator

Lane Kiffin, the son of longtime pro and collegiate coach Monte Kiffin, is in his fifth year at USC. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 2001 and spent the 2001 season handling the tight ends. He became the wide receivers coach in 2002. In 2004, he took on the additional duty of passing game coordinator. In 2005, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator, in addition to continuing as the wide receivers coach.

In 2005, he was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com. Wide receiver Dwayne Jarrett was an All-American first teamer and Biletnikoff Award finalist. Troy's offense was in the national Top 5 in every offensive category, including tops in total offense (580.3) and second in scoring offense (50.0), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans, who scored 50 points a school-record 7 times, won games by an average of 28.7 points. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season.

In 2004, wide receiver Dwayne Jarrett was named a Freshman All-American first teamer. The Trojans won their second consecutive national championship.

Wide receiver Mike Williams was a consensus All-American first teamer and a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2003 (he finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy balloting) as he set the USC career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records, while fellow wide receiver Keary Colbert set the USC career reception record (207) and was a NFL second round pick. Troy won its first national championship since 1978.

In 2002, Williams was a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year as he and Colbert became USC's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers. Also in 2002, wide receiver Kareem Kelly became the Trojan career reception leader and was a sixth round NFL draft pick.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Kiffin, 30, was the defensive quality control coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary).

He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for 2 seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs.

He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season.

Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for 3 seasons (1994-96).

He earned his bachelor's degree in leisure service management from Fresno State in 1998.

He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

He was born May 9, 1975. His wife's name is Layla. They have a newborn daughter, Landry.

His father, Monte, is the defensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The elder Kiffin, a longtime NFL and collegiate assistant coach who served as North Carolina State's head coach in the early 1980s, has a long history with Pete Carroll (Carroll was an assistant on Kiffin's Wolfpack staff from 1980 to 1982, and they served as assistants together with Arkansas in 1977, the Buffalo Bills in 1984, the Minnesota Vikings from 1986 to 1989 and the New York Jets in 1990).

His brother, Chris, was a defensive lineman at Colorado State (2001-04).

TODD McNAIR

Running Backs

Special Teams Coordinator

Former NFL player Todd McNair, a one-time NFL running back and assistant coach, is in his second year at USC. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 2004. He added the special teams coordinator duty in 2005.

In 2005, tailback Reggie Bush won the Heisman Trophy and Doak Walker Award, was a unanimous All-American, was the Player of the Year by AP, Walter Camp and the Touchdown Club of Columbus and was the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year. Bush joined fellow tailback LenDale White as the first pair of USC runners to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing in a season. USC was fourth nationally in rushing offense (264.3) and averaged a national-best 6.6 yards per carry.

In 2004, tailback Reggie Bush finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was an All-American and was the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year. The Trojans won the national championship.

USC played in the 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2001-03) coaching the running backs for the Cleveland Browns.

McNair, 40, began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator at Camden (N.J.) High in 1998 and 1999, then handled similar duties at Schalick High in Pittsgrove, N.J., in 2000.

He was a running back and special teams standout for 8 seasons in the NFL, first with the Kansas City Chiefs for 5 years (1989-93), followed by 2 seasons (1994-95) with the Houston Oilers and then back with the Chiefs in 1996. In his career, he ran for 803 yards with 3 touchdowns, caught 252 passes with 7 scores and averaged 18.6 yards on kickoff returns. He retired as the Chiefs' No. 10 all-time receiver.

He lettered 4 years (1985-88) as a running back at Temple, where he was a 1987 All-American honorable mention selection. He ended up third on the school's all-time rushing list with 2,383 yards and 16 TDs. As a junior in 1987, he ran for 1,058 yards with 6 scores.

He prepped at Pennsauken (N.J.) High. Among his prep teammates were future NFL players John and Keith Taylor and David and Billy Griggs (the Griggs were his cousins).

He was born on Aug. 16, 1965. He and his wife, Lynnette, have 3 daughters: Logan, 12, Daryn, 7, and Thai, 2.

KEN NORTON JR.

Linebackers

Ken Norton Jr., one of the premier linebackers in NFL and collegiate history, is in his second year on the USC staff, but his first as a full-time assistant working with the linebackers (he was promoted in February of 2005). He spent his first year at USC as a graduate assistant (helping with the linebackers) after joining the Trojan staff in February of 2004.

In 2004, linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu were named All-American first teamers (Grootegoed also was a Butkus Award finalist and Tatupu was a NFL second round pick). The Trojans won the national championship.

USC played in the 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Norton Jr., 39, spent 13 years playing in the NFL, first with the Dallas Cowboys for 6 seasons (1988-93) and then 7 years with the San Francisco 49ers (1994-2000). The All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection is the only player in history to play on 3 consecutive Super Bowl-winning teams (the Cowboys in 1992 and 1993 and the 49ers in 1994).

After retiring from the NFL, he was a radio and television commentator and analyst, including on the NFL Network.

He also served as the defensive coordinator at Hamilton High in Los Angeles in 2003.

He was the Cowboys' second round NFL draft pick in 1988 after earning All-American honors at UCLA in 1987. He lettered 4 seasons (1984-87) with the Bruins and was a finalist for the 1987 Butkus Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from UCLA in 1998.

He prepped at Westchester (Calif.) High.

Born Sept. 29, 1966, he and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: daughters Brittney, 19, and Sabrina, 11, and son Ken III, 9. His father, Ken Sr., is the former world heavyweight boxing champion and played football at Northeast Missouri State.

PAT RUEL

Offensive Line

Pat Ruel, who has 32 years of college and NFL coaching experience, is in his first year at USC. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 2005 and works with the offensive line.

In 2005, offensive guard Taitusi Lutui and offensive tackle Sam Baker were All-American first teamers and they joined center Ryan Kalil on the All-Pac-10 first team.

USC played in the 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Ruel, 55, spent the 2004 season as an offensive line assistant with the New York Giants.

He worked on the college level for the first 26 years of his career before moving to the NFL for the next 5 years. His coaching career began in 1973 as a graduate assistant at Miami, his alma mater. He was promoted to a fulltime assistant handling the offensive line for the Hurricanes for the following 3 years (1974-76).

He next was the assistant offensive line coach at Arkansas in 1977 (USC head coach Pete Carroll was a member of that Razorbacks' staff and the team played in the 1978 Orange Bowl).

He then spent 4 years (1978-81) at Washington State, the first 2 seasons as the offensive line coach before adding offensive coordinator duties for his final two seasons. The 1981 Cougars played in the Holiday Bowl.

He was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Texas A&M for the next 3 years (1982-84), then had similar duties (along with being the assistant head coach) at Northern Illinois for 3 seasons (1985-87).

He spent the next 9 years (1988-96) at Kansas, the first 3 as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, then adding assistant head coach to his title the final 6 years. The Jayhawks played in the 1992 and 1995 Aloha Bowls.

After spending 1997 in private business, he then was at Michigan State for 2 years (1998-99), the first year as the offensive line coach and then adding assistant head coach duties in the second season. The Spartans played in the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl.

He moved to the NFL in 2000 as the offensive line coach with the Detroit Lions, then spent the next 2 seasons (2001-02) as the assistant offensive line coach for the Green Bay Packers. The Packers were in the NFC playoffs both seasons. He was the offensive line coach with the Buffalo Bills in 2003 before going to the Giants.

He lettered at offensive guard for Miami in 1971 and 1972. He received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Miami in 1972.

He prepped at Coral Gables (Fla.) High, where he starred in football.

He was born on Dec. 5, 1950. He and his wife, Marti, have a daughter, Sabra, 18. His full name is Golden Pat Ruel.

STEVE SARKISIAN

Assistant Head Coach
Quarterbacks

Steve Sarkisian, who is in his fourth stop at USC as an assistant coach or athlete, returned to the Trojan staff in Feburary of 2005 as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach.

In 2005, quarterback Matt Leinart won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting, was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien, Maxwell and Walter Camp Awards and was an All-American first teamer. He set 10 USC records (9 were Pac-10 marks and 1 was an NCAA record). USC's 3,792 passing yards was within range of the school record.

He spent the 2004 season as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. His quarterbacks passed for more than 4,000 yards in 2004 as Oakland ranked eighth in passing in the NFL.

Sarkisian, 31, originally joined the USC staff as an offensive assistant in January of 2001. Then, after joining San Diego State briefly as the quarterbacks coach in January of 2002, he returned to USC in March of 2002 to handle the quarterbacks fulltime for 2 seasons (2002-03).

In 2003, quarterback Matt Leinart was an All-American first teamer and was the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year (he finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting) while setting Pac-10 season records for TD passes (35) and consecutive passes without an interception (212). He also had the highest passing efficiency rating of any USC quarterback (163.2). USC won its first national championship since 1978.

In 2002, quarterback Carson Palmer won the Heisman and Unitas Award en route to setting the Pac-10 career records for passing yards and total offense (he was the No. 1 pick in the 2003 NFL draft), plus he was an All-American first teamer.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

He spent the 2000 season as the quarterbacks coach at El Camino Junior College in Torrance (Calif.). His quarterback, Robert Hodge, earned All-American honors. El Camino played in the CHIPIs For Kids Bowl.

Sarkisian starred at the quarterback position at the prep, collegiate and pro levels. He was with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League for 3 seasons (1997-99). He started in 1999 and threw 16 touchdowns.

He had a record-setting 2-year (1995-96) career at BYU, where he was coached by former USC assistant Norm Chow. He completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6%) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. His 162.0 career passing efficiency rating is third on the all-time NCAA list. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the seventh best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the 1997 Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996, won All-American second team honors and played in the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl. As a 1995 junior, he made the All-WAC team and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2%).

He came to BYU from El Camino Junior College, where he starred for 2 seasons (1993-94). He was a J.C. All-American first teamer as a 1994 sophomore and won All-Mission Conference honors in 1993 as a freshman. He also played baseball (shortstop) at El Camino in 1993.

He actually began his college career at USC, spending the fall of 1992 on the Trojan baseball team before transferring to El Camino.

He was a standout football and baseball player at West Torrance (Calif.) High.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from BYU in 1997 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from El Camino in 1994.

He was born March 8, 1974. He and his wife, Stephanie, have a 3-year-old daughter, Ashley, and a son, Brady, 1.

ROCKY SETO Linebackers

Former USC linebacker Rocky Seto is in his seventh year on the USC staff, including his third as a full-time assistant. He took over handling of the linebackers in 2004 after being in charge of the safeties in 2003.

In 2004, linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu were named All-American first teamers (Grootegoed also was a Butkus Award finalist and Tatupu was a NFL second round pick). The Trojans won their second consecutive national championship.

In 2003, safety Darnell Bing was a Freshman All-American first teamer. Troy won its first national championship since 1978.

He spent the previous 2 years (2001-02) as a Trojan graduate assistant, the first year working with the defense in general and then handling the safeties in 2002 (where he worked with All-American first teamer and NFL first rounder Troy Polamalu).

He spent the 2000 season as an administrative graduate assistant with the USC program. In 1999, he was a volunteer assistant, working with the defense and special teams.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Seto, 29, was a linebacker at USC for 2 seasons (1997-98). After spending 1997 as a walk-on, he earned a scholarship for the 1998 season. He was awarded USC's Black Shirt (scout team) Defensive Player of the Year Award in 1998.

He transferred to USC from Mt. San Antonio Junior College in Walnut (Calif.), where he was a fullback and defensive end in 1995 and 1996. His coach at Mt. San Antonio was ex-USC All-American offensive guard Bill Fisk.

He prepped at Arcadia (Calif.) High, where he was on the football and track teams.

He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from USC in 1999 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from Mt. San Antonio in 1997. He then earned his master's degree in public administration from USC in 2001.

Born March 12, 1976, his wife's name is Sharla (she played soccer at USC under her maiden name of Chiang, including on the Women of Troy's 1998 Pac-10 championship squad). They have a newborn daughter, Kaylani.

SAM ANNO

Special Teams Graduate Assistant
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Former USC and NFL linebacker Sam Anno is in his first year on the Trojan staff as a special teams and defensive graduate assistant. He joined the staff in February of 2005.

In 2005, placekicker Mario Danelo set NCAA records for PATs and PAT attempts.

USC played in the 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Anno, 40, spent 2004 as an assistant coach at Venice (Calif.) High. He also was an assistant for 4 seasons (1996-99) at St. Monica High in Santa Monica (Calif.) and was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Santa Monica High, for 2 seasons (2000-01). During that time, he also was a teacher with the Los Angeles Unified School District.

He was a linebacker and a highly-recognized long snapper and special teams player in the NFL for 7 years (1987-93), with the Los Angeles Rams (1987), Minnesota Vikings (1987-88, when USC head coach Pete Carroll was an assistant there), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1989-92) and San Diego Chargers (1993). He was the NFL's Special Teams Player of the Year in 1989.

He was involved in various business and entertainment ventures following his NFL career.

He was a 4-year (1983-86) letterman linebacker at USC. He posted 127 tackles while starting as a 1985 junior and added 51 stops while the first half of his 1986 senior year before being sidelined with a knee injury. His Trojan teams played in the 1985 Rose Bowl (beating Ohio State and finishing 10th in the final AP poll), 1985 Aloha Bowl and 1987 Citrus Bowl.

He received his bachelor's degree in communication from USC in 1987.

He prepped at Santa Monica High.

He was born Jan. 26, 1965. He is single. He is part Japanese, American Indian, Scottish and Irish.

DAVID WATSON

Offensive Line Graduate Assistant

David Watson is in his first year on the Trojan staff as offensive line graduate assistant. He joined the staff in February of 2005.

In 2005, offensive guard Taitusi Lutui and offensive tackle Sam Baker were All-American first teamers and they joined center Ryan Kalil on the All-Pac-10 first team.

USC played in the 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

He spent 2004 as a defensive graduate assistant at Michigan State.

He began his coaching career at Southwest Minnesota State, a Division II school. He was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line in 2002, then became a fulltime assistant in 2003 handling the defensive line and linebackers, as well as being the front 7 coordinator.

Watson, 29, played defensive end at both Minnesota and Western Illinois. He began at Minnesota for 3 years (1994-96). He earned Academic All-Big Ten honors as a freshman in 1994, then took medical redshirts because of injuries in both 1995 (knee) and 1996 (foot). He then transferred to Division I-AA Western Illinois for 3 years (1997-99), where he was an All-Gateway Conference selection each seasons. 2005 USC GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 3, Honolulu, Hawaii
USC 63, Hawaii 17
Att: 50,000

USC	7	14	28	14	—	63
Hawaii	3	0	7	7	—	17

Top-ranked USC began its quest for a third consecutive national championship with an easy 63-17 win at Hawaii on a warm, breezy day before a sold-out crowd of 50,000 fans in Aloha Stadium and a national ESPN2 audience.

It was USC's 23rd consecutive win, its 10th in a row on the road and its seventh straight in season openers. It also kept Troy perfect in 6 tries versus the Warriors. USC scored its most points since 1989 (66 versus Utah State) and it was the Trojans' third consecutive 60-point outing versus Hawaii. It also was USC's most points in an opener since 1929 (76 versus UCLA).

Troy, which rolled up 518 yards of total offense (averaging 8.4 yards per play) and only punted once (late in the game), held just a 3-7 lead at the end of the first quarter after getting only 4 offensive plays late in the quarter. Six plays into the game, S Darnell Bing picked off a pass by Hawaii QB Colt Brennan and returned it 65 yards for a TD. The Warriors responded with a 16-play drive that consumed 9:08, culminating with a 30-yard field goal by PK Dan Kelly.

USC then scored on its first two possessions of the second quarter—a 22-yard pass from QB Matt Leinart to WR Dwayne Jarrett and a 41-yard burst by TB Reggie Bush—and then again early in the second half (a 28-yard Leinart to Jarrett aerial to give Leinart the USC career TD pass record) to gain control, 28-3.

After Brennan hit RB Bryan Maneaifaiga with a 27-yard scoring pass on the following drive, USC scored the next 28 points, including 21 more in the third quarter. First, Leinart found wide-open WR Steve Smith for a 67-yard score, then Bush ran in from 1-yard out, then TB Desmond Reed returned a fumble 15 yards on the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown, and finally Jarrett caught his third score of the day (tying a USC game record) on a 2-yard pass from backup QB John David Booty early in the fourth quarter (Booty's first career TD toss).

Late in the game, Hawaii got its final points on a 7-yard pass from QB Tyler Graunke to RB David Farmer, but USC responded with Reed's 29-yard scoring cut-back run.

Leinart was 18-of-24 passing for 332 yards in seeing the equivalent of 2 quarters of action. Bush had 158 all-purpose yards as he ran for 86 yards on 12 carries, caught 4 passes for 58 yards and returned a kickoff 14 yards. Both Jarrett (88 yards) and Smith (game-high 185 yards) had 7 receptions. PK Mario Danelo, in his first career action, tied a school record by hitting all 9 of his PATs. LB Dallas Sartz had a game-best 7 tackles, including 2 sacks.

Hawaii, which controlled the ball for 33:12, had 437 yards of total offense (including 377 through the air) while alternating quarterbacks nearly every play. Brennan completed 21-of-32 passes for 250 yards, while Graunke was 12-of-17 for 127 yards through the air and ran for 43 yards on 7 carries. Maneaifaiga caught 6 passes for 61 yards and WR Ross Dickerson added 5 catches for 116 yards.

GAME 2 – September 17, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 70, Arkansas 17
Att: 90,411

Arkansas	7	3	0	7	—	17
USC	28	14	14	14	—	70

Behind a pair of touchdowns by both TBs Reggie Bush and LenDale White and another 4 TD passes by QB Matt Leinart (including 2 to WR Dwayne Jarrett), top-ranked USC overwhelmed Arkansas, 70-17, in its 2005 home opener before a near-capacity crowd of 90,411 (a school record for a home opener) and a national FSN cable audience.

It was Troy's most points scored since getting 70 at Washington State in 1970, its most in the Coliseum since getting 70 versus California in 1930 and the most allowed by Arkansas since 1918. It was USC's 24th consecutive victory, 22nd home win in a row and 14th straight over a non-conference foe.

USC piled up 736 yards of total offense, its most since at least 1972 and the most ever allowed by Arkansas, and averaged 11.0 yards per play despite holding the ball only 25:51. Troy's 445 passing yards were 3 yards shy of the school record set in 2002 at Oregon.

USC struck quickly and scored touchdowns on its first 6 possessions (and 9 of its first 10), including tallying 28 points while having the ball only 1:32 of the first quarter (gaining 246 yards on just 8 plays in that opening quarter). On the Trojans' third play of their first possession, Bush jettied 76 yards on his first touch for a score. After Arkansas responded on the next series with a 12-yard scoring pass from QB Robert Johnson to SE Marcus Monk, Leinart hit a streaking Bush on USC's next play for a 29-yard score. Two plays into each of Troy's next 2 drives, USC scored: first, Leinart and Jarrett hooked up for a 24-yard TD, then Leinart scrambled for a 17-yard score following an interception by S Josh Pinkard (who started for injured S Darnell Bing).

PK Chris Balseiro nailed a 31-yard field goal early in the second quarter on the Razorbacks' next possession, but USC responded by scoring touchdowns on its next two series: a 3-yard White run and an 8-yard Leinart-to-Jarrett pass to make it 42-10 at halftime.

The Trojans then scored on their first 3 drives of the second half, on a 1-yard White run, a 21-yard pass from Leinart to FB David Kirtman and a 21-yard score from QB J.D. Booty to WR Patrick Turner early in the fourth quarter. Monk caught a 5-yard TD pass from QB Alex Mortensen on the next series. Then, late in the game following an interception by LB Kaluka Maiava, QB Michael McDonald hit TE Jimmy Miller for a 4-yard TD.

Leinart was 18-of-24 for 381 yards (the second most of his career) in less than full quarters of action, Bush ran for 125 yards on 8 carries and added 4 catches for 70 yards, White had 60 yards on 10 rushes, WR Steve Smith caught 4 passes for a game-best 129 yards (his third consecutive 100-yard game), Jarrett added 4 grabs for 70 yards and TB Desmond Reed ran for 50 yards on 3 carries and returned 2 kickoffs for 101 yards. For the second week in a row, PK Mario Danelo set a school record by hitting all 10 of his PATs.

LB Oscar Lu led USC with 8 tackles and LB Keith Rivers added 7, while DE Froatee Rucker had 2.5 sacks to help limit Arkansas, which entered the game with the nation's top rushing offense (338.5), to 197 yards on the ground (but the most USC surrendered in the last 37 games when Washington State had 201 in 2002).

For the Razorbacks, Johnson was 8-of-16 for 91 yards, FL Cedric Washington caught 5 passes for 63 yards and TB Darren McFadden ran for 88 yards on 13 tries.

USC unveiled its 2004 national championship banner at the game.

GAME 3 – September 24, Eugene, Oregon
USC 45, Oregon 13
Att: 59,129

USC	0	10	21	14	—	45
Oregon	10	3	0	0	—	13

Trailing 13-0 late in the first half, top-ranked USC exploded for 45 unanswered points to beat No. 24 Oregon, 45-13, before a noisy, sold-out crowd of 59,129 (a stadium and state record) in Autzen Stadium and an ABC-TV regional audience.

The win was Troy's school- and Pac-10-record tying 25th in a row, as well as its 16th straight Pac-10 victory, 11th consecutive road win and 12th in a row over an AP Top 25 squad.

Oregon scored twice early in the game following USC turnovers (on a 37-yard field goal by PK Paul Martinez and a 36-yard TD pass from QB Kellen Clemens to WR Demetrius Williams). The Ducks added another Martinez field goal (48 yards) midway through the second quarter (equaling Troy's largest deficit in its 25-game winning streak) before the Trojan onslaught began, as USC scored on its next 7 possessions.

First, TB Reggie Bush caught a 19-yard TD from QB Matt Leinart and PK Mario Danelo hit a 36-yard field goal (the first of his career) to make it 13-10 at halftime. USC then scored 3 more TDs in the third quarter—a pair of Leinart passes to WR Dwayne Jarrett (11 and 6 yards) sandwiching a 1-yard run by TB LenDale White—and twice in the fourth quarter (an 11-yard Bush reverse-field run and a 2-yard White run).

USC piled up 593 total yards (including 278 rushing against an Oregon defense that was allowing only 81.0 on the ground) and 31 first downs on 81 plays in 32:40 of possession time, converting 10-of-14 third downs. Oregon—which was averaging 490.7 total yards and 40.7 points—managed just 262 total yards (only 65 rushing) and 16 first downs on 66 plays against a Trojan defense that was breaking in 2 new starters (LB Thomas Williams and CB John Walker). In the decisive third quarter, USC outgained Oregon, 206 to 11, and had 9 first downs to the Ducks' 1.

Leinart hit 23-of-39 passes for 315 yards and the 3 TDs, including going 11-of-14 for 170 yards in the second half. Bush and White each rushed for 100-plus yards, as Bush had a game-topping 122 yards on 20 carries as part of his 267 all-purpose yards and White had 111 yards on 15 attempts. Jarrett caught 8 passes for 94 yards (both game highs), while WR Steve Smith added 6 catches for 93 yards. Defensively, USC LBs Keith Rivers and Oscar Luia each had 8 tackles (2 of Rivers' stops were for losses), while DE Frostee Rucker added 7 tackles (4 for losses, with a sack). USC was penalized 11 times for 86 yards, including 9 times in the first half.

Clemens hit 15-of-30 passes for 168 yards, including 5 completions for 83 yards to Williams.

GAME 4 – October 1, Tempe, Arizona
USC 38, Arizona State 28
Att: 71,706

USC	0	3	14	21	—	38
Arizona State	7	14	0	7	—	28

For the second week in a row, No. 1 USC overcame a double-digit first half deficit, this time using strong running performances by TBs LenDale White and Reggie Bush and an opportunistic defense that picked off 5 passes to post a 38-28 win at No. 14 Arizona State on a hot (95 degrees) day before a sold-out (71,706) crowd in noisy Sun Devil Stadium and a regional ABC-TV audience.

The Trojans trailed 21-3 at halftime before outscoring ASU 35-7 after intermission. The last time Troy overcame a bigger deficit to win was the 1974 Notre Dame game (24 points); in 2002, USC also trailed California 21-3 before mounting a victorious comeback. It was USC's Pac-10 record 26th consecutive win (the streak started at Arizona State in 2003), its 17th straight Pac-10 victory and its school-record-tying 12th road win in a row, as well as its 13th straight win over an AP Top 25 team and its sixth victory in a row over Arizona State.

USC couldn't get untracked in the first half, as it committed 8 penalties in the first quarter. The Sun Devils scored first late in the opening quarter on an 84-yard punt return by WR Terry Richardson. But LB Oscar Luia intercepted QB Sam Keller early in the second quarter (Keller's first pick in 131 attempts) and USC drove to a 36-yard field goal by PK Mario Danelo. However, ASU then scored twice more in the half to go up by 18, first on a 7-yard Keller pass to TE Jamaal Lewis and then on a 5-yard run by TB Keegan Herring. It was the first time USC didn't score a first half touchdown since the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl against Utah. It was also USC's biggest deficit in any game since the 2002 Kansas State contest (when it trailed by 21) and its biggest halftime deficit since the 1998 Sun Bowl against TCU (18 points).

USC exploded in the second half, first marching 80 yards with the opening possession as White scored on a 32-yard run. Then, midway through the third quarter, Bush ran 24 yards for a TD just 4 plays after CB Justin Wyatt's interception. Troy took its first lead of the game, 24-21, on QB Matt Leinart's 1-yard sneak midway through the fourth quarter to culminate an 89-yard drive. But the Sun Devils regained the lead on its next possession, capped by TE Lee Burghgraef's 1-yard TD grab of a Keller pass with 5:57 to go (the latest USC trailed in a game during its 26-game winning streak). USC, though, quickly responded, taking just 5 plays to go 80 yards and get the lead back for good on Bush's 34-yard run with 3:44 to play. S Kevin Ellison then intercepted Keller 2 plays later and the Trojans took just 3 plays to score again, this time on White's 46-yard run with 2:22 left.

White had 186 of his career-high 197 rushing yards in the second half and Bush added 132 of his 158 rushing yards after halftime. Their back-to-back games with each rushing for 100 yards marked the first time that USC had a pair of 100-yard runners in consecutive games since 1977 (Rod Connors/Dwight Ford versus TCU and Ford/Charles White versus Washington State). Bush's 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games in 2005 was the first time a Trojan has done that since Sultan McCullough had 4 in a row in 2000.

Leinart, who was knocked woozy early in the game, hit 23-of-39 passes for 258 yards, including going 13-of-16 for 145 yards in the second half. FB David Kirtman (97 yards) and WR Dwayne Jarrett (90 yards) each had 7 catches.

USC had 631 total yards (409 in the second half), including 373 on the ground (264 after the half). It was USC's most rushing yards since getting 491 against Utah State in 1989. And the Trojans limited Arizona State, which was averaging 591.8 total yards and 47.0 points, to just 415 total yards (only 68 rushing yards, with just 2 of those yards in the second half). Troy had 4 interceptions in the second half and 5 sacks in the game. USC's 5 interceptions in the game were its most since getting 5 against Washington in 1999.

Keller was 26-of-45 for 347 yards and WR Derek Hagan caught 10 passes for 162 yards.

DE Lawrence Jackson had a team-best 7 tackles (2.5 for losses, with 1.5 sacks), while CB John Walker had 2 picks (the last with 53 seconds to play).

USC, which held the ball for 34:52, ended up with 12 penalties and converted just 5-of-15 third downs (and neither of its fourth down tries). The Trojans punted 7 times (after punting only 4 times in the first 3 games).

ESPN's GameDay pre-game show aired from the parking lot.

USC 42, Arizona 21
Att: 90,221

Arizona	7	0	14	0	—	21
USC	7	7	14	14	—	42

TB LenDale White ran for a career-high 4 touchdowns and WR Dwayne Jarrett caught a pair of TDs to help No. 1 USC pull away from pesky Arizona, 42-21, before 90,221 fans in the Coliseum and a live national FSN audience.

It was USC's 27th consecutive win, as well as its 23rd victory in a row at home, its 18th straight Pac-10 win and its 16th consecutive Pac-10 home victory.

USC rolled up 724 total yards (its second 700-yard outing of 2005) and had 39 first downs (its most since getting a Pac-10 record-tying 43 against Pomona in 1925) on 96 plays (twice as many as Arizona had and Troy's most since getting the same amount against Arizona State in 1988), but the Wildcats were within a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. All 6 of USC's scoring drives were at least 80 yards.

The Trojans scored on their first drive on White's 1-yard run, but Arizona turned a fumble recovery into a TD (a 4-yard pass from QB Richard Kovalcheck to TE Brad Wood) late in the first quarter. USC took the lead for good late in the half on Jarrett's 22-yard reception of a pass from QB Matt Leinart.

The Trojans scored on the opening possession of the second half as White ran 2 yards. The teams traded touchdowns later in the quarter, as Kovalcheck hit WR Mike Thomas on a 42-yard pass, then White had another 1-yard scoring run before RB Gilbert Harris caught a 1-yard Kovalcheck pass. But USC responded on its next series, with Leinart hitting Jarrett for a 29-yard score early in the fourth quarter. After CB Ryan Ting intercepted a Kovalcheck pass deep in USC territory on Arizona's ensuing drive, the Trojans marched 96 yards to another score (a 6-yard White run).

USC rushed for 346 yards (its second straight 300-yard showing), held the ball 37:00 and converted 10-of-14 third downs, but the Trojans had a pair of turnovers and allowed Arizona to return kickoffs an average of 31.8 yards.

White rushed for 179 yards on 24 carries (his third straight 100-yard game and, combined with his 197 yards the previous game at Arizona State, the most yards in back-to-back games for USC since Marcus Allen's 398 in 1981) and TB Reggie Bush added 110 yards on 14 carries (his fourth consecutive 100-yard performance, the most by a Trojan since Sultan McCullough also had 4 in a row in 2000). It was the first time in USC history that a pair of runners eclipsed 100 yards in 3 consecutive games. White's 4 rushing TDs were the most by a Trojan since Ryan Knight had 4 against California in 1986.

Leinart was 26-of-40 for 360 yards, Jarrett had a game-best 9 catches for 116 yards and WR Steve Smith added 7 grabs for a game-topping 135 yards. On defense, LB Oscar Luu had a team-high 10 tackles.

Kovalcheck was 16-of-25 for 181 yards, while Thomas (88 yards), Wood (52 yards) and Harris (15 yards) each had 4 catches. Arizona had only 245 total yards (just 64 on the ground) and 12 first downs while converting only 1-of-9 third downs. Wildcat P Danny Baugher averaged 46.0 yards on his 6 boots, contributing to USC's poor average field position (the Trojan 17-yard line).

The game culminated USC's Festival 125, the all-university celebration of the school's 125th anniversary.

GAME 6 – October 15, South Bend, Indiana

USC 34, Notre Dame 31

Att: 80,795

USC	14	0	7	24	—	34
Notre Dame	7	14	0	10	—	31

QB Matt Leinart twisted in from the 1-yard line with 3 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC a thrilling 34-31 victory at No. 9 Notre Dame on a clear, breezy day before a sold-out crowd of 80,795 and a national NBC-TV audience.

It was USC's Pac-10 record 28th consecutive victory, as well as its 15th straight non-conference win, its school-record 13th road victory in a row, its 14th straight win over an AP Top 25 team and its fourth win in a row over the Irish.

Leinart drove USC 75 yards on the winning drive, including throwing a gutsy 61-yard audible pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett on fourth-and-9 from the Trojan 26. Four plays later, with the ball on the Irish 2, Leinart scrambled and tried to dive into the end zone near the left flag, but the ball was knocked loose and out of bounds at the 1. However, the scoreboard operator didn't stop the clock after the fumble went out of bounds and, when it hit 0:00, ND fans started to stream onto the field. But the officials huddled and put 7 seconds back on the clock. USC had no timeouts remaining, so Leinart just followed the line's surge into the end zone.

There were 4 lead changes in the fourth quarter. PK D.J. Fitzpatrick hit a 32-yard field goal to give Notre Dame a 24-21 lead at the start of the quarter. But, after Fitzpatrick missed a 35-yard field goal on ND's next series, USC marched 80 yards to retake the lead, with TB Reggie Bush scoring on a 9-yard run with 5:09 to go (his career-best third rushing TD of the game). But the Irish responded on the ensuing possession, with QB Brady Quinn's 5-yard run at 2:04 left culminating an 87-yard drive and setting up Leinart's heroics.

In the first quarter, it appeared that the teams might score at will. USC got on the board first on Bush's 36-yard run-and-hurdle midway through the opening quarter. But Notre Dame, after converting a fourth-and-1 on its own 29, came right back as RB Travis Thomas ran for a 16-yard score. Then, USC answered on TB LenDale White's 6-yard score late in the first quarter just 2 plays after TE Dominique Byrd's 52-yard reception.

The Irish took a 21-14 halftime lead following a 32-yard TD pass from Quinn to WR Jeff Samardzija and then, after USC couldn't do anything on its next series, S Tom Zbikowski's 60-yard punt return. USC tied it at 21-21 midway through the third quarter on Bush's 45-yard burst.

Notre Dame held the ball nearly twice as long as USC (38:40 to 21:20, Troy's lowest possession time since having 20:31 at Stanford in 2000), and ran off 23 more plays (87-64), but Troy had more total yards (a season-low 476 to ND's 417). USC converted only 5-of-13 third downs. ND's 31 points were the most by an opponent during USC's 28-game winning streak.

Leinart was 17-of-32 for 301 yards, but threw 2 interceptions. Bush had 265 all-purpose yards (160 on 15 rushes, 57 on 4 kickoff returns, 35 on 4 receptions and 13 on 3 punt returns) and had his fifth consecutive 100-yard rushing outing (the first time a Trojan did that since Ricky Evans in 1989). Jarrett (101 yards) and WR Steve Smith (90 yards) each caught 4 passes.

On defense, LB Keith Rivers had a game-high 12 tackles (with a sack), plus an interception and fumble recovery, while DT LaJuan Ramsey added 11 stops and LB Oscar Luu had 10 tackles.

For Notre Dame, Quinn was 19-of-35 for 264 yards (he also ran for 21 yards on 13 carries), Samardzija caught 6 passes for 99 yards and RB Darius Walker gained 72 yards on 19 carries.

Notre Dame, which came out in green jerseys, lost for the fifth time in 5 tries when playing a top-ranked USC team.

ESPN's GameDay pre-game show originated from outside the stadium.

GAME 7 – October 22, Seattle, Washington
USC 51, Washington 24
Att: 64,096

USC	14	23	7	7	—	51
Washington	10	7	0	7	—	24

QB Matt Leinart threw 4 touchdown passes—including 3 to WR Dwayne Jarrett—and TB Reggie Bush had a spectacular 84-yard punt return for a TD to help No. 1 USC post a 51-24 win at Washington in front of 64,096 fans and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It extended USC's Pac-10 record overall winning streak to 29 and its school-record road win streak to 13, as well as equaled the USC record for consecutive Pac-10 wins at 19. It also was Washington's 12th straight Pac-10 loss and its fourth in a row to Troy.

Leinart, who was 20-of-26 for 201 yards in just 3 quarters of work, broke the Pac-10 career TD pass mark set in 2004 by Arizona State's Andrew Walter with his third scoring toss (he finished with 87 TDs). Jarrett caught 7 passes for 95 yards (both game highs) while tying USC's game record for TD catches for the third time in his career. Bush had 185 all-purpose yards (including 51 on 8 rushes). WR Steve Smith added 5 catches for 25 yards and TB LenDale White ran for a game-best 56 yards on 16 carries.

Washington held a 10-7 lead late in the first quarter on a 23-yard field goal by PK Evan Knudson (following WR Marlon Woods' 92-yard return of the opening kickoff) and then QB Isaiah Stanback's 8-yard TD pass to WR Craig Chambers.

But USC scored on its first 4 possessions and was aided by some costly Husky mistakes that led to 17 Trojan first-half points. First, Leinart threw TD passes to Smith (8 yards) and Jarrett (24 yards, 1 play after S Darnell Bing's 68-yard kickoff return), then Bush had a 6-yard TD run at the start of the second quarter following CB Justin Wyatt's fumble recovery. Then, after Bush's amazing "now-he-is-stopped-now-he-spun-away" scoring punt return 4 plays later, Leinart hit Jarrett for a 7-yard touchdown following a fumble recovery by DE Frostee Rucker to culminate a 28-point Trojan blitz in 7:01 and just 9 USC plays.

But UW answered with its second 80-yard scoring drive of the half, concluding with Stanback's 1-yard TD run. However, following LB Brian Cushing's blocked punt, PK Mario Danelo hit a 30-yard field goal at the first half gun to give USC a 37-17 lead.

In the second half, Jarrett hauled down a one-handed 7-yard TD off a Leinart pass late in the third quarter. Then, after FS Dashon Goldson ran 76 yards with an interception of a fourth down pass from QB John David Booty, Booty regrouped on USC's next possession to throw a 31-yard TD to WR Patrick Turner.

USC had 390 total yards (a season low to date), but worked off a short field all game (its average field position was its own 45). Troy also punted just once and converted 4-of-6 fourth downs.

The Trojan defense posted 5 sacks and limited UW to 329 total yards (just 59 on the ground). LB Collin Ashton had a team-best 9 tackles, while Rucker added 7 stops with 2 sacks and LB Oscar Lua also had 7 tackles.

Stanback hit 14-of-18 passes for 201 yards.

GAME 8 – October 29, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 55, Washington State 13
Att: 92,021

Wash. State	6	0	0	7	—	13
USC	28	10	3	14	—	55

No. 1 USC used a dominating offense and an effective defense to overpower Washington State, 55-13, before a sold-out Homecoming crowd of 92,021 in the Coliseum and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It was USC's 30th consecutive win, 24th straight home victory, 20th Pac-10 win in a row and 17th consecutive Pac-10 home victory. It also was head coach Pete Carroll's 50th win at USC.

USC compiled a season-high 745 yards of total offense (its most since at least 1972 and the most ever surrendered in Washington State history) while getting 40 first downs (its most since getting a Pac-10 record-tying 43 against Pomona in 1925), converting 10-of-14 third downs and holding the ball for 36:36 on 93 plays. It was USC's most points against WSU since 1970. Troy's 312 rushing yards and 433 passing yards marked the first time ever that USC eclipsed the 300/400 marks in the same game. And the Trojans controlled WSU's high-powered offense (which was averaging 518.6 yards of total offense, including 301.7 passing, and 39.1 points) by limiting the Cougars to a WSU season-low 284 total yards (just 89 passing) with 13 first downs on 58 plays and allowing them to convert just 2-of-13 third downs. It was the first time in 27 games that WSU—whose longest completion was just 12 yards—did not throw a touchdown pass.

QB Matt Leinart completed 24-of-34 passes for 364 yards and 3 TDs in just 3 quarters of work (it was his Pac-10 record-tying 31st 200-yard passing outing of his career), WR Dwayne Jarrett caught 11 passes for 200 yards (both career bests) and a score, TB LenDale White rushed for 155 yards and 2 TDs on 20 carries, TB Reggie Bush added 97 rushing yards on 17 attempts, WR Steve Smith caught a pair of TDs and PK Mario Danelo nailed a pair of field goals.

After the teams exchanged touchdowns early in the first quarter—Leinart threw a 29-yard pass to Jarrett, then RB Jerome Harrison ran for a 13-yard TD (DE Lawrence Jackson blocked the PAT)—USC scored the next 41 points. The Trojans led 28-6 at the end of the first quarter (with 269 yards of total offense and 14 first downs) and 38-6 at halftime (with 459 yards of total offense and 25 first downs). USC answered WSU's first score when OT Winston Justice recovered a Bush fumble in the end zone. After Jackson forced and recovered a WSU fumble, Troy scored on its next possession on Leinart's 15-yard pass to Smith and the duo connected again late in the opening quarter on a 24-yard TD pass. White had a 2-yard touchdown run late in the first half before Danelo hit a 27-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play in the half.

Danelo added a 22-yard field goal late in the third quarter. White rumbled 21 yards for a TD early in the fourth quarter before WSU got on the board again on RB DeMaundray Woolridge's 2-yard TD run. TB Michael Coleman finished the scoring with a 6-yard run late in the game.

CB Josh Pinkard led USC with 10 tackles and LB Collin Ashton added 7.

For WSU, which suffered its fifth consecutive loss of 2005, Harrison ran for 147 yards on 21 carries, QB Alex Brink was 9-of-17 for 64 yards and SE Jason Hill caught 6 passes for 49 yards.

GAME 9 – November 5, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 51, Stanford 21
Att: 90,212

Stanford	0	7	7	7	—	21
USC	24	20	0	7	—	51

In a game that was decided by the end of the first quarter, QB Matt Leinart threw 4 first-half touchdown passes as No. 1 USC overwhelmed Stanford, 51-21, before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 90,212 and a national TBS cable audience.

It was USC's 31st consecutive victory, 25th straight home win, 21st Pac-10 win in a row, 18th consecutive Pac-10 home victory and fourth in a row over Stanford, the last team to beat Troy in the Coliseum. Not only was it USC's most points against the Cardinal since getting 54 in 1952 (and its most ever at home against Stanford), but it was a school-record fifth 50-point outing for the Trojans in 2005. USC led 24-0 at the end of the first quarter and 44-7 at halftime (the most points it scored in a half since getting 49 in the second half versus Notre Dame in 1974).

USC scored on all 7 of its first-half possessions while piling up 395 total yards and 20 first downs by intermission to Stanford's 176 and 8 (in the first quarter, USC had 216 total yards and 11 first downs to the Cardinal's 11 and 0).

The Trojans drove 80 yards with the opening kickoff, with TB LenDale White running for a 2-yard TD. Then, after DE Lawrence Jackson recovered a fumble on Stanford's second offensive play, TB Reggie Bush jettied with USC's first snap for a 42-yard scoring run. White caught a 16-yard TD pass from Leinart on USC's next possession and, then following an interception by LB Thomas Williams, PK Mario Danelo nailed a 21-yard field goal late in the opening quarter. Next, SE Dwayne Jarrett made a spectacular 29-yard over-the-shoulder grab of a Leinart TD pass and, on the first play following DE Froatee Rucker's interception and S Josh Pinkard's return of Rucker's subsequent fumble, Leinart hit TE Fred Davis for another 19-yard score. Stanford finally got on the board midway through the second quarter on WR Justin McCullum's 14-yard scoring reception on a pass from QB Trent Edwards. But USC responded late in the half on Leinart's 1-yard scoring toss to TE Jimmy Miller.

Things slowed down in the second half, as Stanford sandwiched 1-yard TD runs by RB Jason Evans late in the third quarter and RB Gerald Commissiong late in the game around an 8-yard TD run by USC FB Brandon Hancock midway through the fourth quarter after CB William Buchanan picked off a pass.

Leinart hit a season-best 78.6% of his passes (22-of-28) for 259 yards and no interceptions before coming out after USC's first series of the second half (he was 20-of-25 for 245 yards at halftime). Bush ran for 113 yards on 12 carries to go over the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 2005 (he had 161 all-purpose yards), Jarrett had 8 catches for 101 yards and White rushed for 60 yards on 13 tries.

USC had 529 total yards and 27 first downs with no turnovers. Stanford had 420 total yards and held the ball 32:42, but was plagued by 5 turnovers (after not turning over the ball in its 3 previous games).

Rucker led USC with 7 tackles (1.5 for a loss) and S Darnell Bing added 6 stops.

Edwards was 21-of-35 for 245 yards (with 3 picks) and also led Stanford in rushing with 44 yards on 10 carries, while McCullum had 9 catches for 138 yards (both game bests).

GAME 10 – November 12, Berkeley, California

USC 35, California 10

Att: 72,981

USC	7	14	7	7	—	35
California	3	0	0	7	—	10

TB LenDale White rushed for 3 touchdowns and QB Matt Leinart ran for another 2 scores, while the Trojan defense forced 6 turnovers, as No. 1 USC returned to the site of its last loss and won at California, 35-10, before a sold-out crowd of 72,981 fans in Memorial Stadium and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It gave Troy at least a share of its fourth straight Pac-10 title. It was USC's 32nd consecutive win since last losing in 2003 in triple overtime in Berkeley. It also was Troy's Pac-10 record-tying 22nd straight Pac-10 victory (equaling Cal's mark from 1947-50), as well as its 15th road win in a row, its school record-tying 11th consecutive Pac-10 road win and its 15th straight November victory.

USC scored on 3 of its 4 first half possessions. White had a 1-yard TD run on the Trojans' first series after S Darnell Bing's interception on Cal's sixth play of the game. But Cal responded on its ensuing series with a 45-yard field goal by PK Tom Schneider. Then, Leinart scrambled for 6- and 3-yard TDs in the second quarter.

The Trojans marched 80 yards with the opening kickoff of the second quarter, with White scoring on a 6-yard run. White scored again on a 2-yard run midway through the fourth quarter as USC went 97 yards after S Ryan Ting's goal line interception. Cal scored on USC's reserves late in the game when FB Chris Manderino ran 1 yard for a score.

USC became the first school in NCAA history with a 3,000-yard rusher, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver. Leinart went over the 3,000-yard passing mark for his third season in a row (a USC record and tying the Pac-10 mark), going 20-of-32 for 246 yards (he was 15-of-21 for 171 yards in the first half, including 9-of-11 in the first quarter after hitting his first 8 throws). His 2 rushing TDs were his most ever in a game. White, who ran for 90 yards on 16 carries and added 61 yards on 3 catches, broke the 1,000-yard rushing barrier for his second straight year (the first Trojan to do so since Marcus Allen in 1980 and 1981) and joined fellow TB Reggie Bush to become the first pair of 1,000-yard Trojan rushers in a season (and just the second Pac-10 duo ever). WR Dwayne Jarrett hit 1,000 receiving yards with 5 catches for 69 yards (both game highs). Fellow WR Steve Smith added 5 grabs for 36 yards, while Bush ran for 82 yards on 17 tries.

USC's defense limited Cal to 299 total yards (it was averaging 444.7), 54 plays, 17 first downs and 1-of-8 third down conversions, and held the Bears to their lowest scoring output of the season (they were averaging 35.9) and their fewest points against Troy since 1994 (it was also the fewest points allowed by USC in 2005). USC, on the other hand, had 434 total yards on 79 plays with 26 first downs while holding the ball 36:03.

LB Brian Cushing led USC with 7 tackles, LB Rey Maualuga added 6 stops (with a sack) and an interception and LB Keith Rivers also had 6 stops with a fumble recovery. LB Collin Ashton had USC's other interception and DE Kyle Moore recovered the other fumble.

For Cal, QB Joe Ayoob was 9-of-19 for 98 yards with the 4 picks, while TB Marshawn Lynch rushed for 87 yards on 13 attempts.

GAME 11 – November 19, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 50, Fresno State 42
Att: 90,007

Fresno State	7	14	7	14	—	42
USC	7	6	28	9	—	50

TB Reggie Bush had a Pac-10 record 513 all-purpose yards, including 294 rushing yards with a pair of long touchdown runs, as top-ranked USC fought back to defeat a determined No. 16 Fresno State squad, 50-42, before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 90,007 and an national FSN cable audience.

The win was USC's 33rd consecutive, its Pac-10 record-tying 26th in a row at home, its 16th straight over a non-conference foe (including its eighth consecutive over a non-conference foe at home) and its NCAA record-tying 15th straight over an AP Top 25 team. It was the most points surrendered by a Pete Carroll USC team, the most allowed by USC since 1996 (when UCLA scored 48), the most scored against USC at home since 1976 (46 by Missouri) and it tied the USC opponent record for highest losing score (UCLA in 1990). It was also the most watched telecast in FSN history (2.1 million household).

USC piled up 508 total yards (including 308 on the ground) against a Bulldog defense that was nationally ranked in total yards (305.6), rushing yards (116.1) and points allowed (14.8). USC's defense came up with 5 turnovers (all in the second half), with S Darnell Bing getting a pair of interceptions (including an end zone pick as FSU was threatening late in the game).

Fresno State jumped out to a 21-13 halftime lead, the first time since the 2002 California game that USC trailed at home at the half. The Bulldogs scored on their first possession when WR Jermaine Jamison recovered TE Devyn McDonald's fumble in the end zone on a 13-yard pass from QB Paul Pinegar to cap an 81-yard drive. But USC answered on its ensuing possession, driving 82 yards as TB LenDale White scored on a 5-yard run just 1 play after a 65-yard Bush gallop. FSU scored again early in the second quarter on FB Roshon Vercher's 1-yard run. USC responded on PK Mario Danelo's 25-yard field goal, but the Bulldogs came right back to score on a 14-yard Piengar pass to WR Joe Fernandez. Danelo hit a 31-yard field goal with 2 seconds to go in the half to pull USC within 8 points.

There were 3 lead changes after halftime and a 35-point third quarter as the Trojans scored on their first 3 possessions of the second half to take a 34-21 lead: Leinart ran in from 1-yard and then, following interceptions by S Brandon Ting and Bing on successive Pinegar passes, Bush jettied 45 yards for a TD and Leinart hit WR Steve Smith for a 6-yard score. But Fresno State didn't fold, as Pinegar found WR Paul Williams on a 20-yard TD pass on the next series. Bush then had an amazing 50-yard cutback TD run late in the third quarter 3 plays after S Scott Ware's goaline pick.

But FSU scored twice quickly a few minutes into the final quarter: first, Pinegar hooked up with Fernandez for a 6-yard TD and then, 1 play after Bush fumbled away the ensuing kickoff, TB Wendell Mathis bolted 18 yards to put the Bulldogs up, 42-41. USC came right back to retake the lead on White's 2-yard run and then extended it to the final margin on Danelo's 26-yard field goal with 3:06 to go after DE Lawrence Jackson stripped the ball from Pinegar and LB Brian Cushing recovered it.

Bush's 294 rushing yards (on a career-high 23 carries) were the second most in USC history (behind Ricky Bell's 347 against Washington State in 1976) and he added 135 yards on 7 kickoffs (both career bests), 68 yards on 3 receptions and a 16-yard punt return to give him the second most all-purpose yardage total in NCAA history. He had 10 plays of 20-plus yards, including 5 of 35-plus yards. Leinart was 22-of-33 for 200 yards, Smith caught 7 passes for 42 yards and WR Dwayne Jarrett added 5 grabs for 37 yards. Danelo set the Pac-10 season PAT record. Ware had a team-best 8 tackles with 2 forced fumbles and a deflection, while Bing, Jackson (with a sack) and CB Josh Pinkard (with 4 deflections) each had 7 stops.

For Fresno State, Pinegar was 27-of-45 for 317 yards, but had as many interceptions (4) as TD throws. Mathis ran for 109 yards on 23 carries and caught 4 passes for 26 yards. Fernandez had 7 grabs for 75 yards and McDonald added 5 for 64 yards. WR Adam Jennings returned 3 punts for 80 yards and 3 kickoffs for 68 yards.

GAME 12 – December 3, Los Angeles Coliseum

USC 66, UCLA 19

Att: 92,000

UCLA	0	6	0	13	—	19
USC	10	21	21	14	—	66

TB Reggie Bush ran for 260 yards and 2 TDs to help No. 1 USC overpower No. 11 UCLA, 66-19, and clinch a Rose Bowl BCS Championship game berth on a brisk day before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 92,000 and a national ABC-TV audience.

USC's 66 points were the second most in the 75-game series (behind only the Trojans' 76 points in the 1929 series opener). It was USC's Pac-10 record 34th consecutive win, 27th straight home victory, 23rd Pac-10 win in a row and 19th consecutive Pac-10 home victory. It was also Troy's seventh straight win over crosstown rival UCLA.

Bush, making an impressive final showing to Heisman Trophy voters, averaged 10.8 yards on his 24 rushes while sitting out most of the fourth quarter. He had 107 yards on 10 carries in the first quarter and was at 228 yards on 18 carries by halftime. The 260 yards was the sixth most ever by a USC runner (Bush and Marcus Allen are the only Trojans to twice eclipse 260 yards) and was the most yards by a Trojan against UCLA. He became the only Trojan to rush for 200 yards twice against the Bruins. It was his eighth 100-yard game in 2005 (the most by a Trojan since Ricky Ervin had 9 in 1989). Combined with his 294 rushing yards in the previous game against Fresno State, his combined 554 rushing yards are the most by a Trojan in back-to-back games. Fellow TB LenDale White added 154 yards on 14 carries (an 11.0 average) with 2 TDs and also caught a scoring pass. He set the USC career record for overall touchdowns at 54 and tied Charles White's school mark for rushing TDs at 49. It was the fourth time in 2005 that both White and Bush ran for 100 yards. QB Matt Leinart was 21-of-40 for 233 yards with 3 TD passes in just over 3 quarters of work despite getting off to a slow start (0-of-5) because he was affected by the emotion of playing in his last game in the Coliseum (he was 13-of-20 for 165 yards in the second half). WR Dwayne Jarrett (83 yards with a TD) and TE Dominique Byrd (56 yards) each caught 6 passes.

Overall, USC had 679 yards of total offense, including 430 rushing (its most since getting 491 against Utah State in 1989 and its fifth time over 300 yards in 2005), and 35 first downs on 95 plays. The Trojans never punted, as they scored on 10 of their 15 possessions (with 7 scoring drives going at least 70 yards). USC set the Pac-10 record for season touchdowns (82, breaking its 1929 mark) and total points (600).

UCLA—which had 2 bye weeks to prepare compared to USC's 1 bye week—came into the game averaging 40.0 points and 444.4 total yards (including 290.9 passing yards), but the Trojan defense limited the Bruins to 19 points (UCLA scored a pair of TDs in the game's final minutes against USC's reserves) and 275 total yards (just 146 passing). The Bruins had only 19 first downs, converted just 2-of-15 third downs, held the ball only 26:01 with 65 plays and had 3 turnovers.

The game was over by the second quarter as USC rolled up a 24-0 lead. The Trojans scored on their first 4 possessions: a 35-yard field goal by PK Mario Danelo, an 8-yard Leinart pass to Jarrett, a 19-yard White run (aided by a 65-yard Bush burst on third-and-10 from the USC 3) and, after S Josh Pinkard recovered a UCLA fumble on the ensuing kickoff, a 13-yard Bush run where he hurdled into the end zone. UCLA got on the board midway through the second quarter on a pair of 43-yard field goals by PK Justin Medlock, but a 10-yard scoring run by Bush late in the half gave Troy a 31-6 lead.

The Trojans then scored 28 straight points in the second half to open up a 59-6 edge on a 15-yard Leinart pass to Fred Davis, a 38-yard fumble return by CB Justin Wyatt on UCLA's next play, a 24-yard Leinart pass to White and an 8-yard White run early in the fourth quarter. UCLA scored its first touchdown of the game with 3:33 to play on TB Maurice Drew's 15-yard run against the Trojan backups. Then, after CB John Walker returned an on-side kick to the Bruin 2, FB David Kirtman scored on a 2-yard run. QB Drew Olson hit WR Matt Willis on a 13-yard pass with 11 seconds to play.

Olson, who entered the game as the nation's passing efficiency leader, was 14-of-32 for 146 yards and he was sacked 5 times. Drew ran for 84 yards on 14 carries.

LB Rey Maualuga led USC with 9 tackles and 2 forced fumbles, DT Sedrick Ellis added 7 stops (with a sack) and DE Lawrence Jackson had 5 tackles, including 3 sacks, and 2 forced fumbles.
